REV. MR. KIRTON'S VIEWS.

Rev. P. L. Kirton, in Williamston Enterprise.

To the Editor:—It is my purpose, if possible, in this communication to emphasize the undisputed claims which a newspaper has upon the community in which it is issued.

Of course the public reserves the right to demand that the paper shall be perfectly fair to every citizen. The editor has a right to the color of his own individuality, to his opinions in his editorials; but he has no right and no inclination to suppress the news in which the public feels an interest.

Why Suffer From Rheumatism?

Why suffer from rheumatism when one location of Chamberlain's Pain Balm relieve the pain? The quick relief this liniment affords makes rest as possible, and that alone is worth many times its cost.

CURIOSUS AIDS TO SPEECH.

M. Loda—Adopted by W. H. Young, Speakers and Writers.

Readers may have noticed that many persons while speaking make the orators included—have a habit of doing something which appears in an unaccountable way to mar the flow of words.

Mr. W. H. Young has a habit of doing this. He says that he has noticed it in many of the best speakers of the day. He says that he has noticed it in many of the best speakers of the day.

RAREFIED AIR FROM CAVES.

Rarefied Air of High Altitudes in Treatment of Consumption.

Heretofore, victims of pulmonary complaints have been obliged to make inconvenient journeys to the higher altitudes to search for the pure rarefied air which is known to be so beneficial to them, but this is no longer necessary.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Foote, Postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all contents, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger exhibited yellow; when my doctor prescribed Chamberlain's Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years."

Glass Wearing Apparatus.

Glass Wearing Apparatus. Articles of dress are now being manufactured in a new way. A Venetian manufacturer is turning out articles by the thousand, the glass plates of which they are composed having the same character and brilliancy of color as the eye, and what is a great advantage, they are transparent in color.
