

The Voice of Good Cheer.

Ah, there!
 Good-morning.
 Got the blues this morning?
 Yes?
 Well, now, confess;
 Do you try to smile
 Meanwhile?
 Do you try to make
 The muligrubs take
 To the tall timber,
 And climb a tree to where
 The sunshine is fair?
 Or, say,
 Do you lay
 Right down in the road
 As if your head
 Were too heavy to bear,
 And the care
 And the worry of life
 And its strife
 Were too many for you?
 Brace up!
 What if the cup
 Is bitter? Do you meet
 Anybody who is everlastingly sweet?
 Don't you know
 You've got a show
 As long as you're alive?
 When you're dead
 You'll have something else
 To think about.
 You're stuck
 In hard luck,
 Perhaps,
 And the snaps
 Aren't coming your way;
 But say,
 Whining won't bring them.
 It's easier to sing them
 Into line;
 And nine
 Times in ten
 You can sing if you try.
 What's the good of a sigh
 For every-day use?
 That's actual abuse
 Of what Should not
 Be used except when you
 Can't do
 Anything else.

Only a homely woman ever says that pretty things are useless.
 Never judge a woman's cooking by the apologies she makes for it.

HOUSEWORK

Too much housework wrecks women's nerves. And the constant care of children, day and night, is often too trying for even a strong woman. A haggard face tells the story of the overworked housewife and mother. Deranged menses, leucorrhoea and falling of the womb result from overwork. Every housewife needs a remedy to regulate her menses and to keep her sensitive female organs in perfect condition.

WINE OF CARDUI

is doing this for thousands of American women to-day. It cured Mrs. Jones and that is why she writes this frank letter:

Glendene, Ky., Feb. 10, 1901.
 I am so glad that your Wine of Cardui is helping me. I am feeling better than I have felt for years. I am doing my own work without any help, and I washed last week and was not one bit tired. That shows that the Wine is doing me good. I am getting healthier than I ever was before, and sleep good and eat hearty. Before I began taking Wine of Cardui, I used to have to lay down five or six times every day, but now I do not think of lying down through the day.
 Mrs. RICHARD JONES.

We have on exhibition at our office one of the Cultivators made and patented by Cahoon & Cahoon, in this county. It is a good thing, and with it one man and horse can do more work in a crop than with any other one implement. Farmers will do well to call and examine it.
