METHODISTS MEET AT COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE

Washington, N. C. Oct. 29.—Wash-ington this week will have the honor of entertaining the forty-sixth annual session of the Atlantic Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist Protestant church. The conference will convene in the girl's dormitory of the Washington Collegiate Institute with three sessions daily. The conference will start Wednesday morning and will last through the following Sunday.

Bishop Frank M. Bristol, D. D. L. D., of Chattanooga, Tenn., will preside. About 150 preachers and lay delegates are expected to be present from all parts of the state. Several of the churches' connectional officers will be present and make ad-dresses during the conference.

The conference will be entertain-ed at the Institute and by friends in the city. Those entertaining in the city will be expected to furnish their guests breakfast and lodging. Rev. M. O. Fletcher, who will be the host of the conference, would appreciate it of those who are to entertain during the conference would kindly let him know at once as he must get his plans in shape immediately.

This will be the first time that the Atlantic Blue Ridge Conference of the Methodist church has been held in this city. Washington will be de-lighted to have the representatives of this great church in its midst and promises them a royal welcome.

MAN IS WOUNDED IN PISTOL DUEL

New York, Oct. 29.—Thomas Gil-len of Philadelphia was shot and seriously wounded in a pistol duel with Joseph McLean of Brooklyn at the Hotel Langwell today.

The police arrested McLean as he was standing over Gillen. Physi-cians hold out little hope for Gillen's recovery.

COATS

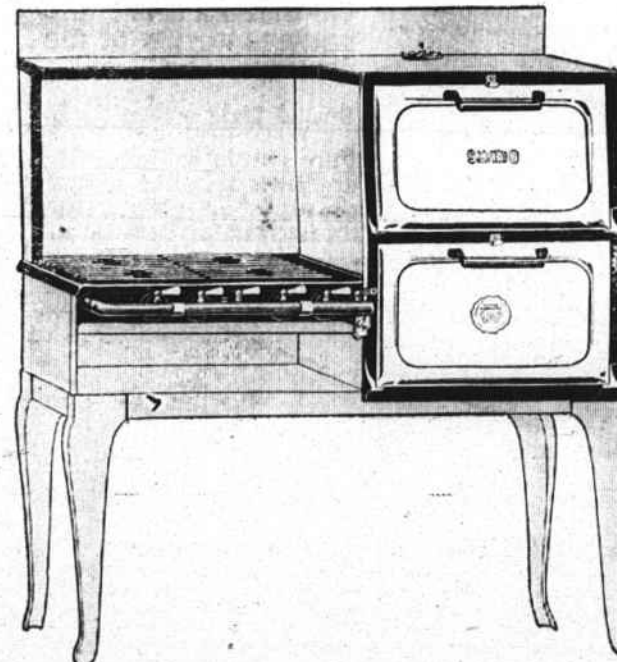

It seems that we have never before shown quite so varied and complete a col-lection. Each day women tell us that the task of "shopping around" is quite unnecessary, as they are able to find right here in our store, the very coat suited to their requirements, no matter what price limit they have decided on. Then there's the assurance of style correctness that always char-acterizes the Woman's Wear Store's apparel.

THOUGHTS--OF YOU

THE world's greatest investors would be wast-ing their talents if their creations were such that they interested no one else—and unless someone else were able to enjoy them and benefit by them.

Nothing amounts to much that is confined to one person or to a limited group. Stop and think for a minute! Isn't it because thoughts are so easily exchanged and spread broadcast that this country is so fine a place to live in?

The advertisements in this paper are thoughts. Many of them are thoughts conceived with you in mind—thoughts for your comfort—your pleasure—your health—your satisfaction. Thoughts that will save you time, money and comfort.

Do you take full advantage of them? Do you read them, every day?
