NEGRO LODGE SCRAP GETS AIRED IN COURT

GETS AIRED IN COURT The troubles of Gideon Lodge, colored, were aired in polles court-Saturday morning as a result of an effort on the part of Annie E. Jones, for 24 years a teacher in the colored schools of the city, to put Henry Heckstall and his wife, under bond as a result of threats which they had made against her. The court did not find the est-dence of a nature to justify a peace bond but taxed Heckstall and his wife with costs on a new warrant charging assault. The trouble came on through as wife with costs on a new warrant charging assault. The trouble came on through an application of Annie Jones for a splic theorem and the second second while she was taking a course at columbia University last summer. The sick benefit committee de-ferred acton on the claim on the ground that the New York physi-clan's certificate and the applica-tion for the benefit signed by An-ple Jones appeared to be the same handwriting, but in the courfroom when the two writings were presented there was no one on the stand or elsewhere to any that such ground was justified. Before writing of her illness, the facher had twice written her husband asking him to report it to fleckstall, who seemed to have hushand asking him to report it to Heckstall, who seemed to have shown one or, both of the letters to Heckstall's wife. In arguing for her sick benefit claim in per-sen Annie Jones referred to this mutiter and this brought on epi-thets and threats from Heckstall and his wife. Following the dif-ficulty, and while Heckstall was arging he'd never have any more use for Annie Jones, a woman member of the lodge dropped field.

The court urged the lodge to compose its differences and settle
