Junior Order Entertains

The annual banquet of the Junior Order of the United American Mechanics in their hall in the Kramer Building Tuesday night, was a most successful and enjoyable affair.

The hall was packed at 7:30 with the members of the order and their guests, the teachers of the Graded School, the School Board, Judge E. H. Cranmer and others.

Music was furnished by Mrs. J. W. Foreman and the Kiwanis quartette. The audience evidenced their approval of the music rendered by roundly applauding each number. L. E. Skinner was in charge of the musical program and led the audience in the opening number, "America." Mrs. J. W. Foreman sang "You'll Remember Me" and, as an encore, "Japanese Love Song." Miss Phyllis Skinner acted as accompanist for Mrs. Foreman. The Kiwanis quartette was at its best and was favorably received. They rendered a half dozen numbers for the audience before they were called to the banquet room, and during the banquet which followed they furnished entertainment for the crowd.

The general program was as follows: Address of welcome, Dr. J. H. Thayer; Response on behalf of the teachers, A. B. Combs; Address, State Councillor R. M. Gantt of Durham.

Mr. Gantt delivered a splendid address setting forth the principles of the order and showing how the Junior Order had exemplified these principles from its infancy to the present time.

After Mr. Gantt's address the audience was called to the large banquet hall where a splendid dinner was served by the wives of the members of the Junior Order. George J. Spence acted as toast master and called for brief talks from E. F. Aydtlett, Superintendent S. L. Sheep, Dr. N. H. D. Wilson, and Judge Cranmer. Those present were of the opinion that this was the most successful of the Junior Order's annual banquets.

T. E. L. Class Meets

The T. E. L. Class of the First Baptist Sunday School was delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. S. G. Scott on Selden street Tuesday evening at 7:30. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Cleveland Jackson. After the business was transacted Mrs. Ella Pearson gave some very interesting questions on David. The class adjourned with an invitation to meet at the home of Mrs. I. M. Meekins on West Main street on the last Tuesday in January. Those present were: Mrs. John Bray, Mrs. N. C. Clark, Mrs. Jesse Carter, Mrs. W. T. Culpepper, Mrs. John Greason, Mrs. F. F. Garrett, Mrs. Cecil Garrett, Mrs. W. W. Garrett, Mrs. C. P. Harris, Mrs. Cleveland Jackson, Mrs. Robert Lamb, Mrs. D. M. Love, Mrs. E. Ludford, Mrs. Robert Payne, Mrs. Frank Parker, Mrs. Ella Pearson, Mrs. S. G. Scott, Mrs. M. L. Temple, Mrs. Will Twiddy, Mrs. J. G. Gregory, Mrs. I. M. Meekins, Mrs. H. E. White, Mrs. S. M. Boettcher, Mrs. Claude Bailey, and Mrs. S. M. Rogers.

Alathean Class Meets

The Alathean Class of the First Baptist Sunday School held their first meeting of the New Year Monday night at the home of the teacher, Mrs. S. E. Leitch, on North Martin street. Devotional exercises were conducted by the president, Mrs. Ida Steger, and a prayer made by Mrs. S. H. Harris. Reports of personal service and an agreement to help start a new church building at once were part of the business transacted. The next meeting will be held on the first Monday in February at the home of Mrs. C. A. Cooke on Selden street. There were 24 members present and one visitor. Delicious refreshments were served in three courses by the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Miss Irma and Miss Helen Leitch.

Scotch Highlands Have Nothing On Carolina's

Hand Woven Woolens from Looms of Asheville Selected by Carefully Gowned Women in Preference to Imported Goods of Same Class

New York, Jan. 9.—The Orkneys and the Scotch highlands have no advantage over some parts of America when it comes to hand woven woolens. Many carefully gowned women are selecting home spun goods from the hand looms of Asheville, the Kentucky mountains and Nantucket for their spring suits.

Paris, Jan. 9.—There may not be enough pretty dresses to go around but there are any quantity that wrap around. One of the latest is of dark blue kasha which unfolds the figure rather closely fastening on a diagonal line from right shoulder to left hip with four large buckles. It is embroidered in red.

London, Jan. 9.—The latest shade is lettuce green. One evening frock of that shade in satin shown here today is embroidered with gold, silver and iridescent beads. The hem flares slightly.

TWO ELECTROCUTED AGED ONLY 19 AND 21

Ossining, New York, Jan. 9.—John Rys, 19, and John Emmette, 21, both of Reading, Pennsylvania, were executed in the electric chair at Sing Sing this morning for the murder a year ago of Lee John, Chinese laundryman of Jefferson, New York.

London, Jan. 9.—The new camel's hair hats, unlike the ramie do not give any one the "hump." They are stitched, turned down, brims, folded in crown, are bound at the edge and laced with heavy corded ribbon and finished with a tiny grouse feather at the side.

New York, Jan. 9.—English silk broadcloth, so popular in the past year for men's shirts, is being used for silk frocks in roman stripes of porcelain blue, peach, orchid, green, crabapple red, dove, gray, gold, black, apricot and other delicate shades.
