The Official Paper of Washington County.

Published Every Friday by THE ROANOKE PUBLISHING COMPANY.

W. FLETCHER AUBSON, Editor and Business Manager.

Subscription price, $1.00 per year. Advertisements inserted at low rates. Ordinary notices exceeding ten lines, five cents a line. Count the words, allowing eight to the line, and send money with MS. for all in excess of ten lines. The editor will not be responsible for the views of correspondents. All articles for publication must be accompanied by the full name of the writer. Correspondents are requested not to write on both sides of the paper. All communications must be sent in by Thursday morning or they will not appear. Address all communications to THE ROANOKE BEACON, Plymouth, N. C.

We appeal every reader of THE ROANOKE BEACON to aid in making it an acceptable and profitable medium of news to our citizens. Let Plymouth people and the public know what is going on in Plymouth. Report to us all items of news—the arrival and departure of friends, social events, deaths, sickness, diseases, accidents, new buildings, new enterprises and improvements of whatever character, changes in business—indeed anything and everything that would be of interest to our people.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 21, 1894.

In some counties the Republicans have asked for a joint fight with the Populists. The Republicans are a sharp set. They have used the Pops to defeat and stir up the Democrats, and now they see a chance—or think they do—to come in and beat both.

We have heard it whispered in the county that the Third party expect to endorse Levi Blount for Sheriff. Mr. Blount has served the people of Washington county four years in that capacity, as a Democrat, and he will, without a doubt, be the nominee of the Democratic party again this year. He not only carries the strength of his own party, but draws from the Republicans, and we believe if the Third party places a man against him he will draw strength from that party also. As we have said before, this is going to be a great year for men, and if the Democrats set up such men as Levi Blount, votes from other parties will support them.

It doesn't now look like the Republicans are seeking any fusion with the Third party in this county. The Republicans have put out a ticket of its own, and it is said the Third party will do likewise on the first Saturday in September.

The two parties seemed to be working together two years ago, but now the Republicans think they have gotten up enough racket in the Democratic ranks (by using the Third party as a tool) to go into office, and so they have, unless the Democrats who have been wavering come back and put their shoulder to the wheel.

It will take Democratic work and unity to defeat the Republicans in the coming election.

It was, perhaps, too much to expect that a Senate that has yielded so much to special interests would press the bills for free sugar, free coal, free iron and free barbed wire. The Republicans and Populists to a man are too strongly committed to protection and bounties to permit them to help the thirty-eight Democrats who are fighting these monuments of Republican injustice. These combined forces succeeded in pigeon-holing these bills by the help of what is falsely known as "Protection Democrats." There cannot be such a creature any more than there can be a "close companion Methodist," or an "American Presbyterian." Protection, whether in tariff taxation or in bounties, strikes at the very foundation of Democracy, and Protectionists who call themselves Democrats steal the livery of heaven in which to serve the devil—or self.

The action of the Senate, while not disappointing in view of the composition of that body, is discouraging to tariff reformers. But within the next two years, six new Senators will take seats in that body—two from Utah, two from Arizona and two from New Mexico. The former political affiliations of these territories justifies the expectation that these new Senators will be in hearty accord with Vilas, Mills, Palmer, Voorhees, Harris, Ransom, Davis and the other "platform Democrats" in the Senate.

this infusion of new blood, the people may hope to completely make this a government by self-taxing individuals rather than a close corporation in which favored interests levy taxes for their own benefit and behoof.

The full measure of tariff reform is only delayed. It will come, light and justice always wins in the long run.—News & Observer.

FOR CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT.

At the earnest request of my friends, and after due consideration, I take this method of announcing myself a candidate for the office of Superior Court Clerk of Washington county.

I am aware that the offices of the County, State and Nation belong to the people and not to individuals, and that I, as an American citizen, have a right to ask for an office, but, if for any reason the people of my county think I am not entitled to share the honors of office, and in open convention a majority say I am not the preference of the people of my party, I shall humbly submit to the decision of that convention, and remain a Democrat still. If, however, I should be honored with the nomination, the party may rest assured that I shall endeavor to be elected, and if elected, to faithfully discharge all the duties of the office.

Respectfully,
W. F. AUBSON.

It Saved His Life.

CROWLY, COLUMBUS CO., N. C.—I gave a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to Mr. H. C. Williams, of this place, who had been sick with bowel complaint for two months. It cured him and his wife saved his life.

WHAT A WONDERFUL DOG!

Raleigh News & Observer.

"That dog? Why that's 'Imp,'" said a Raleigh gentleman who returned from Western North Carolina to-day, accompanied by a dog that looked like a door mat at an iron foundry.

"Yes, that's 'Imp,'" he repeated. "He has a pedigree that would fill up two editions of the News and Observer."

"What can he do? Why, he can do anything. He can, and will carry your check for $100 to the bank and will bring back either the amount, or the remains of the cashier. He speaks French, and if you can understand him I will have him tell you in French who will be North Carolina's next Senators."

"Wow, wow, wow," the dog broke out. Readers who are French scholars will, of course, appreciate this valuable information.

"He is here," he continued, "as an advance delegate to Mr. Eaves' convention, which meets on the 31st. You will observe that he has his credentials, a clipped tail, a rough hide and a very dark complexion."

WISE WORDS.

We are shaped by our yesterdays.

Money is not the measure of merit.

Love doesn't wait for an invitation.

Advice should be well shaken before taken.

Possession is pursuit with the pith punched out.

Malice is a remarkable developer of character.

Courtesy is a glass through which we see charity.

Epigrams are diamonds in the gravel of conversation.

A life of crime is often the result of running in debt.

We must go away from ourselves to find the ideal.

When Cupid meets a woman he smites and sits down.

History makes us some amends for the shortness of life.

One who learns the art of living will keep out of trouble.

Life, however short, is made still shorter, by waste of time.

Watch the dollars in their flight if you want to stop their flying.

Cupid may be blind as a bat, but he has ears that can hear a dollar jingle.

The wag of a dog's tail is more to be trusted than the shake of a man's hand.

Feminine beauty is not the subject for a man to select for conversational purposes with a homely woman.

Love makes more people miserable than it makes happy, unless misery in love is a form of happiness.—LX.

After the Grip

Relief from Hood's Sarsaparilla Wonderful and Permanent.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass." "I had kidney trouble and severe pains in my back, which was brought about by a cold contracted while in camp at Lincolnfield in 1892. I have been troubled more or less since that time and have been unable to do any heavy work, much less any lifting. I received only temporary relief from medicines. Last spring I had an attack of the grip, which left me with

A Bad Cough, Very Weak physically, in fact my system was completely run down. I tried a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla and it made me feel so much better that I continued taking it, and have taken six bottles. It has done wonders for me, as I have not had an attack of the grip, which left me with
