BEACON FLASHES.

Thanksgiving was very little observed here yesterday.

His Honor, Mayor S. B. Spruill, has been in Norfolk this week.

Turner's N. C. Almanacs for sale at this office. Call and get one.

A full line of the well known Wilson heaters has just been received at Hornthal's. If you want a good heater, call and get one.

Senator H. S. Ward has his father spending Thanksgiving with him.

Mr. R. M. Peacock, of Roper, called on Monday and renewed his subscription.

Owing to a rise in the price, peanuts have been coming in pretty brisk this week.

Don't be satisfied with the trade that drifts your way. Advertise and draw it there.

Mr. D. F. Ambrose of the Roper section, dropped in this week and handed us a dollar.

For those who may wish something in the way of a heater that is cheaper than the Wilson, we have them in all sizes and at all prices. Louis P. Hornthal.

Send or hand us 25 cents and get your home paper three months, and a Turner's Almanac, free.

In the absence of Mayor Spruill, Mr. Clarence Latham has been acting in his place this week.

One of the most acceptable gifts you can make your absent friend is a subscription to their home paper.

If you are a subscriber to this paper don't buy an Almanac for next year. You can get one at this office, free.

Mad dogs have been reported in this section, consequently a great many have been sent to their happy hunting ground.

Rev. R. L. Melton has been assigned to Plymouth (and Edenton circuit next year by the M. P. Conference, just adjourned.

We received a pleasant call on Monday from Misses Maud Spruill and Sadie Allen. We are always pleased to see the young ladies.

Don't make the mistake of buying a heater before calling on Louis P. Hornthal. He has them in all styles, sizes and prices, and can suit you and save you money.

To every new subscriber, and to every old one who pays up within the next 30 days, we will give free, a copy of Turner's N. C. Almanac for 1902. Ask for it.

Senator H. S. Ward and Mr. P. W. Brinkley both had guests to arrive in time for Thanksgiving dinner. A young lady at Senator Ward's, and a young gentleman at Mr. Brinkley's.

When a man takes a newspaper from his postoffice after he knows the time he paid for has expired, intends to do one of two things: either to pay for it, or to rob the publisher. Which class do you belong to?

We publish elsewhere a very interesting letter from Mrs. Annie H. Dailey, formerly of this county, but now of Greensboro. Her husband was at one time postmaster at Roper, and a staunch friend of the BEACON.

DON'T FORGET if you should visit Edenton during the Christmas holidays to call at Baker's Picture Gallery. He has over 500 pictures on exhibition. Knows all the latest styles of work known to the profession. Call and see. Corner King and Main streets, Edenton, N. C.

His many friends here will regret to learn that Rev. D. A. Braswell, of the M. P. Church, who has served the people so ably and well in this circuit for the past several years, has been assigned to Buncomb circuit for next year. We all regret to lose him from our midst, for he is truly a good man.

Just received at H. B. Sedberry & Co's., the finest and prettiest line of Stationery that has ever been offered for sale in Plymouth. Ask to see the "New Century" line. To every school child we will give a tablet, free.

There are some subscribers who, through neglect, get behind with the editor, and because they do not feel able to pay it all, seem ashamed to meet him. Others, from the same cause, get behind and then seem to get a grudge against the editor and invent some of the most absurd excuses imaginable to get around paying anything. Friends, would it not be better to come up and pay what you can? No reasonable man will reject a reasonable excuse.

Making Trade Active.

An observant student of advertising asserts that it has become a recognized principle with progressive and enterprising advertisers that all seasons are reasonable. "More and more there is a tendency not to let up at any time, but to keep everlastingly at it, year in and year out." It has been learned that it is within the power of the business men of every community to transform a period of comparative stagnation into an era of profitable activity.—Philadelphia Record.

The Best Prescription for Malaria Chills and Fever is a bottle of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c. nov 12-ly

AN INTERESTING LETTER.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 25, 1901.

EDITOR ROANOKE BEACON,

KIND SIR:—My son, A. H. Everett, receives your esteemed paper every week, and I look for it with the same interest as though it were a letter from some kind friend, as I learn much concerning friends ever so dear to me, though none write to me, except I accept your ever waited for paper, a letter.

I have been in Greensboro over five years, and we have never had a doctor to our family, only on one occasion, to lance a carbuncle for my husband.

We have done well in our new home. People are very kind and friendly. Guilford county I suppose must lead the state in prosperity, as they say her tax list increased over a million dollars. Greensboro is spending three hundred thousand dollars in addition to her usual expenses. With the great amount of building being done keeps busy times here.

My husband and I took a trip to the Buffalo Exposition this fall. We went by way of Norfolk, Va., and while there we were shown through the war ship Texas. We also visited Newport News, Hampton and Old Point. We took the steamer Princess Anne to New York. We stopped in New York about a week; we went over the Brooklyn bridge twice to Brooklyn; visited the stock exchange and saw them buy and sell, and many other places of interest, as all was interesting, the parks not excepted. We were in the city when the sad news was heralded abroad that the President was shot.

We went up the Hudson river to Albany on the large steamer New York. A ride on the beautiful Hudson has never been overdrawn. We reached Buffalo by rail. While at the Exposition we took a trip to Niagara Falls, stopping two days viewing almost the wonders of wonders, then we went on to Lewiston, Youngtown and the old historic Fort Niagara, and climbed up in the light tower and took a far look over Lake Ontario, which we crossed to Toronto, Can. We also crossed Lake Erie before we left Buffalo for Baltimore and Washington. Our stay of three days in Washington was no less interesting. We had a pleasant trip and returned much elated.

If I were down there like many of my friends, you should have a Thanksgiving turkey, but I hope the day will be pretty, anyway.

I would be glad to receive a letter from any of my friends who chance to read this. I must close with many wishes for the success and continuance of the BEACON.

Respectfully,
ANNIE H. DAILEY.
