

Those who have friends visiting them, or who intend leaving home themselves, will please let it be known at this office, so the fact may be mentioned. It does not matter whether you are a subscriber or not. All we ask is—let us know it.

"Talk it up."
 Keep that "talking up" about the Ice Plant.

Keep on "talking up" the Confederate Monument.

Miss Margaret Forbes, of Williamston, was visiting our town this week.

Miss Lizzie Mitchell who was visiting in Windsor returned home last week.

Use DeWitt's Little Early Risers, pleasant little pills that are easy to take. Sold by P. E. Davenport.

Mr. Jno. E. Singleton, of the Roper section, was in our town Wednesday.

Quite a party of our town people enjoyed a picnic on the Sound Tuesday.

Little Miss Ethel Jenkins, of Bethel, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. H. Gurkin, at Elmwood Dairy.

Don't forget to "talk up" that great big County Picnic. Next Tuesday is the day and Rea's Banery is the place.

DeWitt's Whitech Hazel Salve is good for cuts, burns, bruises and scratches. It is especially good for piles. Recommended and sold by P. E. Davenport.

Mess T. L. Satterwhite and Edgar W. Ayers, two of Plymouth Township's most successful farmers, dropped in to see us yesterday.

A game of ball was played here yesterday afternoon between Plymouth and the Windsor team, but we go to press before the game ended.

Mr. Jas. I. Bateman a prosperous farmer of the Seppernong section and a life long friend of the Beacon, was a visitor in our office yesterday.

Pic-Nic next Tuesday let everybody be there. Take the whole family and a basket full of food. Leave trouble and politics at home and go to have a good time.

A quiet marriage was solemnized at the home of Rev. N. H. Harrison on Tuesday afternoon, when Mr. Jos. Garga united to the hymeneal star Miss Hilda Darden.

Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup acts gently on the bowels and thereby drives out the poisons and acts as a stimulant to the lungs and a stop to irritation. Children like it. Sold by P. E. Davenport.

The first cotton bloom of the season is laid on our desk by our friend, Mr. Wm. T. Craddock, a rising young farmer on P. E. D. No. 2. Mr. Craddock informs us that the blossom was picked June 29th from cotton planted April 27th.

The much talked of Excursion came on yesterday from Windsor and the Windsor folks took charge of the town. It was a big crowd and no mistake. Plymouth bid them welcome and they all seemed to enjoy their stay. Come again friends.

We were in error last week in saying that the Sir. Mayflower had returned to her route. We understand that it may be some time yet before she returns as she is being thoroughly overhauled. The Str. Wagner, in command of Capt. E. R. Mariner, is applying the route.

His many friends are glad to welcome home that clever gentleman, Mr. Conway Newman, manager of the Wills Veneer Co's, Plant here. Mr. Newman was in feeble health and went away several months ago to recuperate and we are glad to note that he returns fully restored.

Have you been down to hear the Edison and Victor Talking Machines at Mr. O. R. Zeggett's? Mr. Zeggett is agent for the above machines at the Columbia which he invites the public to hear. He has quite a number of records which consist of the latest music. fe 28-2f

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I had Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it a most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness, lame back, and all run down conditions. Best too for chills and malaria. Sold under guarantee by Spruill & Bro. 50c.

Battalion Appointments.

Commander Jno. L. Phelps, of the 2nd Bat., North Carolina Naval Brigade, has appointed Mr. W. Roy Hampton, of Plymouth, Bat. Adjutant, and Mr. Harry G. Walker, of Creswell, Bat. Chief P. O. In these appointments Commander Phelps has made no mistake, both of the young men are fresh from military training schools, and will take pride in upholding the military honor of North Carolina, and the enviable reputation of the 2nd Battalion.

Commander Phelps has assurance from Lt. Worth, of Elizabeth City, Lt. Latham, of Plymouth and Lt. Thomas, of Beaufort, that their respective Companies will go on the Cruise about fifty strong. This is encouraging that the Naval Reserves will not lose the "Rep" they made at Jamestown last Summer.

A Glorious Glide.

On Wednesday, June 24, Mrs. W. H. Hampton gave the first Launch Party of the season. The invitation was extended to our "ever ready" crowd in the early part of the day, and was accepted by each one with the most sublime felicity. As 7:00 was the appointed hour, the eager crowd gathered at the Hampton pier and embarked on its glorious glide. After laughing and talking and enjoying the delightful breezes from the tumbling waters, one of our fair dames lead in musical tones that dear old charming and appropriate song: "See the boat go 'round the bend," and great were the manifold harmonies! In the meantime olives and cheese sandwiches were served to tune our voices to a clearer melody. About 8:30 the hilarious crowd returned to the pier where they disembarked, and repaired to the home of the hostesses where many games and "social chats" were enjoyed. Very enjoyable was the occasion.

Those present were: Mrs. W. H. Hampton, Misses Stella Blount, of Roper, N. C., Katie Loane, Clara Hampton, Eloise Loane, Lizzie Mitchell, Messrs. R. P. Walker, Philip Blount, of Roper, N. C., Roy Hampton, W. M. Bond, Jr., and Z. V. Norman.

MOSE.

Just Exactly Right.

"I have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for several years, and find them just exactly right," says Mr. A. A. Felton, of Harrisville, N. Y. New Life Pills relieve without the least discomfort. Best remedy for constipation, biliousness and malaria. 25c. at Spruill & Bro's.

Mr. J. A. Sexton I R for Tyrrell county on Wednesday, when he goes to look at logging interests of the Roper Co.

Edenton played Roper here Tuesday, but lost 4-13 per 6. It was a strong pitcher's game, but both sides made costly errors.

Misses Iix and Corrie Spruill entertained their friends Monday evening in honor of their guests, Misses Mary G. O. Johnston and Corrie Smith, of Elizabethtown.

The J. L. Roper Lumber Co., closed the old "sixth landing" store this week. It had been in operation in the heart of the jamper swamp for more than fourteen years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris had the misfortune to lose their two year old son, at Sixth Landing, on June 30th. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of a host of friends.

His numerous friends were glad to see Mr. H. T. Jackson on our streets this week. Mr. Jackson was at one time a citizen of this place, and was one of the most popular salesmen that ever lived here.

Mr. Jno. W. Cheson has given the front of his store a new coat of paint. Mr. C. is a hunter, he believes in the adage that the worm goes to the early bird, and acts upon it. He is one of the most successful young business men in the county.

Mr. Walter R. Chesson and his little daughter, of Gilmerton, Va., spent Sunday with Dr. and Mrs. Halsey. Walter is another Washington county boy who is making substantial progress for himself. A fine example of manly determination to succeed.

Did you notice the curious crescent-shaped shadows cast upon the ground Sunday morning during the eclipse? No matter what the shape of the leaf, the shadow was a crescent. Mr. Henry Gilham, a colored youth of ancient fame, was consulted in regard to this curious phenomenon, and his ready version was to the effect that "Mr. John Rockefeller shore guyns git the Roper Lum Company dis time. He mos' bought hit when the 'eclipse was, an' start ter build a bridge from Edenton, but he shore guyns ter git hit dis time; you see ef he don't." What makes you so confident of your information, Mr. Gilham? queried your scribe. "Hu! I blacks git man's shoes. I does, an' one un um dun tole me dat what dis 'eclipse shore meant." And with the help of a cracker box, he lifted his ebony pate above an eight-foot fence and calmly watched the progress of the ball game between Edenton and Roper.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. I have been suffering more than 20 years from indigestion. About 18 months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not dig at a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs. in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly, and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by P. E. Davenport.

CRESWELL CHAT.

Creswell, N. C., July 1,—Special.
 Miss Hattie Snell, of Cheanut Grove was in town Tuesday.

Mr. A. G. Walker's residence and store is being repaired.

Mrs. Adam Davis accompanied by her son, Melvin, of New London, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Holmes.

Mr. C. E. Harrison left Saturday for his home in Belhaven, will return again Friday.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Buckle's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cured a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 25c. at Spruill & Bro's."

HOKE HITS.

Hoke, N. C., June, 30, 1908.

Miss Minnie Jackson who has been quite sick, is improving.

Miss Yannie Wason who has been visiting her parents near Hinson has returned.

Ice Cream suppers are all the go, but we cannot go because they seem always to select a rainy night.

Miss Sadie Waters and Miss May Watson and brother, Mr. Charlie, were guests of yo correspondent last week.

Mrs. W. R. Jackson and children who have been visiting relatives here, returned to their home in Pitt Co recently.

Yo correspondent, together with some friends, spent Saturday evening very pleasantly at the home of Mr. Martin Jackson.

Miss Minnie Jackson who has been spending some time with her sister, Mrs. E. R. Jackson, at Belhaven, returned home last week.

Miss Annie Gurganus delighted her host of friends with her presence here a few days last week. She was the guest of yo correspondent.

Although news is scarce in our quiet little place, we will give you a few items to remind them that we are yet in the land of the living.

Our R. F. D. Carrier, Mr. N. H. Harrison, is off taking a rest and his place is filled by Mr. Halsey Stubbs. Girls don't spend all your money for stamps and P. O. Orders.

Miss Annie Gurganus, and Mess. Stuart Tetterton, Benard, J. H. and E. V. Allen, Charlie Watson, Thos. Jackson and Sam. Stallings were visiting the home of Mr. W. R. Mizell Sunday last.

We hope to be able to attend the Teachers' Institute to be held in your town in the near future and we think every teacher or those who intend to be in Washington county should not fail to attend. We may have to make some sacrifice, but we should all be willing to do so in order to meet on that occasion and feast our minds on the good things set before us.

WILD ROSE.

TO THE PUBLIC!

I take this method of returning my grateful thanks to the citizens of this county for the confidence and support placed in and given me during the past, and as another year has arrived when some one will be chosen for the position I have been holding for the past few years, I respectfully offer my name for your consideration. I have tried conscientiously to discharge the duties of the office acceptably to the law-abiding people of the county, and only promise, if re-elected, to discharge those duties in the future as I have in the past.

Yours very truly,
 W. J. JACKSON.

FOR SHERIFF.

I take this method of informing the people of Washington county that I will be a candidate for the office of Sheriff, subject to the action of the Democratic county convention.

It will be remembered that eight years ago I asked for this nomination and was defeated. I met defeat and worked, then and since for the Democratic candidates. If the choice of the people in the coming contest, I promise to discharge the duties of the office to the best of my ability. If not the choice of the people, as in the past, I am a servant of the Democratic party.

Yours respectfully,
 J. E. REID.
