ELKS MINSTREL MAKES BIG HIT

Every Number Encored and the Alkrama Fairly Shook With Roars of Repeated Applause.

The "Gentlemen, be seated" to the grand finale of the Elks Minstrel 1923 edition opening Wednesday night at the Alkrama theater was a decided success. Every number on the program was encored and the audience showed its approval in repeated and continuous applause.

It would be next to impossible to name the stars of the performance unless mention was made of every one who took part in it, including the director, Leslie D. Waldorf, of the orchestra, with Mrs. D. W. Harris at the piano.

The solos by various members of the company were much enjoyed and the Kiwanis Club quartette was a big hit. Most of the songs pulled by the band were new and all of them were funny. There was not a dull moment in the entire show. The action was swift and held the attention of the audience from start to finish.

It would not be fair to those who will attend tonight at the second and last performance of the minstrel to omit any of the solos told at the expense of Elizabeth City people, and those who went last night know their already.

The special numbers were: Drummy Melody by Miss Jessie Williams.

Fun, Fun Rose by Guirkin Cook, Louisville, La. by Al Haley, Sitting in the Corner by Miss Estelle Hayes.

The Kind of a Girl Men Forget by Cheryl Ives.

Waiting for the Evening Mail by Bill C. Sawyer.

Fun by H. C. Foreman.

Indiana Moon by Wesley Woodley, assisted by Kiwanis quartet.

Mamma Goose Where Papa Goose by F. E. Gosden.

A Kiss in the Dark by Miss Mary A. Louisa Skinner.

Shubert Scramble by Hurter Sawyer, Seven or Eleven by D. Walter Harris.

Wonderful One by Arthur Padgett.

Two Time Dan by Fred Cobb.

Crimoline Days by Mrs. Miles Clark, assisted by Crimoline Girls.

The end men were D. Walter Harris, Al Haley, F. E. Gosden, Fred Cobb, Mills Bell, Bill C. Sawyer, Bill Phelps, Billie Hughes.

The circles and choruses were composed of G. P. Hall, Lester Winder, Heywood Duke, P. Q. Midgott, John Pinner, Albert Gard, Clyde Stevens, A. C. Metcalf, J. B. Anderson, Bill Anderson, Irving Midgott, Jas. Hill, Tom Riddick, George Scott, Richardson Sedwick, Evans Blades, H. G. Kramer, Misses Perkins, Greaves, Marguerite Parsons, Helen Thorpe, Ruth Harris, Rebecca Stevens, Grace Jenkins, Evelyn Hughes, Mildred Hughes, Billy Saunders, Rebecca Miller, Lou Williams, Olivia Benton, Katherine Spence.

The Crimoline girls were Misses Nellie Jones, Margaret Davis, Mary Dolder, Olive Wood, Katherine Pinner, Katherine Skinner, Madamame T. S. McMullan, Jr., and W. T. Phelps.

Delightful Time At Mothers Club

Christmas Tree And Program Prove Joy For Kiddies And Grownups, Too

The Christmas entertainment given by the Mothers' Club at the Community House on Firstwood street Wednesday afternoon was a complete success and much credit is given to Mrs. Martin Jennings and her committee. About 50 were present.

All the presents were put on the tree. They were distributed by Rev. George H. Hill in costume as Santa Claus.

Before the presents were handed out, a program was given as follows: America, sung by all present.

Prayer, by Rev. George E. Hill. Welcome, by Mrs. Mary White. Recitation, by Bessie Sawyer, "Toy Shop Window."

Recitation, by Della Mae Padgett, "What We Give, Not What We Get."

Duet, by Mrs. Wilson Williams and Bertha Simpson, "Their Gifts of Love."

Immediately after the last song, Santa came in and gave each of the 50 children there a present. After all the boys were gone there still remained a present on the tree, which Santa took to Mrs. Anna Lewis; upon opening it she discovered a beautiful leather hand bag, given to her by the club.

Besides the 50 children and 34 mothers present, the guests were:

Miss Estelle Hayes.

Fun, Fun Rose by Guirkin Cook, Louisville, La. by Al Haley, Sitting in the Corner by Miss Estelle Hayes.

SOUTHERN TRUST COMPANY, L. E. OLD, Secretary.

What Husband isn't worth 50¢

You are, of course, worth many times 50¢ a day to your family. Yet that paltry sum a day put into an Equitable policy would purchase $9,000 of insurance protection for your family (age 35). Looks attractive, doesn't it?
