Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me completely and the swelling has entirely disappeard. A lady in Michigan saw my previous testimonial and used Hood's and was entirely cured of the same trouble. She thanked me for recommending it." Mrs. Anna Sutherland, 406 Lovel Street, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Fun in Sweden.

General Baron Rappe, Swedish Minister of War, has just suffered a penalty for a very amusing slight to royal ceremony. The day before Christmas King Oscar summoned a cabinet council to the palace. At the last moment General Rappe, who is notoriously absent minded, having on his full uniform, as required by the regulations, forgot to put on his plumed chapeau, and hastily clapped his ordinary silk hat on his unfortunate head. No one happened to see him en route till he approached the palace. The King and the rest of the cabinet, looking out of the window, saw the motley War Minister approaching, and burst into loud guffaws at his unceremonious appearance. They chaffed him without mercy, and the King, to censure his absence of mind, put him under a three days' arrest as provided by the military regulations forbidding the wearing of civilian attire in conjunction with military uniform.

What Our Knowledge is Good For. 11 The attainment of skill is the alpha as it is the omega of science. It was the attempt to gain perfection in his every-day work that led primeval man to take the first steps in that great movement of which the fruition appears in the final development of our modern universities. For a man of highest culture, also, the end and object of study is, as Aristotle teaches us, not the attainment of knowledge, byt the perfecting of conduct, and this is true not only when we conceive of conduct as our action in relation to other men, but also if we look upon it as action in relation to the objects and conditions which surround us. - From "The Field of Art" in Scribner's.

Children's Dressing Tubies.

The children of this generation have a great many little dainty things that were not considered necessary in the past generation. And while there are people who do not hesitate to say too much is being done for children, there are a few sensible individuals who realize that children are never too young to learn to appreciate dainty belongings. Almost every little girl of ten or twelve is now given a room to herself, and this is daintily and prettily fitted up. If it is not possible for the shild to have her own room, and she must needs share it with he sister, or even a maid, at all events she can have her own bureau or dressing table and writing desk, and these can be fur-

When soot is spilled upon the carpet, heat enough bran to cover it, spread it over the place to the depth of an inch or more, and set a hot iron or two on the bran. The heat draws the grease out, and the bran absorbs it. One application is usually sufficient, but if any grease remains, sweep the bran off and apply a fresh coating. Ink stains can usually be removed if treated as soon as the ink is spilled. Take a large, coarse sponge and take ap all the ink it will absorb. Wash the sponge, pour sweet milk on the spot, and dry with the sponge as often as necessary to remove every trace of ink. Then wash the place with clean suds, rinse thoroughly, and wipe as dry as possible. Every trace of ink will be gone when the carpet is dry. Blotting paper may be used to absorb the ink if the sponge is not at hand, and the carpet washed with a soft

"It is no trouble to grate a cocoaaut," says Miss Cornelia C. Bedford, the cooking expert, "but there are ways and ways of doing it. Now, I consider it worth while to pay a few cents more when I am going to use a socoanut and have it peeled for me. Then I have a large almond grater and I break my cocoanut into small pieces and put it in the grater. Then I turn the crank for a few minutes and my nut is grated as finely as I wish it and with no trouble. There is a simple cocoanut pudding, which I think is very good, for which I buy cocoa-uut in this way and grate it. I butter thick slices of stale bread, cut into half-inch dice, and to one quart of the dice allow a heaping cupful of the nut, one-half cupful of sugar, one pint milk, four eggs, a pinch of salt, and a teaspoonful of vanilla. Then I butter a deep baking dish and put in alternate layers of the crumbs and grated nut. Then I separate the whites from two of the eggs and beat the rest together, add the milk, salt and vanilla, mix well, pour over the contents of the dish and bake in a moderate oven until set in the centre. The two whites remaining I whip until frothy, add two tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and half a teaspoonful of vanilla, whip until stiff and glossy, heap over the pudding, dust thickly wi h powdered sugar, return to the oven until it is colored a delisate brown and serve cold. The juice of half an orange can be used in place of the vanilla, if desired, and the grated rind of a quarter of the peel with a few drops of the juice in the frosting."-Chicago Times-Herald.

Recipes. Rice Fritters-Two cups of cold boiled rice, two eggs, one cup of milk, one spoonful of baking powder, one eup of flour, balf a cup of sugar. Have some beef suet hot, drop into the pan a spoonful of the batter and fry brown. Serve hot with a sauce made with one cup of sugar, one teaspoonful of flour and any flavoring to suit; add one cupful of boiling water.

Lemon Honey-Take one pound of loaf sugar, six eggs, the juice of six lemons, the grated rinds of two, and one-quarter of a pound of butter. Put the sugar, butter and lemon juice in a saucepan and melt slowly over a gentle fire; when all are dissolved stir in the eggs, which have been well beaten, stir in rapidly until it is as thick as noney. It will keep twelve months if put up air-tight.

To Preserve String Beans-To one peck cleaned and sliced (late) green beans take one quart of coarse salt. Use a large crock and put in a layer of beans, then a layer of salt and so on until it is full, then cover with a cloth and round board (small enough to go inside the crock) and weighed down with a stone to keep them compact. Before using soak in fresh water to remove the salt.

Consomme Royale-Beat up three yolks of eggs and one white, pepperand salt them and stir them into one gill of stock. Pour this into a small buttered mould and steam very gently till the whole coagulates. Cool the custard, turn it out in fancy shapes with a cutter. Cut the best flesh of a cooked chicken into dice and place this and the custard in a hot tureen. Boil three pints of consomme and pour it into the tureen, then serve the soup quickly.

Fried Onions-There is but one way, says a culinary authority, to fry onions properly. Cut them in slices and soak ten minutes in milk. Then dip the slices in flour and drop them in boiling fat-fat that is hot enough to brown instantly a bit of bread dropped init. Fry about six minutes and take out with a skimmer upon a brown pa per. The more common way is to fra a few slices of salt perk or bacon and then fry the onions in the fat. This is much more satisfactory than frying in butter, which the onion absorbs, making a dark-colored, pasty, greasy

SAPOLIO

These extreme nervous disorders were treated with wonderful success by the discoverer of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, previous to his discovery being offer ed to the public generally. This remedy is the only known specific in many diseases that, until recent years, were pronounced incurable. Mere is the proof: James Crocket, a sturdy old Scotchman living in Detroit, Mich, at 88 Montcalm St., was cured of Locomotor Ataxia by these pills. For many years he has been a chief engineer of one of those big passenger palace steamers plying upon the great lakes. This is a position of great responsibility and the anxiety causes a great nervous strain. Mr. Crocket says: "For fifteen years I watched the big engines and boilers without a single accident, and only noticed that I was getting nervous. Suddenly without warning I was taken sick, and was prostrated. I had the best of physicians but grew gradually worse. At a council of doctors, they said I had nervous prostration, and had destroyed my whole nervous system and would never recover. For three years I was unable to move from my bed. The doctor said I had locomotor ataxia, and would never be able to walk again.

Locomotor Ataxia & Paralysis

The doctor said I had locomotor staxis, and would never be able to wais again.

"The pains and suffering I experienced during those years are almost indescribable. The friends that came to see me bid me good-bye when they left me and I was given up. The doctors said nothing more could be done. My wife kept reading to me, articles about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. We finally decided to try them. The first box gave me relief. I continued to use them for about two years before I could get strength enough to walk. I am nearly seventy-five years old and there is not a man in this city that can kick higher or walk further than I can and to-day I owe my present good health to Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People for they saved my life."—Detroit Evening News.
