

ARP AND PROBLEMS.

[Concluded from 2nd page.]

Georgia." It is a contribution to the history of our state that every Georgian should have in the house. It is replete with the romances of our revolutionary history and the biography of our noted men and comes down to the period of the civil war, where Colonel Avery and Semmes and Kell took it up. There has just been published another interesting and instructive book by General S. G. French. The title is "Two Wars," an autobiography being the part he and his command played in the Mexican and the confederate wars. The author was a prominent factor in both, and he is a vigorous, pleasing and graphic writer. The book is happily introduced by Bishop Ellison Capers, of South Carolina. It is published by The Confederate Veteran at Nashville, Tenn. It is dedicated "To the confederate soldiers, who battled to maintain the cause for which Oliver Cromwell and George Washington fought." It is indeed gratifying to see our people multiplying our own histories and thereby fortifying this generation against the malignant and slanderous production of such authors as the great Goldwin Smith and the small Maclay. It takes a lot of work to keep up with them fellows. I think we are about even with the Roosevelt incident and the miscegenation crowd. Maybe we are a little ahead. We have all had our say and can afford to wait. I still think that Roosevelt is a better man than I think he is, but he is in awful bad company.—Bill Arp in Atlanta Constitution.

Cold Steel Or Death.

"There is but one small chance to save your life and that is through an operation," was the awful prospect set before Mrs. I. B. Hunt, of Lane Ridge, Wis., by her doctor after vainly trying to cure her of a frightful case of stomach trouble and yellow jaundice. He didn't count on the marvelous power of Electric Bitters to cure Stomach and Liver troubles. But she heard of it, took seven bottles, was wholly cured, avoided surgeon's knife, now weighs more and feels better than ever. It's positively guaranteed to cure Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles and never disappoints. Price 50c at Spruill & Bro's.

IT SAVED HER LIFE.

Gooc's Mexican Syrup has accomplished a cure in this neighborhood which has astonished the people. Miss Davis was given up to die by her attending physician. She had lung fever. The doctor said she would die before morning, and advised to discontinue his medicine, as it was doing her no good. Her parents had a bottle of Gooc's Mexican Syrup and Gooc's Quick Relief in the house. They at once began to give the Syrup in doses one hour apart, and frequently bathed her chest with the Quick Relief. Before morning she was better, and after using a few bottles of each, she is almost as well as ever. It was almost like raising the dead, and has established the reputation of Gooc's Mexican Syrup here as a cough remedy; we can sell nothing else.

SKINNER AND THE ANGELS.

A Fireside Tale.

"Shove up them chunks, ole 'oman, An' set down by me, here, An' 'bout that man I'll tell yer, That Skinner-man, my dear: His name is Mister Skinner, He lives here, in the South; They call him Harry Skinner, The man with talkin' mouth; He's talked for every party The South has ever seen, An' standin' in the middle, He's often talked between. Some say this Mister Skinner First walked up ter the hat An' stood there lookin' mighty proud A Ku Klux Democrat. And then that Mister Skinner— Well, Skinner stepped behind As ketcher fer the Populists. Upon their bayseed nine, A-ketchin' or the offices, A-ketchin' what was good, This Mister Harry Skinner. A-ketchin' what he could. An' now this Mister Skinner Haf tucked another stand A-ketchin' at them offices, As a Republic-an; An' with them colored angels, He's mighty quick an' strong A-grabbin' fer them offices. Fer which them gaggles long, But which them colored angels Can never ketch, they know, Because that Mister Skinner's A-grabbin' at 'em so!'

The tale was told and silence fell, Tale-teller went to bed But unafraid over dying fire, Sat wife, with low bent head, And as she brushed, from furrowed cheek, A tear that stole down there, She softly prayed that Skinner might Some office grab yet spare For wingless, colored angels here, With wool instead of hair.

Don't Pass This.

It seems foolish for us to make such an offer this fall, inasmuch as we are giving our people the largest paper in the district, and receiving the poorest support of any, but as we almost invariably keep a name on our books once we get it there, we offer to all new subscribers to send this paper from now until January 1st, 1903, for only one dollar—over 14 months, 8 pages every week, 466 pages and 18,640 columns of good reading matter a year. Just think of it! The blank paper alone would cost you almost that much. Besides there is no paper during the year but what has some article in it worth more to you, if you apply it, than the subscription price for a whole year.

To give old subscribers the benefit of this offer we will send it to them this length of time if they pay up and pay one year in advance. Tell your neighbor of this. Or, better still, hand him your paper when you are through with it, and ask him to subscribe.

POWERFUL MEN OF THE EAST.

AN INTERESTING EXPLANATION OF THEIR UNUSUAL STRENGTH.

The Secret of their Marvellous Vitality and Nerve Force Jealously Guarded.

Women of the Harem Compound a Potion Whose Rejuvenating Effects are Almost Miraculous and Astonishing the Most Skeptical.

The fondest hopes of ancient or modern seekers after the Fountain of Perpetual Youth, can scarcely have aimed higher than the results achieved by the marvellous compound, known throughout the East as EL MOKBIL.

Travellers returning to Europe have, from time to time, brought astonishing tales of the rejuvenating effects produced by this Wonder of the Orient.

Credited compound, by the Women of the Harem, from formulae handed down orally from generation to generation, the secret of its preparation has hitherto guarded and known only to the inmates of the Harem and the Court Physicians. EL MOKBIL has been practically unobtainable, excepting by the favored ones for whom it was intended.

Recently, however, a prominent Arab Physician, banished from his country for political offense, and deprived of his vast possessions, has availed himself of his knowledge, to earn a livelihood by his station, by supplying this marvellous compound, EL MOKBIL, to the nobility and wealthier classes of all Europe, who have cheerfully paid him large fees to return for the benefits received.

Contents with the large income derived from this practice, this aged Physician, has repeatedly refused very liberal offers made to him for the formula of his remedy, but he has finally agreed with the importing house of THE NOYES-PHELPS COMPANY, of Philadelphia, to put it up in convenient form for sale exclusively in the United States, and this firm, having the exclusive agency, now offers it for the first time to the American public.

This Remedy must not be confounded with the numerous nervous exquisites, but, unadvised, and self-abuse remedies which are advertised under a variety of names, as there is absolutely nothing which scientific chemistry has been able to produce, which can even approach the peculiar EL MOKBIL, a purely vegetable compound, extracted from rare tropical roots and herbs.

EL MOKBIL is a Remedy for one specific purpose, which is to strengthen the vital force, and prevent decay of the vital principles, especially in the male, being unimpaired and never-fading, and as its use is universal all over the East, where strong, virile men with large families or descendants are the rule, there must be no doubt, either as to its efficacy or benefit to the general system.

While it is an absolute specific and positively guaranteed to cure the worst case of nervous debility, loss of memory, or similar weaknesses due to excess or youthful errors, it is also used with the greatest success as a vitality, giving power to all weak people, and developing and maintaining the full natural vigor of mankind.

It is put up for the American trade in tablet form, and, though extremely palatable, it is perfectly harmless and easily taken, one tablet being a dose and doing the work at once, and so evidently as to leave no doubt in the mind of the patient. It will cure you so as to stay cured.

Every package is opened and carefully examined by the importers when received, and is then repacked under their seal and positive guarantee to cure. It will be sent prepaid, under plain cover, with full and complete directions, on receipt of the price, $1.00 per package, or six packages for $5.00, address THE NOYES-PHELPS COMPANY, Market and 24th Sts., Philadelphia.
