Currituck Women to Have Picnic At Point Harbor

Home Demonstration Event Promises to be Delightful With Mrs. Jane McKimmon as Guest of Honor, Plenty to Eat and Lots of Sociability

The Currituck County Home Demonstration Club picnic will be held on Wednesday, August 11, at Point Harbor. This will be a big picnic, the purpose of which is to have a good time, get the women of the County acquainted with each other, and with the Home Demonstration work.

"Moyock and Shawboro will meet us at Currituck School House," says Miss Rachel Everett, home demonstration agent. "We will start from there promptly at 9:30. Other delegations can meet us on the way. It would be fine if you could trim your automobiles in some way to designate the locality. If it rains the picnic will be held on Thursday."

"Pack a basket lunch, tea cream and ice tea will be sold on the grounds. We hope to have Mrs. Jane McKimmon of Raleigh, State home demonstration agent, on the program. Games, races and contests will be the order of the day. Everybody is asked to register at the gate and get a tax. A prize will be given for the woman getting acquainted with the most people in a set space of time. The secretary of the clubs are asked to report to me the number going from each community. The Moyock women are asked to report to Mrs. Dudley Bagley; the Shawboro women, to Mrs. J. W. Bell; Powells Point to Mrs. Mattie Newbern; Jarvisburg to Mrs. Mildred Gallop; Poplar Branch, Mrs. C. A. Woodhouse; Maple, Mrs. Will Snowden; Currituck, Mrs. Luke
