ANOTHER EXPANSION.

It will be of interest to the readers of the BEACON who use McElree's Wine of Cardui in their homes to know that the sale of this remedy has so increased during the past year, that the manufacturers have again had to increase their capacity by the addition of another large building. It has often been said that an article that finds favor with the ladies is sure to achieve great success. No more striking example of this could be found than the history of Wine of Cardui. From thousands of ladies' letters received by the manufacturers, the following are selected:

From Mrs. Mary Pankowski, 33 Rose Street, Chicago, Ill.

I have taken a bottle of Wine of Cardui and feel much better than when I wrote you. I did not have any pains at my last monthly period.

From Mrs. M. A. Thompson, Kalamazoo, Mich.

I suffered from what was supposed to be tumor of the womb, but I have taken five bottles of Wine of Cardui and an almost cured.

From Mrs. J. L. Todd, Stalvey, S. C.

I do not think I would have been living if I had not taken Wine of Cardui. We desired a child very much, and I now have a baby seven months old.

From Mrs. W. S. Harris, 715 Walker Street, Kansas City, Kan.

I have tried Wine of Cardui and found it to be the greatest medicine on earth for female trouble.

The speeches that were to have been made at Frazier's School House, near Mackey's Ferry, on Saturday afternoon last were deferred on account of the heavy rain storm. However there were a few staunch white men present, a White Supremacy Club organized, and some good white folks' talks made by Mess. S. B. Spruill, Thos. W. Blount, W. J. Jackson and — Brick-house.

"Racket Stores," and "Cheap Johns" the latter especially, have been legislated against, but Plymouth boasts of a "Cheap John," notwithstanding. We refer to no less a personality than our popular merchant, John T. Lewis, known in this section as "That Cheap man, Lewis." His name is John, consequently the law can't hold him down. If you don't believe he is cheap, just drop in and get prices on Clothing, Dry Goods, Notions, Shoes, etc., and especially Heavy and Fancy Groceries. His low prices have long been the talk of the town, and now his $1.00 Shoes for 25c. is creating wild excitement. Call on him and he'll tell you how to get a pair.

PROMISES MUCH THAT IS GOOD AND UPLIFTING.

The adoption of the amendment will settle the race question in North Carolina as it has in Louisiana. The negro will practically cease to vote, while all white men will continue to vote as in Louisiana. When the negro is out of politics he will become a better citizen and better laborer, and he and the white man will get along better together. The amendment will not disfranchise the negro, it will free the white man by making it possible for him to vote as he pleases, instead of on race lines, as now. It will dignify the white man by conferring upon him a high privilege which the negro does not enjoy. It will remove the fear of negro control, thereby inviting immigration and outside capital to help us make our State what it ought to be. It will give such an impetus to education that in the next generation but few of our boys and girls will be unable to read and write. Surely no measure has ever been presented to the people that promises so much that is good and uplifting as does this measure.—News and Observer.

BRAVE MEN FALL

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Elaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Plymouth Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

May 23, 1900.

Many old soldiers now feel the effects of the hard service they endured during the war. Mr. Geo. S. Anderson, of Rossville, York county, Penn., who saw the hardest kind of service at the front, is now frequently troubled with rheumatism. "I had a severe attack lately," he says, "and procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. It did so much good that I would like to know what you would charge me for one dozen bottles." Mr. Anderson wanted it both for his own use and to supply it to his friends and neighbors, as every family should have a bottle of it in their home, not only for rheumatism, but lame back, sprains, swellings, cuts, bruises and burns, for which it is unequalled. For sale by all druggists.

WHOOPING COUGH.

I had a little boy who was nearly dead from an attack of whooping cough. My neighbors recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did not think that any medicine would help him, but after giving him a few doses of that remedy I noticed an improvement, and one bottle cured him entirely. It is the best cough medicine I ever had in the house.—J. L. MOORE, South Burgetstown, Pa. For sale by all druggists.

Some people are so good that they object to drinking fountains and smoking cars.

If troubled with rheumatism, give Chamberlain's Pain-Balm a trial. It will not cost you a cent if it does no good. One application will relieve the pain. It also cures sprains and bruises in one-third the time required by any other treatment. Cuts, burns, frostbites, quinsy, poisons in the side and chest, glandular and other swellings are quickly cured by applying it. Every bottle warranted. Price, 25 and 50 cts.
