

ACON FLASHES

Miss Virginia Spruill, who has been teaching school at Windsor, came home Tuesday.

Rev. N. H. Harrison, was on our streets Wednesday.

Mr. Will Blount of Roper, was in town Monday.

Miss Virginia Spruill, who has been teaching school at Windsor, came home Tuesday.

Messrs. C. L. Jackson and R. L. Bateman spent Sunday in Westover.

Dr. C. C. Harper, Dentist Plymouth, N. C.

Mr. H. L. Spruill brought us on yesterday the first corn tassel we have seen this season.

Dr. W. H. Hardison, of Creswas here Tuesday shaking hands with his many friends.

Mrs. Richard Elliott, of Skinnerville, was among the visitors to our town on Monday last.

Mrs. Pettie Harrison, of Norfolk is the guest of Mrs. S. T. Harrison on Third Street.

Miss Mattie Au bon, returned from Washington Tuesday, she having been her sister's nurse.

What's the matter that the fire engine is never tried at the various Artisan works? We thought these wheels were placed in various parts of the town to be used in case of fire.

Miss Neva Ausdon, returned Tuesday, from the Washington hospital where she was recently operated upon for appendicitis. We hope she may soon be fully well again.

Misses Blanch Gilbert, and Kathleen Gardner, have returned from a visit to Edenton, they report a fine time.

Mrs. E. R. Spruill of Skinnerville has been in the city this week the guest of Mrs. H. L. Spruill on E. Main St.

Mr. J. F. Tarkenton, and Mrs. W. B. Hodges of Mackey's Ferry were in town on Wednesday.

Mr. D. O. Brinkley, accompanied by Mrs. Sallie Hassell and Amanda Doughtie left on Wednesday for Winton, N. C.

Some changes made in the ads of Clyde Cahon, The Washington County Bank, J. W. Buchanan and Thos. Gaylord in this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Phelps spent last week in Norfolk enjoying a postponed honeymoon.

Messrs. W. W. Spruill, and G. F. Woodley, of Cherry, were in town on Tuesday.

Owing to the death of Mrs. Lay Blount the Board of County Commissioners, did not meet on Monday last, but will meet on next Monday.

Misses Ernestine Alexander, Carrie Spruill, Katie Ausdon, Mrs. J. W. Darden, and Messrs. E. C. Caton, J. W. Darden, and C. S. Ausbon, are in attendance upon the closing exercises of Cherry Graded School.

Mrs. J. L. Phelps, left on Friday morning last for Norfolk, where she went to take her daughter, Miss Madeline to St. Vincent hospital for treatment for appendicitis. We learn that an operation was performed and that the patient is doing finely. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

In driving down third street Sunday night and when near Washington street Messrs. Wilson Ambrose, and Pete Phelps, ran into a post on the side of the street, the buggy was somewhat damaged and the young men sustained slight injuries. The absence of any light at this section of Washington, and Third street, was the cause of the accident. This light seems to refuse to burn regularly especially on Sunday nights.

A great deal of excitement was caused Tuesday afternoon when a horse belonging to Mr. Chas

Bateman ran away and struck a buggy belonging to Mr. J. C. Gurganus demolishing the body and breaking and twisting the wheels in the shape of a Chinese puzzle.

Stick to Them.

If the Board of Councilmen, Mayor and Chief of Police elected Tuesday last were not the men of your choice, it is evident by the vote that they were the choice of the majority, therefore let us impress upon you that the good of the town needs that you stand behind these officers and aid them in advancing the moral and industrial interest of Plymouth. Good men were elected, good men were defeated. Accept the result as a good citizen and lend your influence to the betterment of the town. Good citizenship makes a good town, not its officers every time.

To Our Friends.

It is with hearts overflowing with deepest gratitude that we take this method of extending thanks to the many friends who so willingly came to us with their financial aid, personal service and neighborly sympathy, during our recent troubles. With one in the hospital and three on the beds of affliction in the home it looked as if God had laid His hand severely upon us, but thanks to His goodness and to the skill of physicians and surgeons the loved ones are convalescing.

Very truly,
 Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Ausbon.

A Defeated Candidate.

As one of the defeated candidates for Mayor in Tuesday's contest, I wish to thank those who gave me their support. I was not a candidate because I wanted personal honor, but because some of the citizens of the town wanted a change and they, knowing my position as a progressive citizen and one anxious to see the town kept clean and its laws enforced, I became THEIR candidate.

I also wish to offer congratulations to the successful candidate, His Honor, Mayor Thomas Cheers, and to promise him that in the discharge of his duties, and any more he may make to place Plymouth in the fore ranks of progressive towns, he will find no man more willing or anxious to aid him than I. And I earnestly ask my friends to give him and his administration that loyal, patriotic support that they might have given me. He is not the Mayor of any set, clan or faction, he is OUR MAYOR and as he enters upon the duties of his office let us, with one accord, let him understand that we want a clean town, a progressive town, that we want the laws, consistent with such a town, enforced, and that in every act that tends for the betterment of Plymouth, we are with him. Let him understand, as no doubt he does, that he has a great mission to fill as the Chief Officer of one, if not the best town in The Old North State.

Town Election.

The municipal election for the town of Plymouth passed off quietly on Tuesday last and resulted in the election of the following officers: Mayor, Thos. Cheers. Chief of Police, E. R. Jackson. Councilmen; T. L. Smith, Dr. B. H. Gilmer, W. B. Clifton and R. A. Williford. Graded School Trustees; S. W. Beasley, W. J. Jackson and O. R. Leggett. No regular ticket had been nominated, it being a free for all fight, and with the exception of the chief of police every man elected is a new one. Gentlemen, it is up to you. Much is expected of you, especially along lines of moral and progressive legislation. Go in and make good, and we will stand behind you to the last ditch.

Declaration Contest.

Friday evening last Miss Stella Blount held a public Declaration Contest in the Chamber of Commerce hall, the contestants being pupils of the Plymouth Graded School, at which time the following program was executed, interspersed with fine musical selections by the Plymouth Orchestra:

- The Old South and the New; Kenneth Bramham.
- Duet; J. A. Griffin and J. C. Beasley
- What the Little Girl Said; Kathleen Spruill.
- Solo; J. C. Beasley.
- Robert Emmett on being found guilty of High Treason; Luther Ausbon.
- Solo; Martha Hornthal.
- Sparticus to the Gladiators at Capua; Eoline Everett.
- Horatius at the Bridge; Mamie Reid.
- Solo; Mary Murphrey.
- Salutation to the Veterans at Bunker Hill; Avery Gaylord
- "Give me Liberty or Give me Death"; Joe Jackson
- Regulus to the Roman Senate; Philip Latham

A gold medal was the prize awarded for the most perfect declamation and was won by Miss Eoline Everett, and presented by Mr. W. M. Bond, Jr. The judges were, Rev. L. W. Blackwelder, Dr. B. F. Halsey, A. W. Swain, W. M. Bond and W. R. Hampton. All recited most excellently and reflected great credit both upon their instructress and themselves, and Miss Everett should feel justly proud of her success.

Obituary.

Mrs. Sarah A. Blount, died in a Richmond hospital where she had gone for treatment, on Sunday last, aged about 60 years.

Mrs. Blount, was one of the best known and highly esteemed ladies of this community and her death is greatly mourned and deplored. She leaves a husband, Sheriff Levi Blount, and who is now Chairman of the Board of County Commissioners, one daughter, Mrs. Loula Hampton, and two grand-children, Mr. W. R. Hampton, and Miss Clara Hampton, to grieve at her demise.

The remains were brought here and laid to rest in Grace Churchyard on Monday afternoon, the services being conducted by her rector, Rev. L. W. Blackwelder.

Our deepest sympathies are extended with those of their great host of friends to the grief stricken family.
