THE ROANOKE BEACON, Plymouth, N. C.

OUR NOMINEES.

NATIONAL TICKET.

For President:

WILLIAM J. BRYAN, of Nebraska.

For Vice-President:

ADLAI E. STEVENSON, of Illinois.

For Presidential Elector, 1st Dist.:

CHARLES L. ABERNETHY, of Carteret.

For Congress, 1st Dist.:

JOHN H. SMALL, of Beaufort.

WHILE we believe the people of North Carolina who appreciate genuine worth and merit should show their gratitude by rewarding Hon. B. M. Simmons for his untiring zeal and personal sacrifices made for the cause of Democracy during the past three years, yet we open our columns for words of praise offered by friends of his opponents, believing that in a contest made by such competent and honorable gentlemen as the aspirants for that high office all are, that they should each have his cause placed before the people in an impartial manner and then let the people decide who shall represent them.

It is clear that the Republicans no longer expect to have a walk-over in the presidential race. Their candidate finds himself very much handicapped by the strike of coal-miners in Pennsylvania.

That's a condition, not a theory, and it must be observed that the strike is in a boss-ridden Republican state, which has profited greatly by protection, and that the mine owners are, for the most part, supporters of the administration, and are friends of McKinley, Hanna and Quay.

In dealing with this particular subject, the Republican orators must either confess that McKinley prosperity has not reached the coal regions, or else that the strikers have no grievances. There is no other course for them to pursue.

The Democrats are making a powerful fight in Indiana. Trusts and "combines," the latter especially, have thrown thousands of men in that State out of work, and the contemptuous manner in which Hanna has treated the subject has angered them greatly.

One of the fiercest fights now going on is in West Virginia. While both sides claim that State, the Dispatch cannot but regard the Democrats' chance as the better. The Pennsylvania strike cannot help the Republicans; it may improve the prospects of the Democrats very much. Kentucky seems all right for our party. And in New York city and State the outlook appears to be improving steadily.

So we say McKinley and Roosevelt have no walk-over. That is admitted to be a fact, not only by numerous intelligent Republicans, but by many idly non-partisan, but selfishly calculating operators in Wall Street. Thus, it may be that has put upon the election of Bryan, may bring him in $100,000.—Richmond Dispatch.

SIX STRONG REASONS WHY CARR SHOULD BE CHOSEN FOR THE U. S. SENATE.

We do not know to what extent it is right for the religious press to discuss political measures or comment candidates for political positions, but since it is a matter of supreme importance to have good men in all offices of responsibility and trust and the best men to fill the highest places, we think it a duty to say a word as to who should be chosen to fill the exalted position of United States Senator from North Carolina.

We have not a word to say against any of the gentlemen who aspire to that high office. They are all men of ability and would doubtless reflect honor upon the State wherever called to serve.

But we are frank to say that our choice for United States Senator is Gen. Julian S. Carr. Our reasons for this choice are as follows:

- 1. General Carr has proven himself loyal to the best interests of North Carolina. From the time he began business to the present hour he has, with an unsparring hand, given of his means to back up our industrial, educational and religious enterprises.
2. He was reared in a religious home, has from boyhood been a professed Christian and a member of the Methodist church, and in his person and family represents the best social, intellectual and moral sentiment of the State.
3. General Carr's political record is clean. He has been a persistent and life-long Democrat. He has contributed liberally of his means and supported with his influence the candidates of his party in every State and National election, but he has never been invidious in his spirit or accused of using machine methods, or money corruptly in carrying his party through.
4. He has always stood with the people against Trusts and other forms of combined capital that oppress labor or monopolize the business of the country.
5. He is largely connected with the agricultural, manufacturing, commercial and banking interests of the State, and understands the conditions and needs of our people in every section.
6. He has had wide experience as a business man, has an extensive acquaintance with the industrial, educational and political leaders of the country, and has long had a reputation for strict integrity and progressive methods among the leading men of the State and nation.

We remember very distinctly that when Greensboro Female College had reached a crisis in its history, Rev. N. H. D. Wilson, who had for years carried its financial burdens and at last fell under the weight, called to see us and said, "I can do nothing more; if possible, save the college to the church." Out of our meager salary we took sufficient money to visit the principal towns of the State in order to lay the facts before our men of wealth. It is but truth to say that, in our opinion, but for the financial aid offered by Messrs. E. J. and Henry Lilly, of Fayetteville, and Julian S. Carr, of Durham, the college would have been lost entirely to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Colonel Carr attended the case in person and with him as president, we organized a joint company that purchased and has since owned and operated the college.

For these reasons we think General Carr would worthily represent the State of North Carolina in the United States Senate, and we give him our hearty endorsement purely on the ground of recognized merit.—N. C. Christian Advocate, Sept. 12, 1900.

IT HAPPENED IN A DRUG STORE.

"One day last winter a lady came to my drug store and asked for a brand of cough medicine that I did not have in stock," says Mr. C. K. Grandin, the popular druggist of Ontario, N. Y. "She was disappointed and wanted to know what cough preparation I could recommend. I said to her that I could freely recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that she could take a bottle of the remedy and after giving it a fair trial if she did not find it worth the money to bring back the bottle and I would refund the price paid. In the course of a day or two the lady came back in company with a friend in need of a cough medicine and advised her to buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I consider that a very good recommendation for the remedy." For sale by Plymouth Drug Co., and Roper Store Co.

Ignorance is not bliss; when it is ignorance of the law.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I went for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy is for sale by Plymouth Drug Co., and Roper Store Co.

BRYAN HAS MADE NO PLEDGES.

This is William Jennings Bryan's answer to Hanna's charge that he has made promises to would-be office holders, and that the Cabinet portfolios have been parceled out in advance of the election.

I have not given to any one, either verbally or in writing, a promise of a Cabinet position, or any other position, and I shall not during the campaign make any such promise to any one. I have not authorized and shall not authorize any one, verbally or in writing, to promise any Cabinet position, or any other position, to any one. If I am elected I shall be absolutely free to discharge all the duties of the office according to my platform, and according to my own judgment in all matters not covered by the platform. W. J. BRYAN.
