

THE late term of the Superior Court for this county, ending Saturday, the 2nd inst., was the most satisfactory term in point of business dispatched that has been held here for many years. We had predicted from interviews with the members of the local bar that the greater part of the week would be consumed in the trial of criminal cases and that civil suitors would go home broken in spirit and in fortune as before. We are pleased to note, however, that so successful was the Court in getting the "snags" off (we presume that the term "snag" familiarly used in court parlance, is meant and used by the lawyers to indicate a case where the lawyers employed have milked the cow dry before trial and no more interest can be aroused in it because of no more fees) that one week special term in December will entirely clear up the docket and fix it so that the people of the county can settle their troubles without leaving any directions in the premises to their administrators and descendants. In this the county is much to be congratulated and may justly tender its thanks, already very generally and zealously expressed, to Judge Walter H. Neal, who presided by exchange with Judge Brown. Judge Neal is one of Gov. Aycock's late appointees, and if we mistake not, we heard it often said, pending his application and the effort of his friends to secure his appointment, that he was probably more of a politician than a lawyer. If this were true, which we do not believe, he was a Croker indeed, for though we are not given to the gushing flattery often bestowed on Judges and see no more justification for lying on his Honor than on his prison-celled victim, we state it sincerely from the opinions expressed by the members of the bar and by the general public as well as from our own observation, that of all the parts that make up a rounded judge he is admirably possessed. Quick and clear of perception, positive in decision, courteous in manner, courtly and dignified in bearing, and accurate—we well don't know about this, but the lawyers say so, and what he said about matters seemed to settle them—in his opinion. We consider his appointment a credit to Gov. Aycock's administration and a cause of congratulation to the State.

Judge Neal is from Scotland, formerly Richmond county, which is located in the western part of what is known in North Carolina history as the Cape Fear, or Scotch Settlement. We are reminded of what we once heard Senator Ward say: that his observation had been that this section of the State embraced the finest moral and intellectual specimens of men of any other section of North Carolina.

Populists and Republicans of North Carolina, we beg you in her name, if you do intend to control North Carolina again, anyhow—we hope you will not—please keep hands off her Judiciary until the lawyers turn fusionward.

ALL CASES OF
DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:
BALTIMORE, Md., March 20, 1901.
Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion.
About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely.
I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.
I then saw your advertisement, accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain
Very truly yours,
F. A. WERMAN, 730 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation.
Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
