In a test suit brought by one of Raleigh's merchants against the city relative to a new ordinance prohibiting signs on the streets, the city avon, and the Mayor ordered the signs to be taken down at once.

THE Thomasville News puts a whole sermon into the following: Away with jealousy. Every other man has as much right to succeed as you have and more, too, provided he puts more brains, wisdom and application into his business.

COTTON has gone up and the product of the cotton mills has gone up even more than mill men demanded. If the farmers would warehouse their cotton until the price goes to eight cents, the chance is that they could force the market up to that figure.

THIS is the day of combinations, monopolies, trusts and kindred evils. Every one aims at the products of manual labor—to reduce the price of farm products and the wages of workmen.

Will it succeed? What must the farmers do? Unless the farmers act—act wisely and determinedly—the money powers will succeed.

The farmers must organize. Nothing can be accomplished by individual antagonistic effort. All must pull together.

Wait to see if they will succeed. A Farm... should...

EDITOR ROANOKE BEACON.

In your issue of Sept. 8th 1899 there appeared a correction signed "S. B. Johnston, Capt. commanding."

I have never signed any communication relating to the war, which I was not convinced, before signing, contained the truth and in vindication of my record I beg you to publish the enclosed two letters, which explain themselves and make more brilliant the report of W. J. Anshon.

Yours truly, W. F. BRASLEY.

Sept. 16, 1899.

HAMILTON, N.C., Sept. 13, 1899.

MR. M. A. COTTER, Baltimore, Md. MY DEAR COMMANDER:—Yours of the 11th at hand and contents noted. You were in command of my company, (Co. "H" 17th N. C. T.) at Petersburg on the day and at the time W. J. Anshon threw the shell out of the ditch and over the breastworks, in front and at your command. I was within five feet of you and Anshon at the time, but you will excuse my memory as to day or date; I also fail to remember exactly why our officers were all away, or if not away why you were put in command, for you certainly were in command on the day, for I remember after the shell was thrown out of the ditch, you would report it to the commander at that point, for Anshon was entitled to a medal.

Very truly, T. L. GRAY.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 17, 1899.

COJ. W. F. BRASLEY, MY DEAR SIR:—In reply to your favor, would say that, I was in command of Co. "H" 17th N. C. T. some little while during the Civil war, and was in command of that company on the morning of the Crater fight and ordered private W. J. Anshon to throw the shell out of the works.

The facts are these: On the morning of the Crater fight Co. "H" occupied the front line at "Mortar Hill" (the most exposed point on the line) and during the bombardment, the enemy landed an eight-inch shell in our works, just at dawn, which produced a great consternation; and all the men in the vicinity of the shell, that could, made their escape around a traverse, built for that purpose, leaving T. L. Gray, W. J. Anshon and myself to entertain the unwelcome visitor. Anshon being nearest to the shell, I ordered him to throw it out. He immediately seized the shell and attempted to throw it over the parapet, but the trench being full of mud, his foot slipped, and the shell fell on him, when he again grappled it, and hurled it over the works. It was the most conspicuous act of heroism I witnessed during the war. I remain

Very truly yours, M. A. COTTER.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Plymouth Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

FROM LONG RIDGE.

October 5th. Mrs. J. E. Latham we hear is quite sick. We hope she will soon recover.

Mr. Preston Pearce of this place, has left us for Tillery, N.C. We wish him much success and many friends in his new home.

While the weather is fine our farmers are all busy, each one seeming to remember the old adage, "Make hay while the sun shines."

OUR NEW NATIONAL HYMN.

We are marching on to glory with the Bible in our hands, We are carrying the Gospel to the lost in foreign lands; We are marching on to glory, we are going forth to save With the zeal of ancient pirate, with the prayer of modern knight; We are robbing Christian churches in our missionary zeal, And we carry Christ's own message in our shells and bloody steel; By the light of burning root-trees they may read the Word of Life; In the mangled forms of children they may see the Christian strife; We are healing with the Galling, we are blessing with the sword— For the Honor of the Nation and the Glory of the Lord.

Then march on, Christian soldiers; with sword and torch in hand, And carry free salvation to each benighted land! Go, preach God's Love and Justice with steel and shot and shell— Go, preach a future Heaven and prove a present Hell! Baptize with blood and fire, with every gun's hot breath Teach them to love the Father, and make them free in Death; Proclaim the power Gospel—the cannon giveth peace, Christ rides upon the warship his army to increase, So, bless them with the rifle and heal them with the sword— For the Honor of the Nation and the Glory of the Lord. —William G. Eggleston, Asheville, N. C., in Springfield Republican.

TEXAS DOCTORS IN CONSULTATION.

From Benjamin Franklin, "When you are sick, what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e., Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclinatum, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken." When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclinatum would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.
