

ANOTHER EXPANSION.

It will be of interest to the readers of the BEACON who use McElree's Wine of Cardui in their homes to know that the sale of this remedy has so increased during the past year, that the manufacturer has again had to increase their capacity by the addition of another large building. It has often been said that an article that finds favor with the ladies is sure to achieve great success. No more striking example of this could be found than the history of Wine of Cardui. From thousands of ladies' letters received by the manufacturer, the following are selected:

From Mrs. Mary Pankowski, 23 Rose Street, Chicago, Ill. I have taken a bottle of Wine of Cardui and feel much better than when I wrote you. I did not have any pains at my last monthly period.

From Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Kalamazoo, Mich. I suffered from what was supposed to be tumor of the womb, but I have taken five bottles of Wine of Cardui and am almost cured.

From Mrs. J. L. Todd, Staley, S. C. I do not think I would have been living if I had not taken Wine of Cardui. We desired a child very much, and I now have a baby seven months old.

From Mrs. W. S. Harris, 715 Walker Street, Kansas City, Kan. I have tried Wine of Cardui and found it to be the greatest medicine on earth for female trouble.

BEACON FLASHES.

Please send us the news from your post-offices.

Our street lights are quite an improvement.

Mr. W. J. Mercer of Crowell, was in our town on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. L. Stubbs, of Parkerside, is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Stubbs.

An up-to-date line of shirts and ties at J. T. Lewis'.

Mrs. Mollie Harrison is visiting relatives and friends at Roper this week.

Mrs. Harrison, of Williamston, is the guest of Mrs. H. Peal this week.

We had a pleasant call on Wednesday from Mr. W. W. Leary, of Roper.

Mr. J. Peace Hilliard, of Weicksville, is here spending a two weeks vacation.

Mrs. A. Willford returned on Saturday last from a visit to friends at Rocky Mount.

Miss Agnes Proctor, of Grimesland, was in our town this week to attend the Oden-Peal marriage.

An up-to-date line of candies at J. T. Lewis', from 10c. to 50c. per pound.

Mrs. W. O. Davis and little daughter, Callie, are visiting friends near Skippersville this week.

Miss Maud Moore, of Norfolk, is visiting our town as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Mollie Harrison.

Mrs. J. D. Eborn and children, of Bath, are the guests of Mrs. Eborn's mother, Mrs. A. M. Ayers.

Mr. L. H. Hornthal of Norfolk, has been here this week as the guest of his son, Mr. Louis P. Hornthal.

A little excitement was created on our streets last Monday morning by the running away of a dray horse.

Mr. W. R. Harrison received a telegram on Tuesday last summoning him to the bed-side of his mother, who is very ill at her home in Jamesville.

Just received—A fine line of Cigars, Cigarettes and Smoking Tobacco at L. HARRISON'S.

In speaking last week of the trip Dr. S. Hassell had taken, we were in error. He had only been to Kittyhawk to see Mr. Jesse Cahoon, an old friend of his.

Mr. Carter A. Walker who has been abiding at the Soldiers' Home at Raleigh, for quite a while, is here, his old home, visiting old friends and acquaintances, who are all glad to see him.

The attention of our ladies is called this week to the advertisement of Mrs. A. M. Ayers, milliner, whose well established business in this town commends itself to our readers and the public generally.

The business of a town is judged by its local advertisers. A stranger to our town, and a business man, called this week and asked for a copy of our paper, stating that he only wished to see the local advertisements. Advertisements are always read.

Just received—A big assortment of Graham wafers, high grade cakes, crackers, etc., at J. T. Lewis'.

Read the ad. of Mr. J. L. Savage in this issue. He keeps constantly on hand a full line of up-to-date groceries, confectioneries, fruits, vegetables, wines, liquors, &c., &c., and invites your trade. He is another man who appreciates your patronage enough to ask for it. Give him a call.

Including both sides, we give our readers nearly five columns more reading matter this week than they have been receiving, and we hope the make-up of the paper will please them. However, if you like the old make-up better, please let us know. We wish to please our patrons and any suggestions from them will be appreciated.

To Our Friends.

As the fall is the season of much advertising and as our columns are consequently fuller of them at this time than during the rest of the year, which limits the space devoted to reading matter, we feel that it is due our patrons to make the following offer:

To all new subscribers who pay in advance, we will send THE BEACON from now until January 1st 1901—16 months—for only one dollar, and to all old subscribers who will pay up arrears and give us one dollar, we will do the same. We know you want your county paper whether you take it or not, and now is your opportunity to get it cheap.

Your Local Paper.

An exchange drawing the following contrast between the local paper and the foreign city paper, makes the point in favor of the former, as a matter of fact. It says:

You may be able to get a large city paper filled with murders, cock fights, scandal cases, etc., for less money than you pay for your local paper, but these city papers never advertise your community and make the property more valuable. They do not help along your schools, churches and public enterprises, they do not publish your home news; they say nothing good of you, your town, or your neighborhood; they take no interest in you. A good newspaper is as much of an advantage to a town or county as are good schools. Stand by your home paper, it will stand by you, and is ever on the lookout for your interest.

A Pretty Marriage.

The Christian Church in this town was the scene of a pretty marriage on Wednesday morning last, the contracting parties being Mr. J. W. Oden, one of Washington's most popular young business men, and Miss Myrtle Peal, one of the acknowledged belles of Plymouth.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and at 7:30 o'clock the bridal party entered the church in the following order: Miss Pauline Harrison, with Mr. — Whitney; Miss Vonnie Leggett, with Mr. — Jordan; Miss Agnes Proctor, with Mr. Joe Vail; the best man being Mr. — Oden, a cousin of the groom. The flower girls were little Misses Mary Jarvis Murphey and Fannie McConico.

Keeping time with the wedding march, rendered by Miss Adelia Skittleharpe, the bridal party advanced to the altar, where they were met by Rev. M. S. Spear, who performed the impressive ceremony which made them man and wife, and Capt. J. E. Reid, who gave the bride away. The ushers were Mr. O. R. Leggett and Mr. — Campbell. Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom (accompanied as far as Edenton by the bridal party) left per Str. Plymouth for an extended tour to Washington, D. C., New York and other points of interest.

Our best wishes for a long and prosperous life are extended to this happy and popular couple.

Our little boy was afflicted with rheumatism in his knee; and at times unable to put his foot to the floor. We tried in vain, everything we could hear of that we thought would help him. We almost gave up in despair, when some one advised us to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. We did so, and the first bottle gave so much relief that we got a second one, and, to our surprise, it cured him sound and well.—J. T. BAYS, Pastor Christian Church, Neodesha, Kan. For sale by all druggists.

HOME AGAIN

That Cheap Man Lewis, while in Baltimore last week he bought so many bargains that he has over stocked his store and to make room for another large shipment he is almost GIVING AWAY GOODS.

He struck luck while away and bought a big line of SAMPLE GOODS, such as Underwear, Ladies, Gents and Children Hose, Handkerchiefs, &c., all of which are as good as regular stock and much cheaper. Hose from 3c. to 50c. a pair. I bought the entire line from best to cheapest.

Closing Out Clothing Sale. I find that I haven't the room to carry a stock of Clothing, so I will close out what I have on hand at a great sacrifice. Now is your time to get A CHEAP SUIT.

BAY AND SCUPPERNONG NEWS.

Hello! Dewey, you're the man of the day.

October is here, the queen month of the year.

Mrs. Ben Hassell, near Bay, is reported to be very ill.

Mrs. F. L. Brickhouse is at Mount Olive visiting relatives.

Why didn't the marriage take place on that Sunday? Was it a postponement?

One of the "Wild Roses" is having recreation this week, so "Trixy" will greet you.

Miss Aileen Owens, of Columbia, was the guest of Miss Bertie Owens Sunday night.

Capt. Frank L. Brickhouse is having a new residence built just across the road from where he lives.

Miss Minnie Armstrong has closed her school at Gum Neck and returned home. Ha, Frank, why so sweetly smiling?

We regret to hear that Miss Loula Phelps, the charming belle of Scuppernon, will leave shortly for an extended visit.

Quite a number of young people seemed to be enjoying the beautiful afternoon last Sunday. "Make hay while the sun shines."

There will be an entertainment at Scuppernon M. E. Church the second Sunday night in December, for the benefit of the Epworth League.

Mr. Henry Bateman of Crowell, was among the many visitors at the meeting of the Epworth League Sunday night. Of course from appearances, we imagined the attraction that caused him to attend, but visitors are especially invited, so come again, Henry.
