Mothers Club Meets

The Mothers Club met at the Community House on Fleetwood street at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Eight babies were weighed. A considerable sum of money was turned in for the treasury, which was made by selling jello. More jello was also distributed to be sold.

Y. W. H. Class Meets

The Y. W. H. Class of the First Christian Church met Wednesday evening at the church with 22 members present. After the opening hymn Miss Nettie Palmer read the twelfth chapter of Romans and this was followed by prayer by Mrs. T. V. Sexton. The minutes were read by Miss Louise Dillon, secretary. For the last month the class has been having a campaign and $11.55 was turned over to the treasury. Another campaign has now been started to get the inactive members to come back to Sunday School. The class hymn, "Somebody Did a Golden Deed," was sung and the meeting was closed with prayer by Miss Nettie Palmer, vice president. After the business meeting Miss Della McDaniel and Mrs. F. M. White, Mrs. H. T. Bowen, Mrs. Johnnie Johnson and Miss Katherine Scott served different kinds of candies.

South Mills Club Leaders Chosen

The South Mills Woman's Club began its fall activities with the September meeting. Officers elected for the coming year were: Mrs. B. F. Forehand, president; Mrs. F. M. Eason, secretary; Mrs. E. N. Williams, treasurer. Plans for this year's work were taken up at this meeting. Among the plans was one to entertain the school faculty and patrons in the way of a get acquainted meeting in the High School auditorium, which was carried out very successfully Monday evening. After the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed by all present. The refreshments were served by the social committee and all went home feeling better acquainted with parent and teacher.

turned to her home at Rocky Mount after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Barnette, on East Burgess street.

CHILDREN OBSERVE FIRE PREVENTION

Appropriate Fire Prevention exercises were held in the Grammar School auditorium Friday morning, the principal, Miss Hattie Harney opening the exercises with a brief announcement, after which the audience joined with her in the Lord's Prayer.

An effective play was presented by pupils from Miss Frances Purvis' room, showing the tragedy which lurks around the corner for those who do not heed the "Safety First" warnings and co-operate in the work of the Safety Leagues.

Mrs. L. E. Sklaner's girls and boys next came on the stage with songs and speeches to drive home the lesson of Safety Always. Although it is early in the school year and the children have had little opportunity to prepare programs, they acquitted themselves in fine fashion, their earnestness and enthusiasm spreading over the auditorium and cheering teachers and parents who see in those little people hope for a better Home Town and a better world.

NEW FACES FOR OLD

Is your face just something to hold together ears, eyes, nose and mouth? Or is it the thing that distinguishes you from others, is it your identical mark, and if you came home one night with another face, would your loved ones know you? Could you prove your identity?

"Back to Life!" the Whitman Bennett-Encore picture showing today at the Alkrama Theater, is a romance built around such an amazing situation, which, however, is not impossible in these days.
