GREAT REDUCTION SALE AT

Leggett & Bros.

TO-DAY,

And will continue during next week, on all

SUMMER GOODS and MILLINERY

with which we have had great success, yet we know the season for selling ladies' fine bonnets and hats is almost a thing of the past, and we have yet some beautiful hats, bonnets and other fine millinery we are going to offer on until closed out.

We also have a pretty line of straw shapes, flowers, ribbons and other furnishings, consequently you can get a hat to please you at our place now cheaper than ever offered before. So to you ladies, who will yet purchase a hat, it will be very beneficial to call and see our line and get the low prices we will offer on same

If you have a bonnet or hat to be trimmed or in any way worked over, send or bring it down to us and we will have it worked over for you according to instructions if given, with pleasure.

We are also going to reduce our large stock of laces, and embroidery during this special reduction sale.

Corsets, gloves, hosiery, ladies' vests, and other furnishings will also be sold cheaper than ever before.

THE First lady answering this ad. can buy any article in the building at half price.

Ladies, don't neglect sending in your guesses on the beans, as the time is limited, and we cannot receive any guesses after July 3rd. The beans will be counted by a party of gentlemen and blessed by all interests

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

When you see an X on the margin of your paper it means that your subscription has expired, it is also an invitation for you to renew. Please remember this and don't let us have to stop your paper.

This Beacon will be sent to any address one year for $1.00, six months, 50c. Three Months, 25c. Every subscription must be accompanied with the cash or no paper will be sent.

BEACON FLASHES.

Factories are what we want.

Boom your town—this town.

Miss Lealie Harrison has returned home from school at Morganton.

Mr. A. L. Gurkin and wife of Jamesville, have been here this week.

Quite a severe wind and rain storm visited us on Saturday afternoon last.

Mr. Joe Martin of Tarboro, has been assisting at the postoffice here this week.

Dr. H. B. Wolfe, Sr., has been in Hyde county on professional business this week.

Miss Connie Waters spent the day last Sunday with her grand parents at Jamesville.

Sun umbrellas in all the latest styles and at very low prices at Mrs. S. A. Blount's.

Miss Annie Mizell of Williamston, has been visiting Mrs. W. C. Hassell on Main street.

The first night the cow law went into effect about 25 of the street nuisances were penned.

During the storm Saturday afternoon one of the dry kiln stacks at the Company's mills was blown down.

A very cheap lot of childrens hats can be found this week at Mrs. S. A. Blount's, also a new arrival of L. L. hats caps.

Mrs. T. J. Basnight of Seppernong, was visiting her brother, Mr. Andrew Davenport, the past week.

If anybody should ask you, don't forget to say that Plymouth and Washington county is the place to locate.

Prepare for warm weather by buying one of those pretty 5c L. L. hats at Mrs. S. A. Blount's.

Mr. and Mrs. Seaton Basnight, of Seppernong, were the guests of Mr. Andrew Davenport's family this week.

Two or three insurance men in town this week. Guess the town is two or three V's better off by their coming.

For a nice, durable umbrella call on Mrs. S. A. Blount. She has a line from which all may be suited, both in quality and price.

The large dry kilns at Parmele was totally destroyed by fire on Monday last. Loss about $10,000, partly insured.

It will be well for our people to read carefully the issues of this and last week's paper as they contain the town laws.

Go to the Plymouth Drug Co's, and get you a bottle of Compound Blackberry Diarrhoea Cordial. For summer complaint and relaxed bowels.

Glad to shake the hand of our young friend of other days, Mr. James Hoyt, of Washington, who was here last week.

The Hall place opposite our office is undergoing some needed repairs, and is being given a coat of white-wash. We are informed it will soon be occupied by Mr. C. J. Norman.

Hornthal & Alexander are offering the best and cheapest line of Cook Stoves ever sold in Plymouth. Call and examine the goods before buying elsewhere.

Mr. V. L. Howell of Creswell, spent Saturday night and Sunday in our town, the guest of Mr. J. H. Leggett and wife. He was en route home from Chocowinity where he had been taking in the commencement.

Our editor has been absent this week at the bed side of his wife who has been suffering from a severe attack of nervous prostration, therefore this office has been without a helix, and our readers will excuse all short comings.

The drawing for that handsome table at Mrs. S. A. Blount's will take place Saturday, June 29th. All customers entitled to tickets are requested to call for same.

We have said before, we say now, and if not listened to we expect to say again, that our Chief of Police ought to sport a uniform. His faithfulness should be appreciated, and the town is able to keep him in good shape. Besides the dignity of the town demands it.

To expel worms from the system, you had better go to the Plymouth Drug Co's, and get you a bottle of Vegetable Worm Syrup. Children do not dislike it.

What a blessing that Plymouth has at last elected men who have the grit to say our people shall not be stumbling over cattle at night. And best of all to we poor people is, our gardens are safe while we sleep, whereas ours, among others, was almost totally destroyed more than once last year, and we had a good fence, too.

Buy a box of "Anti Sket." Will kill all the mosquitoes in a room in 15 minutes. Six packages in a box, and only 10c a box. HORNTHAL & ALEXANDER.

The closing exercises of the State Normal at this place last week was a most interesting affair, and gave those who were present an idea of the efficient work the Plymouth State Normal School is doing for the colored race, through Prof. Crosby and his able assistants. We have before us a full report of the oration delivered on that occasion by Prof. G. T. Hill, a graduate of this institution, and regret we have not the space to publish it, as it is worthy to be read by all people.

Hornthal & Alexander have a car load of Agricultural Lime, in bags, for peanuts. They have also received 175 barrels Pennsylvania Flour. Something nice and fresh good.

Mr. Jesse V. Davis, formerly a resident of this town, but later of Edenton, died in that place on Thursday of last week after a protracted illness. Undertaker B. Nurney went over Friday and took charge of the remains bringing them to this town in the afternoon, thence to the Davis homestead in the country, where they were consigned to their last sleep, Rev. W. B. Laine of Edenton, officiating. Our sympathy is with the bereaved wife and little ones, as well as the brothers and sisters who mourn.

A fresh lot of table delicacies just opened at Hornthal & Alexander's, consisting of asparagus, California apricots, raspberries, Bartlett pears, corn, tomatoes, sardines, &c., &c.

ROPER RIPPLES.

The legislature of 1895 having abolished the office of Superintendent of Public Instruction together with the Board of Education and substituted a Public Examiner, it was also enacted that each applicant should tender a fee of one dollar to the Examiner in advance of examination if on days of public examinations, otherwise of one dollar and fifty cents, also certificate of good character or former license if unknown in person to the Examiner. H. S. WARD, Examiner.

THE BUCKEYE MOWING MACHINE

Has the greatest strength and durability, the least weight and draft, the fewest parts, and is the simplest constructed mower ever placed on the market.

Every farmer should grow grass, wheat, rice, oats, &c., and then have a Buckeye Mower to cut it.

Nothing like it ever before offered. It is a time and labor saver and money maker. For prices, catalogue, &c., address

H. A. LITCHFIELD, je 7-1m Creswell, N. C.

IN THE SPRING A WOMAN'S

Fancy turns to thoughts of a love of a bonnet or hat. She can find one to suit her taste at Mrs. S. D. Peal's.

There she has displayed the prettiest and most stylish line ever brought to this market.

A line of Pattern hats trimmed and untrimmed to suit all faces.

Flowers in profusion, Ribbons in the new Dresden effects. Veils in a great variety, Laces, Crepes, I also have a nice line of notions.

And cordially invite the Public to call and examine my stock. I have not forgotten the little folks this time either, and have a beautiful line of childrens hats for all occasions.
