

OLD JAKE ALECK.

THE PROCRASTINATOR AND HIS CHECK.

Old Jake Aleck wrote: "Dear Snooks, my friend, You're quite well, I hope. Have you cash to lend? Shiftlessness has made my moves All failures, and it now behooves That I should change—ere Gabriel sends A special call—and make amends.

This little con game of Jake's worked and Snooks sent him a neat check. He was touched, as it were, and couldn't resist.

"My check book!" loudly Snooksy thundered.

"I'll send old Jake this day five hundred." Now poor Old Jakey wouldn't fail, For Snooksy's check was in the mail. When Jakey got it, he dreamed and wondered.

He kept on dreaming till he blundered.

Old Jake placed the check in an old envelope and put it in his inside pocket; then he went off to dreamland again. He was geared for slow racing and would not work in harness with Snooksy.

Old Jake Aleck lacked common sense; Experience he'd plenty, but his head seemed dense.

For his companions were shoestring fakirs. The time he wasted would pay for acres. He couldn't distinguish recompense, Yet always hunted for schemes immense.

Jake paid no attention to clocks and could never connect with any fixed time. Trains always left three weeks before he could get his collar and lunch packed.

Jake held the check, which puzzled Snooks Who couldn't straighten his books.

The bank had bode to Snook's credit, But Snooksy swore 'twas he "in debt" 'er, "There's trouble," he said, "the way things look,

It's hard to tell who's not a crook."

By the time Old Jake's decision came to focus circumstances were so changed that he couldn't remember what his decision was intended for.

Again Jake wrote: "My Snooksy, dear, I'm up against it sure, I fear. Your check is all the cash I own. I'll turn it in. It makes us groan." At this Snooks swore, and with a sneer, Said: "I'll teach him to hold my checks a year."

Jake was "up against it" again for sure, for Snooksy was a cunning crank when he realized he was getting the "hot end," and he resolved to dump his friend Jake in the swill.

So to the bank Old Snooksy went And drew his dollars—every cent. When Jake called in to cash his check The teller said: "Yes, in your neck!" Then Jakey gasped: "I need my rent," And tumbled not what the teller meant!

Cured His Rheumatism.

Mr. John Chick, of Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I feel very grateful to you for inducing me to use your Rheumatic Cure—URICISOL. I had suffered intensely for two years, using all kinds of remedies, internal and external, without the least benefit. URICISOL cured me."

It also cures all Bladder and Kidney troubles caused by uric acid. Send stamp for book of particulars to the Lamar & Rankin Drug Co., Atlanta, Ga., or URICISOL Chemical Co., Los Angeles, Cal. Druggists sell it at $1.00 per bottle, or six bottles for $5.00.

We have on exhibition at our office one of the Cultivators made and patented by Cahoon & Cahoon, in this county. It is a good thing, and with it one man and horse can do more work in a crop than with any other one implement. Farmers will do well to call and examine it.

Got your eye for something fine and up-to-date. Pictures all the way from 75 cts. to $8.00 per dozen. The $8.00 pictures has no equal. Nothing finer has ever been seen in this county. The card is pure ivory white, made in book form, with fine tissue paper to protect the print. When picture is folded it has a bow of red ribbon through it to fasten it. Words cannot describe this artistic mount. In order to appreciate it you must see it. BAKER'S PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY, Located corner King and Main streets, Edenton, N. C. 9-25 1m

You cannot make an enemy without losing a friend.

Rev. Irl R. Hicks Almanac.

This splendid book of 200 pages is not only a work of art of the highest order, but it is the most complete and valuable book on Astronomy and Meteorology for 1902 to be found in the world. No wonder the first edition of one hundred thousand was about exhausted by the end of January. The bible excepted, no other book can be found in so many American homes. The millions have proven its value and will not be without it. The publishers will supply this book for a month or two for the regular price, with the increased postage added. Send 30 cents to WORD AND WORKS Publishing Company, 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo., and this splendid book will be mailed to you prepaid. Do not pass the year without it in your office or home.

- NOTICE.

North Carolina, Tyrrell County.

W. D. McClees, Superior Court; vs S. A. McClees, Before the Clerk.

It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the defendant is a non resident of the State of North Carolina, and after due diligence cannot be found in said State, and that the plaintiff has a just and meritorious cause of action against him, of which this court has jurisdiction; that the purpose of this action is to sell the tract of land described in the petition in this cause for division between the plaintiff and defendant as tenants in common.

It is ordered, decreed and adjudged by the court, on motion of Mark Majette, attorney for the plaintiff, that publication be made in the Roanoke Beacon, a newspaper published in Plymouth, Washington county, N. C., for six successive weeks, notifying the defendant to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Tyrrell county on Monday the 27th day of October, 1902, and answer or demur as he may be advised, or judgment will be rendered against the defendant giving the relief prayed for in the petition in this cause. This Sept. 10th, 1902.

G. L. LIVERMAN, Clerk of the Superior Court.

HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendeane, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.

I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting fatter than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I don't think of lying down through the day.

Mrs. RICHARD JONES.
