Quite a number of people motored up from Columbia, Creswell and Roper to witness the play, "Her Friend the Enemy", presented by local talent at the Majestic Wednesday night.

New Enterprise.

Mr. Jas. R. Meyers of the firm of Walker & Myers, Baltimore, who have owned and operated a saw mill here for a number of years, was in the city this week and while here sold the mill to our enterprising townsman, Mr.
Enoch Ludford.

Mr. Ludford is an expert timber man of long experience and he informs us that in all probability a stock company will be formed at once and the mill fitted up for the manufacture of laths, shingles, headings, ect.

In our opinion such a plant would pay well in Plymouth and we trust our people will heartily co-operate with Mr. Ludford in this enterprise.

Her Friend, The Enemy.

"Her Friend, The Enemy" was presented by local talent on Wednesday night to probably the largest house the Majestic has ever held, the house being completely packed.

The play was carried through from beginning to end without a hitch, and the manner in which each participant executed his or her part, reflects great credit upon Mrs. W. T. Nurney, under whose supervision it was produced. So far we have heard no one say but that they were more than satisfied with the time and money expended, and many have expressed themselves as thinking it surpassed many of the traveling troupes which charge double the admission fee.

They left yesterday for Williamston where they played last night. They will play Edenton on Monday night.

"Blind Tigers," but Wide-Awake Officers.

On Thursday last Sheriff Reid was notified that Ionia Faulk, wife of King Faulk, (suspected "Tigers, or perhaps Tiger and Tigress") had gone to Norfolk and would probably return "loaded". The Sheriff together with Chief of Police Newberry, night Police Doughtie and others, boarded the night train at the junction. Ionia was there, so were two suit cases containing three gallon jugs of liquor each, and the husband, who had come to meet them.

Before the train reached the station the Sheriff found one Lemon Little of Greenville on his way home from Norfolk with two suit cases and a large package of liquor, and also one Jonas Beaman of Walstonburg, who not only had a suit case but a trunk full as well.

The officers took the whole outfit to jail and on adjournment of court Friday night they were given an airing before Recorder Gaylord, who found them all guilty. Ionia, who has a small child, was let go on payment of cost, but the three men were given four months on the roads each.
All appealed to the Superior Court, and on Monday Beaman and Little were heard before Judge Whedbee and upon second conviction were given the same dose administered by the Recorder.
Faulk's case continued until August Term.

The seemingly most cruel feature of the proceedings was enacted on Wednesday morning when Sheriff Reid proceeded to empty the confiscated fluid upon the ground near the market house, in the presence of a large and exceedingly thirsty crowd of spectators.

Superior Court Proceedings

The following civil cases were disposed of by judgement final in the Superior Court since last issue of this paper and before sine die adjournment on Tuesday evening:

W. D. Phelps vs. H. R. Lucas et al., land boundary, judgement for defendants.

T. L. Satterthwaite vs. N. S.
R. R. Co., damage to crops, etc.
Judgement of $1,050.00 for plaintiff.

C. F. McNair vs. N. S. R. R.
Co., damage done to crops, etc.
Judgement of $700.00 for plaintiff.

J. H. Allen, et al., vs. N. H.
Harrison Jr., land boundary.
Judgement for defendant.

Chas. Norman vs. N. S. R. R.
Co., action for killing horse.
Judgement of $85.00 for plaintiff.

W. H. Turner et al vs. W. H.
Ambrose, et al., land boundary.
Judgement for plaintiff.

Grand Jury Best Yet.

The Grand Jury of Washington County convened at 12 o'clock P. M., on Monday of last week, it being the first day of this term, and His Honor Judge Harry Whedbee gave them a short message, yet to the point. G.
H. Harrison was made foreman of the body and they retired at 2:45. At 5:05 His Honor was called up to his hotel, (the criminal docket having been disposed of and court having adjourned) and notified him that the were ready to make their report. The Judge returned to the Court House and received the report and discharged them in a few complimentary words, saying that he had been on the bench five years and that this jury had broken the record, having visited the County Home, the Jail and examined the officers of the County discharged every duty required of them in about three hours, doing in that time what it would have taken some like bodies two or three days to have done, thus saving the County several hundred dollars.

He said that their suggestion that a new Court House be built was very timely; that while he, coming here only once in every few years, could put up with it; that the old Court House was not what the good citizens of Washington County were entitled to and that the spirit of pride shown by that body, as recommended by that body, ought to arouse the entire County; that if it did, it would not be long before this County would have on this spot or some other in the County a Court House that would an ornament to the County and a credit to her citizenship.

He ordered that a copy of the report be served upon the chairman of the County Commissioners.

This jury was composed of some of the best business men from all parts of the county who had the interest of the county in hand were not on the job just to draw their pay and kill time; and His Honor was right when he said that if they had not had to wait for Jim Smith, his good friend, who was always out of the way they should have gotten through an hour sooner.

NOTICE TO AUTOMOBILE
OWNERS.

WILLIAMS—WOLFE.

On Wednesday morning Miss Annie Mae Wolfe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. T. B. Wolfe, was quietly married to Mr. Henry A.
Williams of Norfolk, Va., at her home on East Main Street, only a few of their most intimate relatives and friends being present.
Rev. B. T. Hurley of the M. E.
Church performing the ceremony.
The bride is a most estimable young lady with many beautiful traits of character and lovable disposition which has endeared her to all who know her.

They left on the 12:15 train for Norfolk, where they were given a reception by the parents of the groom, after which they took the Bay Line steamer for Washington City, where they will spend a few days.

KNIGHT—WALKER.

Mrs. Lizzie Walker, primary teacher in Plymouth Graded School left on the noon train on Tuesday, and was married at the home of her sister, Mrs. Lellah Lehman in that city on the evening of the same day to Mr. Fred Knight, returning on the night train to their home here.

Mrs. Knight is a native of this town; a primary teacher without a peer; a lady of the very highest qualities, and one who is doubtless loved by more children, and grown-ups, than any lady in our town.

Mr. Knight is employed by the
A. C. L. R. R., and is a gentleman who enjoys the highest esteem of all our people.

HACKNEY—WEATHERS.

Miss Willa Weathers, teacher in the High School department of our Graded School, was married to Dr. Benj. Hackney at the Monticello Hotel, Norfolk, on Tuesday last. The happy pair then left on a honey-moon trip to Washington City and New York, after which they will go Bynum, N. C., their future hor e.

THE BEACON extends congratulations and best wishes to all the contracting parties.

N. B.: Girls, every one of these brides were teachers in our schools, and there are yet others with the day set. This hint should be sufficient.

Ahoy there!
No frost bitten, benumbed feet when you wear BOSTON "HUB WARRIOR" BOOTS

They are made of the strongest duck and lined with the best quality wool net, and will keep your feet warm when the water is icy and the winds are bitter.

That's the kind of a rubber boot the fisherman demands and it's the reason fishermen prefer "Hub Warrior" boots over all others for Fall and Winter use. Made extra warm and extra strong for rough winter wear.

Nearly 20 years' rubber boot-making experience is put into every "Hub Warrior" Boot—and you get the benefit of it in added wear and comfort, without a cent of extra cost. Made in all lengths.
