HARD BLOW AT ROOSEVELT.

The President Severely Criticized by Senator Gorman on Race Question.

Baltimore, Oct. 30.—At a democratic mass meeting held tonight, at the close of the campaign, the important address of the evening was that of Senator Gorman, who, in addition to his advocacy of the state ticket and his exhortation of the republicans, referred to President Roosevelt and the race issues as follows:

"President Roosevelt is a man of fine attainments and of honest convictions.

"In his anxiety for success he is liable to make mistakes, and in my judgment, he has committed a most grievous error in forcing to the front an issue which must be deplored by all the conservative men of the country.

"Immediately after the close of the war came the adoption of the fourteenth amendment, which enfranchised the blacks for party purposes alone and thus injected into the body politic a people unprepared and unfitted for self government.

"For more than thirty years this question has aroused sectional feeling and divided parties. It has threatened the peace of the states, put in jeopardy homes and paralyzed industrial efforts. All thoughtful men realize that this canker upon

FROM SOUTH AFRICA.

New Way of Using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. Arthur Chapman writing from Durban, Natal, South Africa, says: "As a proof that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a cure suitable for old and young, I pen you the following: A neighbor of mine had a child just over two months old. It had a very bad cough and the parents did not know what to give it. I suggested that if they would get a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and put some upon the dummy next the baby was sucking it would no doubt cure the child. This they did and brought about a quick relief and cured the baby." This remedy is for sale by Spruill & Bro.

Don't believe all you hear; but be sure to believe all you say.

A Policeman's Testimony.

J. N. Patterson, night policeman of Nashville, Tenn., writes, "Last winter I had a bad cold on my lungs and tried at least a half dozen advertised cough medicines and had treatment from two physicians without getting any benefit. A friend recommended Foley's Honey and Tar and two-thirds of a bottle cured me. I consider it the greatest cough and lung medicine in the world." Sold by J. O. Everett.

the body politic must be eliminated and the supremacy of white government assured.

"In 1896 William McKinley was elected president of the United States.

"A little more than two years have elapsed since that deplorable tragedy at Buffalo which deprived the nation of a great president. Mr. Roosevelt succeeded to the presidency. In his anxiety to be constantly doing something, he has made mistakes.

"None could be more serious than the one made by him in his attempt to force again to the front the question of equality, social and political, of the negro race.

"Thoughtful citizens, both north and south, regret such an issue. They dread and will evade it, if possible. But if the president and his party drive the issue it must be met, and the responsibility must rest upon them.

"The president is the leader of his party now and will be next year. The politicians of his party may advise him that the solid negro vote (for in voting they are indivisible) holds the balance of power in the great central states of the union and that in the states of New York, New Jersey, Connecticut, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, it is essential to his party's success. In Maryland, where the negro vote constitutes two-thirds of the republican party, it is an absolute necessity, for without it the state is hopelessly lost to the republicans.

"Unless I mistake the temper of the people of this country, there will be the same revolution in public sentiment and the same protest that was recorded in 1892 by the white people of the entire union against the administration of President Harrison for his attempt to force negro domination upon the south and thus destroy that section and paralyze the industries of the whole United States.

"Our opponents in this state tell us we are in no danger of being dominated by negroes; that the whites outnumber the blacks. In one sense this is true, but in another it is a mere dodge."

The Best Liniment.

"Chamberlain's Pain Balm is considered the best liniment on the market," writes Post & Bliss, of Georgia, Vt. No other liniment will heal a cut or bruise so promptly. No other affords such quick relief from rheumatic pains. No other is so valuable for deep seated pains like lame back and pains in the chest. Give this liniment a trial and you will never wish to be without it. Sold by Spruill & Bro.

MORPHINE.

Can Morphine and Other Drug Habits Be Cured?

It has been long contended by physicians that there is no cure for the drug habit. This is true so far as the rank and file of the medical profession are concerned. The reason, therefore, is that they are ignorant of the full scope and nature of the disease; but fortunately for the cause of suffering humanity we have demonstrated that the morphine or other drug habits can be cured and guarantee an absolute, permanent and painless cure to those addicted to the use of drugs if they will take our treatment and follow our instructions.

Each case submitted to us receives individual attention and treatment from an experienced nerve specialist. We do not detain you from business. We give immediate relief. Appetite for drugs is destroyed and appetite for food is restored.
