Explanation of Weather Signals

As displayed from our office daily (except Sundays):

White flag, fair. Blue flag, rain or snow. Half white and half blue, local rains. White flag with black centre, cold wave. The black triangular flag is a Temperature Signal, and when displayed above weather flags indicates that it will be warmer, and when below weather flags, that it will be cooler, and when not displayed at all the temperature will remain stationary.

BEACON FLASHES.

When you see an X on the margin of your paper it means that your subscription has expired, it is also an invitation for you to renew. Please remember this and don't let us have to stop your paper.

THE BEACON will be sent to any address one year for $1.00, Six months, 50c.; Three Months, 25c. Every subscription must be accompanied with the cash, or no paper will be sent.

Its a girl.

Election over.

Did you vote.

Prepare your beds and set out strawberry plants.

This issue of the BEACON should make up for the last.

Hen fruit is very scrace now that the price is going up.

After this issue we will give you something besides politics.

Look well after your cattle during the cold, rainy weather.

Mrs. E. Ludford is visiting her sons in Edenton and Hertford.

Drop politics and begin to talk and work for good crops and better times.

Election day was showery, but a large crowd came to town just the same.

We notice that Mr. H. Peal continues to add improvements to his carriage factory.

Mrs J. W. Banks left Wednesday for Baltimore where she goes to visit relatives and friends.

Four thousand yards N. C. plaids and checked homespun at Leggett & Bros., for 5c. per yard.

Misses Delia Skittletharpe and Pearl Manning have returned from a visit to Scotland Neck.

Mrs Clarentine Oliver, of Norfolk, is on a visit to Mrs. A. M. Johnston, and other old friends here.

Mrs B. F. Owens and children are visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Read at Read's Wharf, Va.

Mr F. M Bunch lost his family horse last week. This was a fine animal and is a great loss to the family.

New line of satine chevrons, outing-chambrays, &c., &c., at Leggett & Bros., at 10 and 12½c. Something new. *

Mr. T. J Lewis has moved to the Gaylord place on 4th street, the property having been purchased and remodled by Mr. D O. Brinkley.

Anyone wanting a nice gold watch for a little money will do well by calling on W. H. Midgett at Hampton's store. You can get them from $16,00 up. *

Painter Jasper of the Peal carriage factory has a tenor fiddle which he claims and which bears inscriptions that it is fifty years older than the United States.

That popular young physician, Dr. R. W Smith, of Hertford has associated himself with Dr. Ward of this town. We bespeak for him a liberal share of the patronage.

Our old friend whom everybody likes, Col. W. H. Fitchett, is back from his summer home in the mountains of Virginia, and we are glad to see him looking so well.

Itch on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by J. W. Bryan, Druggist, Plymouth, N. C. 1y

Dr. Ward, of Plymouth, and Dr. Robt W. Smith, of Hertford, have formed a copartnership They will practice their profession under the style of Drs. Ward & Smith.

Leggett & Bro., are leaders of low prices in shoes, hats dry goods, fine dress goods, notions, trimmings, &c. Call and see them. New firm, new goods and new prices. *

The big offer we promised to make will be found in another column. The BEACON from now until Jan 1st 1894 for $1. See it and send or bring us the dollar and have your name entered.

Under no condition will advertisements be allowed to appear in this column after to day; however we will introduce an interesting sandwiched department for the benefit of those now using this column.

Double Battery Galvanic Belt, Sold by W. W. Leary, Roper, N. C. Cures heart disease, Rheumatism, Back ache and many other diseases without medicine. Sent by mail post paid to any address on receipt of one dollar. tf

Perfect order was kept around the polls here on Tuesday. For fear of trouble there were twenty five special police added to the force. All business was suspended and men worked as they have never been known to work before.

Dr. H. P. Murray who has been spending some time in the Western part of the State for his health, is here and is almost well to the joy of his many friends. He will not remain in Plymouth, but will locate in Salisbury.

When we first heard that the Republican county convention had endorsed the Third party candidates we said that the colored man would not be driven into the new party and we were right. They voted the Democratic ticket instead.

We are informed that Mr. W. C. Hassell of Jamesville, who owns a mill here and who is just completing a magnificent residence, has rented a store and will move to Plymouth. We hope the report is true for Mr. Hassell and his family would be quite an addition to our town.

Leggett & Bro., have just received a full assortment of the famous Ziegler Bros., shoes, well known to those who ever wore them to be the most comfortable, glove-like-fitting and serviceable shoes made in America for the money Price from $1.50 to $4.50. Call and see them *

We have been sending this paper to a large number of citizens free during this campaign, but after this issue the paper will only be sent to subscribers, so if you have been getting it free, we will be glad to to have you subscribe. It is your county paper and will only cost you one dollar from now until Jan 1894.

H. Peal, the leading coach-maker of Eastern Carolina, is working more men in his shops than ever, and he is leading the trade in fine work and low prices. Anything from a trotting sulky to a log wagon. He employs none but skilled workmen and therefore turns out nothing but first-class work. See him and get prices before placing your order, *

A Bakery Needed.

We have always said that a bakery would pay in this town and we are sure that such an enterprise never was offered a finer opening than is now offered. In the past there have been restaurants that partially supplied the place of a bakery, but now not even these exist. All the bread used in this town has to be brought from Edenton, which is a great inconvenience.

We would invite some enterprising baker to locate in this town and build up a trade that he would be proud of.

Sudden Changes.

A cold, or exposure, may cause the poisonous acids in the blood to clog its circulation. This is Rheumatism. Dr. Drummond's Lightning Remedy has cured thousands. It will cure you. There is no other remedy that gives the sufferer such quick satisfaction. The price of a bottle is $5—and that is the cost of a cure. HOMICIDE NEAR GARNER'S.

News and Observer, Nov. 8th.

About 10 o'clock yesterday, near Garner's, Jim Winters, a colored man, was shot and killed by Jim Burrows, another colored man. Burrows had rented a piece of ground from Winters, and a difficulty arose about Burrows' gathering the crop and selling it without authority. Burrows threatened to kill Winters on Saturday, but no attention was paid to it. Yesterday they went into the field together to gather the corn, when Burrows shot him through the head with a pistol. Nobody else was present at the shooting. Burrows has run away. Burrows is about 40 years old; a small slender, yellow man; yellowish colored hair and yellow moustache, no whiskers. He has some people at Norfolk and may try to go there. Jim Winters was only 19 years old. He was a very good boy. Burrows is married, and his wife and three children live on the place where the murder was committed.

A FATAL HUNT.

CLIFTON M'GINN ACCIDENTLY KILLED BY HIS COMPANION.

Charlotte News.

A sad accident occurred in Sharon township this morning about 9 o'clock. Clifton McGinn and Howard Winchester, two lads, started early this morning on a hunt. They had been very successful up to 9 o'clock and were both in high spirits over their luck. They were standing near each other listening to the dogs running a rabbit and waiting for the game to come their way. It was not long before the sound of the rabbitt coming through the swamp towards where they were standing, was heard. Winchester saw the game first and turned quickly around to fire. Just as he did young McGinn dodged in front of Winchester's gun and received the load in his forehead, just above the right eye. Seeing what he had done Winchester started for the nearest house to tell his sad story. Several of the neighborhood were quickly on the spot, but it was clearly evident that the shot would prove fatal in a short time. Medical aid was at once summoned, but the young man died shortly after 11 o'clock without regaining consciousness. Winchester is prostrated over the shooting of his companion, and his grief is very pathetic.

FLIPP.

MR EDITOR:—It having been such a long while since I wrote for your paper perhaps your numerous readers are thinking that I have give up the ghost and been planted beneath the turf of some lonely cemetary, but not so, I am yet like scale cheese, on hand to stay, and take up my pen to again relate to you the ups and downs of a life full to the stopper of haps and mishaps.

To begin with I will, unlike the young men who seek success, I will begin at the top and come down in giving you my life since my last letter. It begins with to-day which will be remembered for a long time, as long at least as it takes thumb nails to grow out. "That wife of mine" has been after me for two weeks to put down a carpet so this morning I began the job. The first strip was cut too short, so I tacked one end and using my hands for a stretcher I galloped up and down that carpet on my hands and knees until I wore out my best pants. When it was long enough I began to tack it, and if I make no mistake, not counting flies and fouls, I struck my thumb twice to a tack once and before the first strip was down I threw the hammer out of the window and quit. "That wife of mine" said I was better at striking nails than at driving tacks, and for once she was right. She said she could put down two carpets while I was trying to put down one. I told her she might be correct so I left the room, she blowed and cut up as only women can, she declared that if all the men were like me she didn't see what women wanted to get married for. I replied that if all the women wanted to make carpet stretchers out of their husbands, as she did, that I could not see the big sedusce of a double knot. She vowed that, next to slipping off a log, that putting down a carpet was the easiest thing to do, but if she don't make better time than she is making now she will not get the carpet down time enough to take it up next Spring.

Well, as the election is about over, I guess I will get a little rest. I have talked enough politics within the last three months to elect Cleveland, Harrison, Weaver and all the rest of the candidates, and if they are not elected it is not for the lack of chin music. "That wife of mine" has been figuring on Cleveland's election for two weeks, using daily two quires of fools cap paper, she adds Indiana and subtracts Indiana. She figured it up that he would get 446 votes from the electoral college, and when I told her that there were only 444 votes, she got mad and said I was like Wall Street boodlers, wanted to cheat him out of his election.

Say, editor has Jim Smith got a patent on that fence between the hotel and Mr. Peal's? The girl "over the garden wall" must not have been shut in by such a fence if she had the boys on the outside would never have found out whether she was sweet or not.

For fear of taking too much space I will close for the time being.

FLIPP.

THE SOUTHERN GIRL WITH THE HOMESPUN DRESS.

AIR—Bonnie blue Flag.

Oh! yes I am a Southern girl,
And glory in the name,
And boast it with far greater pride,
Than glittering wealth or fame,
I envy not the Northern girl
Her robes of beauty rare;
Tho' diamonds grace her snowy neck,
And pearls bedeck her hair.

Hurrah! hurrah! for the sunny South so dear
Three cheers for the homespun dress
The Southern ladies wear.

This homespun dress is plain, I know—
My hat's Palmetto, too—
But then it shows what Southern girls
For Southern rights will do.
We've sent the braves of our land
To battle with the foe,
And we would lend a helping hand;
We love the South you know.

Now, northern goods are out of date,
And since old Abe's blockade,
We Southern girls could be content
With goods that's Southern made
We scorn to wear a bit of silk,
A bit of northern lace,
But make our homespun dresses up,
And wear them with much grace.

Our Southern land is a glorious land,
And her's a glorious cause;
So here's three cheers for Southern rights
And for the Southern boys,
We've sent our sweethearts to the war,
But, dear girl never mind,
Your soldier lad will not forget
The girl he left behind.

A soldier is the lad for me—
A brave heart I adore—
And when the sunny South is free,
And fighting is no more,
I'll choose me then a lover brave
From out that gallant band;
The soldier lad that I love most
Shall have my heart and hand.

And now young men, a word to you:
If you would win the fair,
Go to the field where honor calls,
And win your lady there,
Remember that our brightest smiles
Are for the true and brave,
And that our tears fall for the one
Who fills a soldier's grave.
