Mr. Lemuel Brinkley arrived in Plymouth this week after having been away for a year or two. Mr. Brinkley has extensive travels during his absence, and it is quite interesting to hear him recount the wants of his trips.

Despite Republican opposition to it, claiming that it was Democratic extravagance, we are truly glad to see that Congress has seen fit to vote an appropriation for the relief of the God stricken people of this and other southern states.

Mr. J. S. Shugar having purchased the lot adjoining the Plymouth Garage & Motor Co., on Water Street, he informs us that he will at once erect thereon commodious stables in which to more properly conduct his sale and exchange business.

Celebration Suggested.

Mr. T. E. Allen of the Pungo section was here this week, and he tells us that his entire community is overjoyed at the near approach of the re-opening of the turnpike road which will again make Plymouth their market.

He says that his people became greatly attached to our business men and our people generally when this road was passable, and have greatly deplored its destruction by fire several years ago. He says they gratefully appreciate the interest our county has taken in them in re-building the road and thus opening up to them again a good market and trading center.

This road will be completed within from 30 to 60 days, and speaking for the entire settlement, Mr. Allen suggests a picnic at this end of the road as soon as it is opened, to celebrate the event and to meet with and become better acquainted with each other.

Mr. Allen says his people will do their full part in the way of the dinner, and we assure them that Plymouth people will not be found lacking along this line.

Mrs. Leggett Seriously Injured.

On Saturday night last, about dark, Mrs. Margaret Leggett, while coming out of her front yard fell and fractured her hip, which has caused her much suffering.

It seems as if the street crew had been at work in that part of the town, and cut the street away from the sidewalk, leaving an abrupt, steep step to be taken by a person in or out of the yard, and Mrs. Leggett, being ignorant of this condition, fell while attempting to cross over to the home of her son, Mr. O. R. Leggett.

The doctor informs us that while her injury is serious and extremely painful, she will get over it in the course of a few weeks.
