THE ROANOKE BEACON, Plymouth, N. C.

WHILE absent week before last—being in camp at Morehead—the patrons of THE BEACON were notified that the paper was to be suspended.

I am truly sorry that such notice should have been published, knowing that it has a tendency to injure the paper more than it is able to stand during the dull season.

It is my intention to keep the paper at least up to its old standard, and if possible, improve it. To do this you must help me out, not only by subscribing and paying for the paper yourself.

So, though it seems the judiciary is now the controlling power, and in fact is fast drawing to itself the supreme power in the government, it can be readily seen it is treading on dangerous ground.

I thank the patrons and friends of the paper for past favors and kind words, and trust that our friends may be multiplied.

Yours sincerely, C. V. W. AUSBON.

Who owns this government anyway, the people who created it by their sacrifices of blood and treasure and who support it by their sweat and taxes or the servants they have put in office?

When the State found that the charges of the railroads, created by the State and running their tracks over other people's land, were too high and appointed a commission to exercise the immemorial right of the public to regulate the charges of common carriers.

When the property of railroads was in public opinion vastly underrated for taxation, farmers and all others being taxed to make good the deficit, the law making power of the State created a Commission to fix a just valuation.

from that of the Commission appointed by law. Who made him sovereign over the sovereign to say how much it should do and what it should not do?

These interferences of judges, mere servants of the public, in the exercise of governmental functions are unwarranted. They are contrary to the entire spirit of our institutions.

If unrebuked, this assumption of power by the judges would draw, and has already gone far to draw, the supreme power out of the hands of the people, who express their will through their representatives and place it in the hands of a few judges.

It is inevitable, that if Republican government is to survive in more than the mere name, these usurpations of government functions by the judiciary shall be stopped with a firm hand.

The U. S. Supreme Court has sinned far less against the people's sovereignty than the underling judges, and unlike them their court is created by the constitution and hence can not be abolished by Congressional action.

The people of Bethel in Pitt county, a few days ago set a good example for other small towns and thickly settled communities. They held a public meeting in the interest of improving their school facilities.

Proof of the pudding lies in the eating of it. Proof of ROBERTS' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC lies in the taking of it. COST NOTHING if it fails to cure.

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

HAPPENINGS WITHIN HER BORDERS.

The increased value of property in Durham over 1898 is nearly two million dollars.

The Greensboro dispensary sold 10,000 packages of liquor in twenty-four days.

The State Treasurer has just paid a pension warrant that was issued eleven years ago.

A one-legged Charlotte negro used his wooden leg on the head of another negro and crushed the latter's skull.

It is said the First Regiment Band that was with the army in Cuba will re-enlist for service in the Philippines.

Hon. John C. Scarborough, who served two terms as State Superintendent of Public Instruction, has been elected superintendent of education in Hertford county.

The Raleigh Post has been informed that women convicts have been flogged unmercifully at one of the Halifax State Farms.

We are glad to learn that The Lives of Distinguished North Carolinians has been adopted as a text book in the higher classes of the State Normal and Industrial College at Greensboro.

The Agricultural Department will consider the establishment of experimental farms in every Congressional district in the State. This would undoubtedly be a good move.

One day last week Jordan Emerson, a colored man in Hadley township, and his wife left their two children alone in their cabin, and when they returned they found the younger child (about ten months old) drowned with its head in a tub of water.

HOW TO DESTROY TICKS.

Sulphur fed to stock will cause the ticks to leave the animals. The Southerner has this on the authority of Dr. L. L. Staton, who has successfully tried it several times on his herd of cattle.

Splenic fever, which in some sections of the State is fatally prevalent with cattle, is communicated by ticks. Sulphur therefore, while adding to the comfort of the beasts, will also act as a preventive.

ROBBED THE GRAVE.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day."

Why were 25,000 BOTTLES OF ROBERTS' TASTELESS 25c. CHILL TONIC sold the first year of its birth? Answer: Because it is the BEST AT ANY PRICE, guaranteed to cure, money refunded if it fails.

Two lovers folded in each other's arms are the sweet meets of life—and a good protection against the kissing bug.

We have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home for many years and bear cheerful testimony to its value as a medicine which should be in every family.

Man wants but little here below to carry him through life, unless he stops to take aboard some other fellow's wife.

THE BEST REMEDY FOR FLUX.

Mr. John Mathias, a well known stock dealer of Pulaski, Ky., says: "After suffering for over a week with flux, and my physician having failed to relieve me, I was advised to try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and have the pleasure of stating that the half of one bottle cured me."

When a woman gets stirred up about having a new dress made she always has an attack of "delerium trimmings."

'Tis better to eat bread alone than it is to run in debt for the butter.

The Rev. W. B. Costley, of Stockbridge, Ga., while attending to his pastoral duties at Ellenwood, that state, was attacked by cholera morbus. He says: "By chance I happened to get hold of a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and I think it was the means of saving my life. It relieved me at once."
