Many of our Roper people are anxious for a job in the juniper swamp now, as the general ideas of some are safety in surrendering under General Green. "Will Cuba come to Roper?"

Miss Lella Downing left this morning for a visit to her brothers in Norfolk, where she will spend some weeks. We are in sympathy with one of the school boys. His sighs were numerous when he returned from Edenton this evening. Rest in hope "Closs," she is coming back.

The writer witnessed a pleasant affair at Zion's Chapel last Friday night. The Ladies' Aid Society raffled away a nice quit, with the aid of Rev. D. W. Davis, Miss Maggie Knowls being the winner. The quitt was then returned in a noble christian spirit, by Miss Knowls to the Aid Society as a free gift. Then to the delight of all, the raffling was repeated. The boys voted for the best girls, and all was lovely. When the second number was called out Miss Claudia Moore was the second winner. The exercises were then at an end; after which the doxology was sung, with Mr. B. F. Skiles as leader, and the assembly was dismissed by prayer by the pastor, and in the usual way of invocation. Bro. Davis made us all feel as if the hour had been profitably spent, and that each mite had been spent in a noble cause. Our best wishes go with the Ladies' Aid Society in their future work.
