We appeal every reader of THE ROANOKE BEACON, to aid in making it an acceptable and profitable medium of news to our citizens. Let Plymouth people and the public, know what is going on in Plymouth. Report to us all items of news—the arrival and departure of friends, social events, deaths, serious illness, accidents, new buildings, new enterprises and improvements of whatever character, changes in business—indeed anything and everything that would be of interest to our people.

FRIDAY, JULY 13, 1894.

DEMOCRATS all over this State seem to be uneasy over the political outlook, and while Democrats are uneasy, Republicans and Populists are trembling. It is no use for Democrats to feel uneasy, yet we are glad they are interested. The Republicans and Populists want to combine, but they dare not do it. What to do is a very much debated question with them. It doesn't make much difference what they do, as they have already done enough to defeat them. The Democratic party will enter the fight with its best men in the front ranks, and will win the election in November.

That the Republican will win in Washington County this year, that the results of recent years. Old Republicans there are too after office. Let man that says he will not be a candidate in the county Convention only be one candidate. No matter how want an office or claim he will be elected in Convention, the party's success.

As the excitement increased it became a lawless mob. 1000 cars were burned, and mail trains were stopped. At this point the National Guard intervened and at least 1000 men were on the scene. It has been the result, that it is feared the stage has not been

It will be observed that while there has been a falling off of over $28,000,000 in customs, there has been an increase in internal revenue receipts notwithstanding the business depression.
"At the same time that the Billion Dollar Congress cut down revenue with one hand it enlarged expenditure with the other. When Harrison surrendered office to President Cleveland the Treasury was bankrupt; but fiscal expenditure had been swollen to terrific proportions. In 1889, when Harrison went into office, the total ordinary expenditures of the Government, exclusive of interest on the public debt were $299,393,978. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1892, the ordinary expenditures were $365,778,905—an increase of over $66,000,000. The Billion Dollar Congress brought ordinary expenditures up to a million dollars per day."

ONE of the most important subjects of legislation that will engage the attention of the next legislature will probably be the question of good roads, says the Raleigh North Carolinian. And it is one, the final settlement of which will mean a great deal to the State.

It is now proposed to stop the convicts from laboring on farms, in shoe shops and other industries in direct competition with free labor, and put them on the public roads of the State. The proposition is to make Raleigh the centre and construct great highways from here to the principal cities of the State and one to the Virginia line. The creeks and rivers are to be spanned by iron bridges and the roads to become great State thoroughfares for travel and commerce. In the west it is proposed to use rock as macadam and in the east either shell or rock.

It is to be hoped that something along this line may be done by the legislature at its next session and that not only better highways may be secured but the expense be equally divided. As our miserable road laws now are the people living in the country have to stand the brunt of keeping up the roads. This is manifestly unjust, as the inhabitants of towns and cities derive just as much benefit from the roads throughout the country as do the rural population. A town is as much dependent on the roads leading into it as is a river on the streams that feed it. This being the case, all should bear equally the expense of constructing and keeping up these channels of domestic commerce.

It is to the interest of the people of North Carolina, especially the farmers, that they should see to it that the men they send to represent them in the State legislature next session are friends of good roads, and are determined that no one part of our population shall have to bear the burden of building them and keeping them in good condition.

THINK OF IT.

Haysville Home.
When the people put the Republican party out of power by the selection of Grover Cleveland the first time, the expenditures of the government had increased to such an enormous amount as to become a public scandal, and the treasury was exhausted.

Unfortunately for the country by the debauchery of the 18th by a large corruption fund, Cleveland was defeated in the election for the second term. Before he retired however, though the Senate was Republican, he had reduced the national expenses of the government and restored the national treasury to a sound condition, leaving a large balance to the credit of the government and the country in a healthy prosperous condition. The Republicans once more at the head of affairs, the arrival of waste and extravagance was renewed with greater intensity—the election corruption fund had to be repaid, and political sinecures were created to reward the rascals who aided in the restoration of the reign of plunder; so far did this go that the Congress before the last under the Harrison administration was dubbed the Rascals Congress. This body of rascals fastened upon the government appropriations to enormous amounts that it is impossible to get rid of, and which the present Democratic administration must meet until their time expires as the faith of the government is pledged to the fulfillment of the contracts upon which the appropriations were made; but the Cleveland administration is heaving out all these things, and cutting down all superfluous expenses, while reform in the reduction of all the civil departments is being bravely on.
The party again swamped the country in four years of restoring it to its former condition means the party—back from the ocean; robbery; and a party—

LAKE PHELPS.

ITS WATERS TO BE UTILIZED TO TURN THE WHEELS OF ONE OR MORE FACTORIES.—OHIO CAPITALISTS INVEST IN WASHINGTON COUNTY GRIT.

A report is on the air that Ohio capitalists will at no distant day place money in Washington county. Mr. Philemon Gray, of Columbus, Ohio, has already purchased one of the great "Lake Farms" in the lower part of this county, and the report goes that this gentleman will settle Ohio people on the property, and with the co-operation of other moneyed men, will set to work and cut out the canal leading to Lake Phelps so that vessels and steamers can run up it. This done they will build such factories as are best suited to the products, and utilize the great water power of the lake to run those factories.

Some think the report is unfounded, but we are sure that some great enterprise is to be started, or Mr. Gray would never have invested $40,000 in farm lands in that section. If no other use is to be made of the water-power, it will most likely be utilized to run corn and rice mills, which will handsomely pay the investors. There is no spot on earth where rice and corn can be grown at so small expense as on this lake-land, and if it can be shipped direct from the farms there is a future for the owners of those lands. Just what those Ohio people propose to do is not known, but it is safe to say they are in for some great scheme which will benefit Washington county.

It Cured Them After Other Remedies had Failed.

GOODMAN ANSON CO., N. C.—I had a good opportunity to test the merits of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and can safely say it is the best medicine I have ever had. I gave it to two persons who had tried other medicines, without benefit, and by taking two doses of this remedy they were cured.

FOR CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT.

At the earnest request of my friends, and after due consideration, I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Washington county.

I am aware that the offices of the County, State and Nation belong to the people and not to individuals, and that I, as an American citizen, have a right to ask for an office, but, if for any reason the people of my county think I am not entitled to share the honors of office, and in open convention a majority say I am not the preference of the people of my party, I shall humbly submit to the decision of that convention, and remain a Democrat still. If, however, I should be honored with the nomination, the party may rest assured that I shall endeavor to be elected, and if elected, to faithfully discharge all the duties of the office.
Respectfully,
W. F. AUSBON.

A Stubborn Case of Diarrhoea Cured.

ASHEVILLE, BUNCOMBE CO., N. C.—I can speak from experience. I had a stubborn case of diarrhoea in my family and one dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy effected a complete cure. I feel satisfied that the remedy will do all that is claimed for it. JAMES BUTTRICK.

LIFE ON THE FARM.

Massachusetts Ploughman.
What are some of the advantages of the country? Let us count them up.
Fresh air.
The sunshine. In cities the sunlight never gets into parts of the poor quarters.
No overcrowding.
A steady field for labor.
Fair wages.
Enough to eat—which one may raise on his own land.
Better social advantages, especially for the laborer.
Opportunities that develop self-respect, honor, independence. It is from the country that the best stock is drawn. The strong men who have been an honor to this country were country raised, and it was to that they owed their force of character.
In the country the lines between the employer and the employes are not drawn so closely as to make either feel that such a relation constitutes inferiority on the part of the employed. The class lines are much stronger in the city than in the country, and to Americans there is always discomfort with the condition of affairs.

Burning Pain
Erysipelas in Face and Eyes
Inflammation Subdued and Tortures Ended by Hood's.

"I am so glad to be relieved of my tortures that I am willing to tell the benefits I have derived from Hood's Sarsaparilla. In April and May, I was afflicted with erysipelas in my face and eyes, which spread to my throat and neck. I tried divers ointments and alteratives, but there was no permanent abatement of the burning, torturing pain, peculiar to this complaint. I began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla and
