To The Ladies

It is not only in lines of Superb Millinery creations that we have won a foremost place, but in Hats, Bonnets, Capes, Wraps and Cloaks, at extremely moderate prices. The charming things that we have on exhibition this season at little prices have many agreeable surprises among them for the women who desire to economize.

Miss Nellie Sharpely is again in charge of the trimming department this season, which is a guarantee that we can lead the town on up-to-date work.

Respectfully,
MRS. S. D. PEAL.

Mr. Herman Hornthal and Dr. Nash, of Norfolk, have been here this week on a sporting visit. They were the guests of Mr. Louis P. Hornthal.

As we expect to take the usual holiday rest, there will be no issue of this paper next week. We hope to greet our friends on the 6th of January 1899.

LOOK OUT for the Balloon ascension with fireworks attached next Monday night. These Balloons can be found at Plymouth Grocery Co's. Store.

We have sent out a number of bills to subscribers who owe for a year or more, and we hope those receiving same will remit at once. We need the cash.

ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE—The first Annual Clearance Sale of L. P. Hornthal, consisting of Clothing, Shoes and Hats, is now being offered in the store recently occupied by A. H. Harrison.

The Str. Mayflower has been in E. City this week having a new wheel put on and her rudder made larger. The tug D. K. Neal has been filling her place between this town and Windsor.

Ladies, before buying your fall dresses call and examine our line of Storm Serges and English Flannellets, they are beautiful, and so cheap, at HORNTHAL'S.

Mrs. Fricie Barber had the misfortune to fall on Tuesday, while at the home of Mr. Jos. Skittleharpe, breaking her arm in two places. Dr. Hassell was called and set the broken limb, and at this writing she is doing as well as could be expected.

There are Wilson and others, but the "Wilson" is THE Heater that leads them all. Save time, trouble and fuel by using the "Wilson." for sale by LOUIS P. HORNTHAL.

We extend happy congratulations to Mr. A. L. Harrison who took unto himself a wife on Wednesday morning, the bride being one of Hamilton's most charming daughters. A reception was held at the home of the groom, near Plymouth, Wednesday night.

Call and see Dr. Albert Newton, Oculist Optician, of Boston; will be located at the Drug Store of J. W. Bryan for the next two weeks. He will examine your eyes free of charge.

Our editor and family are indebted to Capt. Davenport, the popular master of the Str. Mayflower, for a pair of fine turkeys. Thanks Captain, our entire force shall feast and sing your praises. Long may you tread the deck of your beautiful steamer and be happy.

Remember Dr. Albert Newton, Oculist Optician, will only be here for two weeks. If you are not fitted properly with your spectacles, you now have the opportunity to have your eyes examined free of charge. J. W. BRYAN.

Many of our subscribers have been thoughtful enough to come forward and settle up, and we thank every one of them, but there are many yet who have not paid, and if you are one of the latter will you not come forward and settle at once? The amount you owe is very small.

Mr. Joe Newberry returned home last week from New Orleans, La., where he had been in the steam tug Assistance. He says he is glad to know that the report that his boat had been lost was not true. They were out five days, and were in the late storm, but made the trip from Norfolk to New Orleans safely. We are glad to see you, old boy.

Old Santa has come and unpacked at the Plymouth Grocery Co's. Store, Confectioneries, Fruits, Toys, Nuts, &c. Roman Candles, Rockets, Bomb-rockets, Thunderbolts, red and green Torches, Fire Crackers, Cannon Crackers, and Baby Wakers. Our prices as low as the lowest.

Bryan's drug store, where he will examine your eyes free of charge, and guarantees a perfect fit with glasses. If your eyes are bad don't fail to call on him.

The remains of Mr. Jno. W. Stillman, Jr., who was accidentally drowned at Washington on Friday night, was brought here Saturday for interment. Mr. Stillman was a native of this county, but had been employed in Washington for some time. We have a lengthy communication on his death from Prof. D. W. Arnold, but it is necessarily left out.

Dr. Albert Newton, Oculist Optician, has come highly recommended; he has been visiting the South for the past thirty-two years; will charge you nothing to examine your eyes. All glasses prescribed by him are warranted five years. J. W. BRYAN.

Mr. Will Hardison who left Plymouth three years ago and joined the army, has returned home, to the delight of his many friends. He enlisted at Fortress Monroe; was sent from there to Seattle, Wash., thence to Fort Canby, Wash., thence to Fort Stevens, Ore.; thence to San Francisco. When reinforcements were started to the Philippines, Mr. Hardison's regiment was sent forward, but was turned back at the last hour, so while he has crossed the continent twice yet he did not get a chance to go to Cuba or to the Philippines. His time having expired Nov. 28th he accepted a discharge and started East, arriving here last week, as clever and handsome as ever.

Roberts' is the Chill Tonic you want, because it cures. 25c. per bottle. No cure, no pay. Pleasant as Florida oranges. For sale by W. C. Ayers feb 15-ly

Remember that the printer may want a little Christmas and that little amount you owe will help him. We have waited very patiently during the summer, but now you have sold your crop please do not keep us waiting longer. It has been hard for us to keep the paper going during the dull days of the past year, but it has not failed to visit your home every week, now we ask you kindly to come to our aid and pay up your subscription in full. Some owe us but little while others owe for a year or more. We are not able to do a credit business as we have to pay cash for everything we use, hence we need what you owe us, and those who fail to pay up need not expect the paper next year. We have done our part. Will you do yours? We think you will.

Is there a crossed pencil mark on your paper?

SANTA CLAUS

got left when he stopped to unpack his holiday goods

at F. F. Fagan's

for he found that before his arrival Mr. Fagan had made a selection of holiday goods for his which made Santa Claus ashamed of himself, and at prices that could not have been equaled.

In this selection he has presents for old and young, rich and poor, men and women, boys and girls.

In this selection is a very large assortment of glass-ware and china-ware (5 and 10 cent goods) single or in sets, also a nice stock of plain and fancy candies, fruits, nuts, &c.

Anything from a nice bible, volum of poems or other books to a cheap toy. In fact I have just what you are looking for.

Call early and look at my goods,

Yours truly,

F. F. FAGAN.
