

BETTER THAN COTTON.

We have recently published a couple of articles showing that tobacco was a better paying crop than cotton, but there is an industry of the farm which, considering the money invested and the labor required, pays better than either cotton or tobacco, although very few farmers realize it. The North Carolina hen, goose and turkey run this branch of the industry, the hen being in the lead.

Gen. Julien S. Carr opened the poultry show at Charlotte with an address on the hen and her co-laborers, from away back down to the present day. It was a lengthy and comprehensive address, but as interesting and instructive for those who take an interest in such matters (or should take an interest in them) as it was lengthy. We quote that part of it which is especially interesting to the North Carolina farmer or dweller in the country, whether farmer or not. Speaking of the industry in this State he said:

"As yet the returns of the census of 1906 are not available, but as far back as 1890, the number in North Carolina of chickens was 7,507,500; turkeys, 197,400; geese, 376,000; ducks, 169,400, and of dozens of eggs, 11,756,000, quoting in round numbers. The total exact number enumerated was 8,250,413. The value of the eggs was $1,175,500 and the total value, $3,055,494. But it was well understood from comparison in other lines that, dread of the tax collector, and the want of proper records of the eggs and fowls consumed, had induced an enumeration by the householder far below the reality. We shall see that this estimate is probably much less than half the present value of that interest in our State. Let us note the progress throughout the country.

"In 1885, when about 26,000,000 dozen eggs were sent to New York, their value was about $9,000,000, or nearly so. According to the reports of the produce exchange about $16,000,000 was spent in New York, Philadelphia and Boston alone for eggs, and so much more for poultry, making some $32,000,000 for the three cities. In 1886 our exports were 252,000 dozen eggs, and imports 16,092,000 dozens. But in 1897 the receipts of eggs from the Union in New York had risen to 83,100,000, or more than three times the whole number of twelve years before, the imports had dropped to 500,000 dozen, or one thirty-second, and the exports had risen to 1,300,000, or five times the former export. And this is going on at a rapid rate.

"Not only has the number increased, but the commercial value has greatly advanced. The introduction of canning methods, but more especially the adoption of cold storage, has so steadied the market that destructive plagues in the center are no longer feared. Prices are steadily maintained and constantly tending upward. Well established standards, better care in breeding and management, improved methods for preserving eggs, on the one hand and the large increase of urban population, on the other, have quickened effort, and tendered the better financial returns. Even in bleak Canada a fowl upon an average is expected to produce $2 a year net profit. Is that so bad, when at the present prices of cotton, our bureau of labor statistics declares that $3.20 profit is all that is made upon a bale of cotton in North Carolina in the year 1901?"

The State of Missouri, where the poultry raiser has not half the advantages he has in this State, realized last year $18,000,000 from the eggs and poultry sold, and other Western States, according to reports, have done nearly as well. We have no idea, and we didn't suppose any one has, what money eggs and poultry brought in this State, but it would doubtless sum up into the millions. And yet the hen is appreciated by very few, left to scratch for herself and raise her broods as if she didn't belong to anybody. She is profitable even with this treatment but if properly treated and cared for would be twice as profitable.—Wilmington Star.

CHILDREN ESPECIALLY LIABLE.

Birds, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians gave her up," writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she soiled two to five dresses a day." DIED.

At the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. P. Rice, on Friday night last, Mrs. Elizabeth Johnston, aged 58 years. Mrs. Johnston had been suffering from a bad cold and about 8 o'clock she retired, after having taken a hot lemonade for the cold. In a few minutes Mrs. Rice and her husband heard her fall and going into the room found her lying on the floor, dead. The remains were laid to rest in the M. E. Church yard on Sunday afternoon.

At her home, corner Main and Monroe streets, on Monday morning about 7 o'clock, Mrs. Bertha Martin, aged about 28 years. Mrs. Martin was taken with a throat trouble on Saturday morning, which grew worse until her death, which is supposed to have been from paralysis or lock-jaw. She leaves three little children, a mother, two sisters and three brothers, besides a large circle of friends to mourn her departure.

Gentlemen:—We sold last year 600 bottles of GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC and have sold it three gross already this year. In all our experience of 14 years, in the drug business, we never sold an article that gave such universal satisfaction as your Tonic. Yours truly, ABNEY, CARR & CO.

ARE YOU DEAF? ANY HEAD NOISES?

ALL CASES OF DEAFNESS OR HARD HEARING ARE NOW CURABLE

by our new invention. Only those born deaf are incurable. HEAD NOISES CEASE IMMEDIATELY.

F. A. WERMAN, OF BALTIMORE, SAYS:

Gentlemen:—Being entirely cured of deafness, thanks to your treatment, I will now give you a full history of my case, to be used at your discretion. About five years ago my right ear began to ring, and this kept on getting worse, until I lost my hearing in this ear entirely. I underwent a treatment for catarrh, for three months, without any success, consulted a number of physicians, among others, the most eminent ear specialist of this city, who told me that only an operation could help me, and even that only temporarily, that the head noises would then cease, but the hearing in the affected ear would be lost forever.

I then saw your advertisement accidentally in a New York paper, and ordered your treatment. After I had used it only a few days according to your directions, the noises ceased, and to-day, after five weeks, my hearing in the diseased ear has been entirely restored. I thank you heartily and beg to remain Very truly yours, F. A. WERMAN, 726 S. Broadway, Baltimore, Md.

Our treatment does not interfere with your usual occupation. Examination and advice free. YOU CAN CURE YOURSELF AT HOME at a nominal cost.
