CHIEF JUSTICE PAXSON, of Pennsylvania, has issued 33 warrants for the arrest of 33 of the Homestead strikers upon a charge of treason. This is the first case where the charge of treason has been brought in any state for acts of strikers or laborers, and will naturally cause world-wide interest.

The Third party has introduced in this and other States, a woman political stump speaker. Next they will be wanting women to vote here, but they had better go slow along this line for most of the gentler sex are positively opposed to a third party, in the political field as well as in the parlor.

When in Congress Gen. Weaver made three attempts to have his bill passed appropriating $300,000,000 to pay the Union soldiers the difference between greenbacks and gold at the time they were paid. He introduced that bill in the 48th, 49th and 50th Congresses, and if he were President he would favor its passage. They try to dodge it down here, but he is for it.—Wil. Star.

Under Arthur it cost $6.63 cents per capita to run this government.

Under Cleveland it cost $6.12 and under Harrison it cost $7.01. This is a practical illustration of what Democracy means. Cleveland had many expenditures which were caused by Republicans, yet he ran the government for $1 cents less than Arthur and 68 cents less than Harrison per capita.

GEN. WEAVER claims to have been badly used while in Georgia, and says that he would have been continually insulted if he had continued to speak in that State, therefore he cancelled his engagements for that reason. But from those who are as fully reliable, we learn that he left that State because his audiences were so small that he did not think it worth while to canvass the State. The mob which assaulted him with rotten eggs at Macon, was a boy who was at once arrested and will be given justice in the courts.

It is reported that one of the leaders of the People's party has said that when Gen. Weaver spoke at Greensboro, this State, that there were 500 pistols prepared ready to resent any insult offered to him, and at Raleigh as many rifles were ready for use.

The fact that 500 concealed pistols were in the crowd at these speakings show that there is some secret working about this new party, and that its ways and its friends must be respected, even at the sacrifice of human life. If this report is true it should teach respectable, law-abiding men a lesson. Gen. Weaver could and did come into North Carolina without being insulted. It is a free State, and the law which protected him should go to the bottom of this affair and punish those who went to these public speaking with pistols concealed, for in that act they violated the laws of the State and their deeds cast a reflection upon the decent, law-abiding citizens of North Carolina.

We trust that such a report is not true, but as a matter of justice to the people it should be investigated.

PENCIL AND SHEARS.

John L. Sullivan expresses a determination to fight Corbett again and win back the money and belt lost recently.

Prince Peter, of Coburg, grand-son of Dom Pedro, late Emperor of Brazil, went crazy on Monday. He believes he is Emperor of Brazil.

This has been a big Democratic week in New York. All the clubs of the State were there assembled in association. Every mention of Cleveland's name is applauded loud and long.

Judge Albertson, who was formerly a Republican, whose ability is well-known throughout the State, is now making strong speeches for Cleveland in the first district.—News and Observer.

Every vote cast in North Carolina for the Third party candidates mean a vote for Republican supremacy. No Third party man can, or will he deny this if he is conversant with the political situation in the State.

Try to persuade your neighbor to vote for Democracy and free government, but don't try to drive him or punish him, for if he fails to see the error of his way, in time he will be very badly punished by Republican rule.

Gen. Weaver was treated very well by North Carolinians while in the State, but that is no sign that they forgot his hatred for them. North Carolina will fall in line on the 8th of next month and show by their votes how much they think of him.

We have reliable information that a gentleman who has been making a public canvass in Onslow county in the interest of the Third party has discovered what it is liable to lead to and has now renounced the whole movement and come back into the Democratic ranks.—Newbern Journal

The flag of the Cleveland Guards, captured by the Ninth Massachusetts regiment at the battle of Hanover Court House, May 27, 1862, was brought back to Shelby Thursday by a Boston deserter and impostor carter.

EFFORTS TO RESTORE SILVER

News and Observer. The silver dollar was not coined from 1833 to 1873 because silver was then above par, and a silver dollar piece was worth more than a gold dollar. In 1873 the laws about the mint were revised and the provision about coining money made no reference to the silver dollar piece, so after that time the next year the United States Revised Code was adopted, and in it without any legal authority was incorporated a provision that "the silver coin shall be a legal tender for any amount not exceeding five dollars." This deprived the silver dollar of its full legal tender quality, and demoralized silver. Congress was Republican at that time. In December, 1874, and in January, 1875, the Republican Senate and House respectively passed the act to prepare to resume specie payments on January 1st, 1875. Nobody was advertent to the fact that silver had been demoralized and it was thought on all sides that our silver could be used as a basis for resumption.

The first Congress in which the Democrats had control of the House met in December, 1875. At that session it first became known generally that silver had been demoralized. A bill was introduced in the House "to authorize the coining of the standard silver dollar, and the dollar shall be a legal tender in payment of all debts, public and private." The Democratic House passed that measure June 28, 1876. The Republican Senate disagreed to that, and it was thrown out.

At the next session of the same Congress, on the 13th of December, 1876, the Democratic House passed the same measure—a free coinage bill. It got to the Senate, but there the Republicans consigned it to the tombs of the capriens.

At the election which came off in the fall of 1876, the Democrats were again successful, and the silver issue was then hot. There was, however, another issue before the country. The Democrats at the previous session had tacked on to the army appropriation bill an amendment that no troops should be used at the polls. The Republican Senate had refused to pass it, but the House stood firm. The result was that Hayes came in on March 4, 1877, and found it necessary to call a special session of Congress to meet in October. As the new Democratic House met, the members showered in a lot of bills for the free coinage of silver. Twenty of such bills were at once introduced, and a free coinage measure passed the House November 5, 1877.

On February 15, 1878, the Senate amended this bill, taking from it the provision for free coinage, and it was, as amended, passed, and under it $2,000,000 of silver was coined each month until the act of 1890 was passed increasing this amount. From this it will be seen that the Democrats were active in their efforts and pressed the matter, and that through their efforts about five hundred millions of money has been supplied to the people, either coined silver or based on silver.

WE WILL GOVERN IT.

Senator Ransom. My countrymen, I see a dark cloud looming upon the horizon. It is the shadow of negro rule. Are you willing to raise up your beautiful daughters under that black cloud? There is one crime which is increasing in frequency more and more. A fearful, a hideous crime. Its victims suffer a fate worse than death. Sixty-nine times out of a hundred it is a negro who commits this crime and some poor white woman, or school girl, or even an infant may be its victim. It is the blackest stain upon the negro race. In every instance the Southern white men have defended their homes and have avenged the outrage on their wives, sisters and children. Lately a great convention was held in a Northern city—this question was brought up. Would you not have thought that they would have thought that they would have advised the negroes to cease from this horrible crime? But instead of that they rebuked the Southern white people, and called them savages and barbarians. The white people are the best friend of the black race. When we were poor and poverty-stricken one of the first acts passed by the Legislature when the whites regained control was a bill to educate negro children, with money paid by white men into the State Treasury, but they must understand that we will defend our homes, our wives and our daughters. They must understand that this is our country. We won it. We established it. And we will govern it.

Accidents Make Cripples. So does Rheumatism, and after a time it kills too! Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy relieves the pain at once, and is warranted to cure. One bottle, price five dollars, is enough for an ordinary case. If you cannot get it from your druggist, write to the Drummond Medicine Co., 48-50 Maiden Lane, New York. Agents wanted.
