Bert Barber, of Elton, Wis., says: "I have only taken four doses of Kidney and Bladder Pills and they have done for me more than any other medicine has ever done. I am still taking the pills as I want a perfect cure." Mr. Barber refers to Kidney and Bladder Pills, P. E. Davenport.

ROPER RIPPLES.

ROPER, N. C., July 9, 1908.

Mr. L. W. Davis is driving one of the handomest rigs that ever rolled down the pike—he does not enjoy it alone, either.

Miss Alma Davenport of Mackey Ferry, spent the day here with relatives Wednesday.

Mrs. Inez Johnston and her charming daughter, Miss Miville, are visiting in Beaufort this week.

Miss Mae Litchfield of Columbia, is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Margaret Herrington.

Miss Mary Davenport of Winton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Wilson, on Huncombe Ave.

Mrs. Jno. W. Chesson and children are spending the week with relatives in Columbia.

Miss Stella Blount entertained her friends at tea on Thursday evening, in honor of her guests, Misses Clara Hampton and Katie Loune, and Mr. Roy Hampton, of Plymouth.

Miss Carrie Spruill is visiting relatives in Williamston.

Misses Mary and Madeline Knight are visiting Dr. and Mrs. Halsey.

Miss Anna Savage of Norfolk, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. E. K. Lewis.

Mrs. L. G. Roper and Misses Ethel and Esther Kessinger left on the 8th for Millburg, Pa., where they will spend several weeks.

Mrs. W. A. Blount entertained a party of lady friends at tea Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Windley of Portsmouth, Va., are visiting relatives here this week. Mr. Windley is a native of this place and his old friends are delighted to make him welcome again.

The picnic at Rea's fishery Tuesday was a happy success. "Happy is the word. Happy were the children. Happy were the hundreds of bright young faces that roamed the beach and looked love to eyes that spoke again." Happy were the fond mothers and maid old dads who remembered, and fondly remembered, how it was once with them. Happy were the good housewives, God bless them all, whose bulging baskets of good things gave cheer and comfort to the inner man, such as only the tired pic-nicker could enjoy to the full. A vote of thanks is due Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Rea for their genial hospitality. They kept open house and made the multitude more than welcome—they made it happy. And what shall I say of their charming daughters, and the bevy of pretty girl friends, their guests from Edenton, who lent the indescribable charm of their sunny presence to enliven and beautify the scene? I call on Bob Johnston to come to my rescue, I would ask Teddy Bionnt also, but I do not desire to tell tales out of school. And there were the pleasures peculiar to those of those of the older sort; the sweet converse; the reminiscent hour, so sweet to those who love to look backward over the retreating sands of life's long traveled road. And there was the address by Col. Besley. How pathetic the sight as his few old comrades gathered at his feet and listened with loving interest as he told in his inimitable way of the deeds of valor and heroic sacrifice of the noble men who wore the gray. Then came the brief address of Mr. H. L. Freeman, who surprised many by the simple eloquence with which he told the story of the aims and purposes of that rising young order, "The Charitable Brotherhood." The people were there from every nook and corner of the county. The young and the old, the rich and the poor, men of low degree and all, but there was but one watch-word in all that mixed multitude of Washington county's good people—"Happy." And as the evening sun tipped the rippling waves of the historic old Albemarle with its silver sheen, we gathered together many baskets full of the fragments of joy, that nothing should be lost, and weeded our ways homeward, feeling that it was indeed good to have been there.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

I wish to announce that I am a candidate for re-nomination for the office of County Treasurer. My record as an officer in the past speaks for itself, and if nominated and elected to this position of trust, I promise the same faithfulness in the future that I have given in the past.

Thanking my friends for their past loyalty, and asking that they attend the primaries and the convention, I am,

Respectfully,
CLARENCE LATHAM.

HOKE HITS.

Hoke, N. C., July 6, 1908.

We don't wish to take the place of "Wild Rose," as your regular correspondent, but as we expect she is busy this week, we thought we would write you a few items which you may publish, if you think them of sufficient interest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Morris and children, of Florida, are visiting relatives here.

Mr. Martin Jackson and son Edgar, made a flying visit to Washington July 4th.

Rev. J. R. Smith filed his regular appointment at Christian Hope Sunday. A large congregation was present.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Jackson and children, of your town, were visiting, this their old home, on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. I. H. Jackson who have been visiting their son, Mr. W. H. Jackson, of Green county, have returned reporting a fine time.

Quite a number of people from your town attended services at Christian Hope Sunday.

While a certain young man of this place was out riding his wheel recently he passed by the home of his best girl. On attempting to look to see if he could catch a glimpse of her, his wheel dodged and he was thrown on his face, but we believe all injuries were removed by the liberal use of soap and water.

Miss Sallie Pearce and Messrs Albert Ange, Warren Wallace, C. F. Watson and Arthur Stubbs were pleasantly entertained Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. W. K. Mizell.

Oh! "Wild Rose" how about "The shade of the old apple tree"? We mean a tree that bears hats instead of apples.

Mr. W. E. Werde and Miss Lillie Harrison, Mr. Cecil Ayers and Miss Notre Harrison, of Long Acre, attended services at Christian Hope Sunday.

Madam Rumor whispers that wedding bells will soon be ringing. We can not tell.

Quite a laughable accident occurred here one night recently. Two of our popular young men set out to buy a pig. They succeeded in procuring the pig after some trouble, but he was a nobby one, his squeals frightened their mule which ran away throwing one of them from the cart. He was uninjured, but his hat was found hanging in a tree at the gate of his best girl, said hat will be returned upon description by owner.

Indications at present are that the price of apples will go up in the near future.

VIOLET.

This is what Hon. Jake Moore, State Warden of Georgia, says of Kodol For Dyspepsia: "E. C. Dewitt & Co., Chicago: Ill—Dear Sirs—I have suffered more than 20 years from indigestion. About 18 months ago I had grown so much worse that I could not dig at a crust of corn bread and could not retain anything on my stomach. I lost 25 lbs. in fact I made up my mind that I could not live but a short time, when a friend of mine recommended Kodol. I consented to try it to please him and was better in one day. I now weigh more than I ever did in my life and am in better health than for many years. Kodol did it. I keep a bottle constantly and write this hoping that humanity may be benefited. Yours very truly, Jake C. Moore, Atlanta, Aug. 10, 1904." Sold by P. E. Davenport.

DEMOCRATIC CONGRESSIONAL CONVENTION.

The Democratic Congressional Convention of the First District of North Carolina is hereby called to meet in Plymouth on Thursday, July 16th, 1908, at 9 A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for Congress and Presidential Elector.

The Remedy That Does.

"Dr. King's New Discovery is the remedy that does the healing others promise but fail to perform," says Mrs. E. K. Pierson, of Auburn Centre, Pa. "It is curing me of throat and lung trouble of long standing, that other treatments relieved only temporarily. New Discovery is doing me so much good that I feel confident its continued use for a reasonable length of time will restore me to perfect health." This renowned cough and cold remedy and throat and lung healer is sold by Spruill & Bro. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

TO THE PUBLIC!

I take this method of returning my grateful thanks to the citizens of this county for the confidence and support placed in and given me during the past, and as another year has arrived when some one will be chosen for the position I have been holding for the past few years, I respectfully offer my name for your consideration. I have tried conscientiously to discharge the duties of the office acceptably to the law-abiding people of the county, and only promise, if re-elected, to discharge those duties in the future as I have in the past.

Yours very truly,
W. J. JACKSON.

It Can't Be Beat.

The best of all teachers is experience. C. M. Harden, of Silver City, North Carolina, says: "I find Electric Bitters does all that's claimed for it. For Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles it can't be beat. I have tried it and find it most excellent medicine." Mr. Harden is right; it's the best of all medicines also for weakness,
