London.—The Greek government has been much censured that Greece has abandoned her ally and thrown her lot on the side of the Entente Allies.

Whether Greece has already declared war is problematical, as is the nation or nations to whom she has thrown down the gauntlet.

It is reported King Constantine has abdicated and the Crown Prince has been named as his successor with former Premier Venizelos as the power behind the throne. The British foreign office says it has no confirmation of the king's abdication.

An Entente fleet of 23 warships and seven transports is reported off Pi-

KING CONSTANTINE.

Constantine I, King of Greece, who is reported to have abdicated succeeded his father, King George, on the latter's assassination, March 18, 1913, and is a brother-in-law of Kaiser Wilhelm.

The relationship has resulted in protestations by the King against the Allied occupation of Saloniki.

raeus, the port of Athens. A dispatch from Athens says it is probable that the Greek elections set for October 3 will be postponed for a fortnight.

The Greek garrisons at Saloniki, at Vodena and at Fort Little Waraburun have surrendered to a committee which has taken over the administration of part of Greek Macedonia, according to dispatches from Saloniki.

The revolt in Saloniki is confirmed by the British foreign office. Greeks friendly to the Entente, surrounded the barracks of the Greek infantry in Saloniki and are said to have exchanged shots with them. General Carral, Allied commander at Saloniki, intervened to prevent further bloodshed.

Russian troops have begun another advance and Petrograd reports fighting in Volynia and in Galicia. The Russians also have seized a series of heights in the Carpathians and are moving westward along the Rumanian border of Bukovina. Petrograd claims the capture of about 16,000 prisoners.

A withdrawal of the Austro-German forces South of the Zlota-Lipa-Dniester section is recorded by Berlin. Progress by the Russians, West of Tarnopol is limited, but Russian attacks in the Carpathians and near Lutsk were repulsed, Berlin says.

No fighting is reported in Macedonia and there are no late reports on operations in Transylvania.

PRESIDENT HAS SIGNED CHILD LABOR MEASURE.

Washington.—President Wilson on Monday, September 1st, signed the child labor bill. The ceremony was presided by Secretary Wilson, Senator Robinson, Representative Keat Julia Lathrop, chief of the Child's Bureau of the Labor Department, and a large group of men and women interested in the legislation. The law becomes effective September 17.

How to Give Good Advice.

The best way to give good advice is to set a good example. When others see how quickly you get over your cold by taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy they are likely to follow your example. This remedy has been in use for many years and enjoys an excellent reputation. Obtainable everywhere.
