Crossing New Bridge September 7 Visitors Will See Attractive Town With Many New Buildings

Columbia, Aug. 6.—Plans are rapidly going forward in Tyrrell county for celebrating on September 7 the formal opening of the new bridge crossing the Scuppernon River at Columbia.

This bridge, costing nearly $100,000, is one of the outstanding and badly needed improvements recently made in this section of North Carolina. Leading to this bridge is a 16 foot concrete road extending from the Washington county line near Crooked Creek.

Four Spring Chicks Cost Local Man His Auto

By a mild stretch of the imagination, four spring chickens may be said to have cost Mr. and Mrs. Will Harrison, Selden street, an Oakland sport roadster, 1926 model, on the Newland Highway near Hinton's Corner Friday night.

The smoke steadily grew in volume, and appeared to be issuing from the rear of the car. Mr. Harrison lifted the rumble seat, and flames leaped almost into his face. The entire rear of the automobile was afire.

Of Suicide And Murders Possibly Caused By Sun Spots

Maybe it's the sun spots that have been giving astronomers so much concern. Possibly, it might be attributed to the rumblings of next year's Presidential election, just beginning to be heard. On the other hand, it may have been caused by the increase in the County tax rate, which is giving the taxpayers generally something to ponder about.
