THE Twentieth Century State Edition of the Raleigh News and Observer is before us, and its mammoth size is astonishing, containing 228 six-column pages filled with the most interesting reading pertaining to the industries and natural advantages offered by our State from the mountains to the sea, and is a lasting monument to the brain and enterprise of those who engineered it through to such perfect success.

That it is printed for the benefit and upbuilding of the South, in general, and North Carolina in particular, first, last and all the time, is shown from the following editorial taken from its pages:

"Horace Greely discovered the West and turned the tide of immigration to the rolling prairies when he awoke the youth of New England to the opportunities of the rich virgin soil of the fertile sections beyond the Mississippi by his admonition: 'Young Man, Go West.' Together with the sons of New England, the thousands of thrifty immigrants from Europe—driven from the homes of their fathers by the crushing tyranny and oppression of militarism—pitched their tents toward the land of the sunset.

"Go South, Young Man," is now the admonition of such men as Chauncey M. Depew, who have enjoyed opportunities of finding out the advantages which the various sections of the Republic offer to this generation. When the tide of immigration poured into the West, the South had the same advantages of climate and soil which it yet holds, but slavery repelled the European immigrant as well as the descendant of the Puritan, and though we had the superior location, the environment of slavery repelled young men looking for new homes.

"Conditions have changed. 'Go South, Young Man,' is the advice that men are heeding every day. The eyes of the world are turned to the South. Capital, skill and labor find in the Southern States the opportunity they seek. Northern money, in conjunction with Southern capital, is seeking investment in the South. Money invested in Southern property has yielded larger returns than elsewhere. Skilled mechanics find here an open door to independence and fair remuneration. Labor finds employment at good wages twelve months in every year. The industries of the South invite these classes to make their homes South of the Potomac. Farmers looking for homes are coming South because they can make more money tilling the soil than in any other portion of the world because the soil is rich and the climate permits work all the year.

"North Carolina is the favored State of the South. Toward all sections of the State capital and immigration are flowing, and Northern capital and skill are coming to labor, together with home money and brawn, to develop the State's resources and share in the wealth that will follow in its development."

HE FOAMED THE SURGEONS.

All doctors told Benick Hamilton, of West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 months from Rectal Fistula, he would die unless a costly operation was performed; but he cured himself with five boxes of Burkle's Arnica Salve, the same Pills used on Earth, and the best Salve in the World. 25 cents a box. Sold by Plymouth Drug Co.

THE OLD NORTH STATE.

HAPPENINGS WITHIN HER BORDERS.

Work has been commenced on the Methodist church at Morganton. It is to cost $9,000.

Wadesboro has voted for an issue of $25,000 in bonds to put in water works and electric lights.

Henderson has been considerably troubled lately by thieves and robbers. Several of them have been captured.

The Journal says that the Newbern cotton seed oil mill will be increased in capacity and by the first of January a complete fertilizer plant will be installed.

A storm Saturday night completely destroyed the Baptist church at Caroleon, in the western part of the State. The building was new and had only been completed about two months.

Samuel Southard, of Yadkin county, aged twenty-five, while out squirrel hunting struck the hammer of his gun against a rock while crawling out of a gully, causing it to fire. The entire load entered his breast killing him almost instantly.

It is reported that the town of Portsmouth, not far from Hatteras and Ocracoke, is to be abandoned by its residents, who will purchase land near Beaufort, on Bogue Sound. The great August storm has so destroyed the beach at Portsmouth that now the tide rises and falls around the doorsteps of the houses. Many of the latter are damaged.

NOT THE WISHT WAY.

It is not always best to wait until it is needed before buying a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Quite frequently the remedy is required in the very busiest season or in the night and much inconvenience and suffering must be borne before it can be obtained. It costs but a trifle as compared with its real worth and every family can well afford to keep it in their home. It is everywhere acknowledged to be the most successful medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by all druggists.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am as well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Plymouth Drug Co. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.
