SIMPSON-SPENCE

Norfolk July 7—The marriage of Miss Mattie Spence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Spence, formerly of Elizabeth City, to James R. Simpson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Simpson, of Winston-Salem, took place Saturday morning at the home of the bride's parents on Brandon avenue. The Rev. James W. Moore, D. D., pastor of Epworth M. E. Church, performed the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding dress of white chiffon over white satin, with a veil of tulle arranged with a coronet of orange blossoms. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her maid of honor, Miss Leona Lewis, of Elizabeth City, wore orchid chiffon with a hat to match, and carried a shower bouquet of sunset roses. Misses Annabelle Dennis of Suffolk, and Elizabeth Simpson of Winston-Salem, were bridesmaids and wore gowns of pink and blue chiffon, and carried arm bouquets of Columbia roses and maidenhair fern, tied with white-tulle streamers. The bridegroom had as his best man George Modlin of Elizabeth City.

Mrs. William Norfleet played the march with a violin accompaniment by Miss Virginia Saunders and just before the ceremony Mrs. Edward Griffin, of Greenville, sang a solo. Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Simpson left for a motor trip through the New England States. On their return they will make their home in Winston-Salem.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mrs. Sisk, Miss Edith Britt, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Simpson and Miss Elizabeth Simpson, of Winston-Salem; Misses Annabelle and Katherine Dennis, of Suffolk; Miss Leona Lewis of Elizabeth City; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Griffin, of Greenville, and George Modlin of Elizabeth City.
