BEACON FLASHES.

Tuesday was a March day.

Mr. Solon Clark has accepted a position with Mr. O. T. Ayers.

A full line of the well known Wilson heaters has just been received at Hornthal's. If you want a good heater, call and get one.

Mr. J. F. Tarkenton, of Mackey's Ferry, called on us while in town on Monday.

We have been compelled to leave out some articles intended for this issue. They will appear later.

The Lone Minstrels, all colored, played in the Opera House three nights last week. They gave a good show.

We are informed that a Young Men's Christian Association has been formed among our colored citizens.

For those who may wish something in the way of a heater that is cheaper than the Wilson, we have them in all sizes and at all prices. Louis P. Hornthal.

J. D. Moore, one of our colored merchants, is erecting a neat cottage just out of town on the Washington road.

The woman doctor and lightning tooth extractor, with her open air concert, was here last week entertaining our people. She left for Roper Monday, but will be here to-night again.

We are requested to announce that the Farmers Association of Plymouth township will meet at the Court House on Saturday, Nov. 23rd, at 2 o'clock, p. m. We trust that every farmer in the township will be present.

Just received at H. B. Sedberry & Co's., the finest and prettiest line of Stationery that has ever been offered for sale in Plymouth. Ask to see the "New Century" line. To every school child we will give a tablet, free.

As it is impossible for us to see you all, we shall, at an early date, send out a batch of bills. We get them and have them to pay, and we trust you will help us out. Your bill will be very small, and will require very little effort to pay.

Have you seen those pretty opal rings—the prettiest you ever saw—Engagement rings, holiday presents, etc., at O. R. Leggett's, the hustling jeweler? He also has a pretty line of watches, which he is selling cheap. Call early and make your selection before the holiday trade begins.

Don't make the mistake of buying a heater before calling on Louis P. Hornthal. He has them in all styles, sizes and prices, and can suit you and save you money.

We must again remind our friends that all transient advertisements, notices, etc., must be paid for in advance, and that obituary notices, resolutions, etc., exceeding ten lines, must be paid for (see top of first column on second page.) All such articles not accompanied by the money will go into the waste basket.

Since a vacancy on the Board of County Commissioners has been caused by the death of Jas. A. Chesson, Esq., the question naturally confronts the people, who will be his successor. THE BEACON learns with pleasure that the name of John E. Singleton has been suggested. A better man could not be found.

While Mr. J. M. Horton, with his wife, Miss Lizzie Goulet, and Miss Lollie Lewis were driving out of town one night last week the horses ran the carriage into a hitching post in front of Mr. Clarence Latham's, throwing Miss Goulet out between the horses and Mr. Horton out on the post, and shaking the other ladies up pretty badly. Mr. Horton was quite badly hurt, but Miss Goulet escaped with a few bruises.

WANTED—TIMBER LANDS—That will cut 5,000 to 10,000 ft. per acre. Large tracts preferred. Heineman & Hutchins, Timber Land Dealers, 336 W. Belmont Ave., Chicago.

Our entire people mourn with the bereaved family in the death of Mr. Jas. A. Chesson, which occurred at his home near Roper on Tuesday night last. Mr. Chesson was a man of much prominence in the county, he being for many years a Justice of the Peace, which office he held at the time of his death. Mr. Chesson was also Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, which office he filled acceptably to all until his death.

A special from Littleton Female College says: On Monday evening, Nov. 11th, the Alumnae of Littleton Female College repeated the concert which was given with much success Nov. 4th. Several changes were made in the programme and an evening of rare pleasure and profit was spent. The elocution and music, both vocal and instrumental, formed a pleasing intermixture, and every selection received very generous applause. The concert was pronounced one of the best ever given in the College chapel.

WANTED—Two correspondents in every town in this county of more than five hundred inhabitants. Experience unnecessary. Must have common school education. Stamp with application. Washington Press Exchange, Washington, D. C.

Shot by Sheriff's Posse.

News reached here from Skinnerville on Friday last that a negro, one John Green, had been shot by a Sheriff's posse at day-light. Dr. Ward, the county physician, was summoned to the scene. On arrival he found Dr. Hallsey in attendance and the negro with his left leg shot seriously. There being no accommodation in the neighborhood, the physicians ordered the officer to take the man to jail where they could give him proper attention. The officer arrived here with the man about 9 o'clock that night, and Drs. Ward and Hallsey proceeded to amputate the limb above the knee, and a BEACON reporter gathered the following facts in the case:

John Green, one of those goodie, good kind of negroes; a cross between a theological student and a swamp coon, for which a capias has been standing for a year, in this county, made his appearance in the neighborhood of Skinnerville, where he has lived (when not dodging the officers) for a few years. With his gun he had been going about threatening the lives of certain citizens of the community. A peace warrant was sworn out before Justice Swain, which was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Starr, who at once summoned four men and went to arrest Green. He managed to elude the posse during the night, but about sun-rise they came upon him and the Sheriff ordered him to halt. This he did at a distance of about 40 yards, but instead of throwing up his hands he threw up his gun as if he intended to shoot the officer, but seeing the officers were ready for any emergency, he whirled to run, but too late, for his act of drawing his gun had invited the officers to shoot, which they did. Three guns fired, and John Green fell, with a ball wound in his left leg, the ball entering the lower part of the leg, ranging up and striking the knee pan, glancing up and spitting the bone of the thigh above the knee, with above mentioned result.

After being wounded he was tried by Justice Swain and required to give bond in the sum of $200. Upon failure to give same he was committed to jail, and at this writing is getting along nicely with his injuries.
