And thus the trial of Dr. Grissom passes into history. He has been acquitted but not vindicated, as the divided vote attests -a fact whose significance gives decided emphasis to the inquiring-Should Dr. Grissom, under such circumstances still Aduntarily retain his position?

It is not sarprising that the native Re-publicans of North Carolina should feel considerably notifed at the partiality shown by Mr. Harrison to the Republicans of Northern birth in appointments to office. A. W. Shaffer, appointed postmaster at Haleigh, Palemon John, Collector of the Port, at E. City: G. Z. French postmaster and E. J. Pennypacker Collector of Cus-toms at Wilmington, S. Cramer, Assayer of the mint at Charlotte, and L. G. Estes postoffice inspector are all Northern men. Considering the number of Northern men compared with the native Republicans they have undoubtedly gotten a very libe-ral allowance of the official plums, - Wilmington Star.

As exchange says Mr. William Harrison Bradley, who was appointed Consul to Nice the other day, is said to be distantly related to the President, and investigation would probably reveal the fact that "Henry' is a part of his name, Another William Henry, and another instance. of nepotism. Hasn't the country had about enough of this sort of thing ?

"Wmax entire business houses are given "WHEN entire business bounces are given over to dog furnishing, when dogs are given Tarkish baths and have special atten-dants, special toilet combs, brushes and perfumes, when a dog sleeps on edler-down cushions, and eat special dishes off individ-nal services, isn't it time we dropped the phrase 'treated like a dog?" "Treated like a man" would have the better applica-tion in multitudes of cases, -- Washington Post.

THE Atlantic Seaside is a new candidate for journelistic patronage published at Beaufort and Morshead City, by the At. lantic publishing Co. The Seasido is an eight-page six column paper; bright and newsy, and we wish for it a long and prosrous life while battling in the Democratie field.

This estuings of the position of the three months. March, Apiri and May, amounted to $12,845, while the expectes were $51,853. This shows an apparent deficit of $9,000 for the quarter, but we have that fam provided in the fall and se that farm products in the fall and carnings not yet received wind reduce this somewhat. The penitentiary ought to be made self sustaining if possiable, says the News and Observer.
