Entertains Ladies Aid

In pursuance of a custom of long standing, Mrs. P. W. Melick entertained the Ladies Aid Department of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Cann Memorial Presbyterian Church, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. S. Blades on Monday afternoon.

A goodly number of the ladies were present and listened with considerable interest to the reports showing forth the year's work, much surprise being evinced by the showing of the treasurer, when her report was read disclosing the rather large balance of funds in her hands. This was very gratifying indeed.

After the business of the evening was discussed, the ladies were served with a two course luncheon.

This is an event looked forward to by all, and when the first Monday of January approaches, the regular time for the occasion, all are ready for it and their expectation of a most enjoyable occasion is always more than fulfilled.

Enjoyable B. Y. P. U. Service

The Intermediate B. Y. P. U. of Blackwell Memorial Church enjoyed a social given by their leader, Miss Nellie Hastings, in the ladies' parlor of the church, Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Music and games were the chief entertaining features, after which delicious refreshments, consisting of ambrosia, cakes and candies, were served. The candies were green and white, carrying out the B. Y. P. U. colors. Those present were: Misses Mary Wilson, Katherine Chory, Lucille Gregory, Lucille Sykes, Ruth Overman, Bertha Pritchard, Hazel Jennings, Martha Berry, Walton Melicks, Aubrey Gallop, Garland Hastings, Winifred Menden, Byron Sawyer, Harold Nixon, Tom White, Tom Harris.

Social at Harbinger

Harbinger, Jan. 8.—Miss Louise Sawyer delightfully entertained a number of the younger set of this place Saturday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock at her home. Those enjoying Miss Sawyer's hospitality were: Misses Estelle Guard, Roxie Parker, Gerlie Owens, Haydn and Sarah Nelson, Hilda Owens, Wilma Parker and Bertie Gallop; Messrs. Luther Parker, Walton Griggs, Fred Owens, Melvin Sawyer, Russell Gallop, Robert L. Sawyer, Merrill Owens, and S. G. Sawyer of Beach Haven, New Jersey; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Parker of New London, Connecticut; Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sawyer; Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Sawyer; Mrs. Lydia Sawyer, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Nelson. Many interesting games were played after which delicious refreshments were served.

Don't Say "Lost" — Say — Phone 357!

Nothing is lost until after it's been advertised for in The Advance Lost and Found Column.

After that, it's generally not reported among the missing.

We wouldn't be telling you this, if it weren't for the unusual results that these little Lost ads are accomplishing all the time.

Quick returns, unexpected returns, returns in cases that the losers thought were hopeless — that's the sort of "everyday miracles" that are being performed through the Lost and Found column.

No wonder we say the word "lost" doesn't mean as much as it used to!

Find out for yourself. Next time you lose something, don't worry. Put an Advance ad on the case.
