BEACON FLASHES.

Dr. T. B. Wolfe made a short visit to Norfolk this week.

WANTED-A Saleslady, by the Plymouth Bargain Store. (Adv.)

Mr. Brooke Read spent the week-end in Newport News and Norfolk.

Mr. E. R. Spruill of Skinnersville was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. E. S. Harrison of Goldsboro spent Sunday in our town.

Miss Norma Chesson of Mackeys has been visiting in the city this week.

Miss Annie Brown returned home Sunday, after a long visit to Suffolk.

Mrs. J. R. Campbell has returned home from a visit to relatives in Como.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bateman of Elmhurst Farm near Roper, were in town Monday.

Miss Zola McConico is spending some time in Norfolk, visiting friends and relatives.

We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. T. W. Spruill of near Pinetown, on Friday last.

Mr. H. G. Chesson of Edenton was the guest of his brother, Mr. E. W. Chesson, the past week.

Mrs. J. M. Horton has returned from a sojourn at Black Mountain, where she has been for her health.

Mr. Zeb Vance Norman has moved his law office from over Spruills store to one of the offices in the Harney Building.

Glad to see Mr. E. B. Norman of Buell, Va. in town this week. He was here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Norman, on Main street.

Mrs. W. F. Ausbon left Tuesday for Hampton, Va., where she went to take her daughter, Claudia, to the Dixie Hospital. Miss Claudia was operated upon for appendicitis Wednesday morning, and at last reports was doing as finely as could be expected.

Mr. S. Katz, a well known merchant formerly of N. Y., has arrived in Plymouth and is opening a first-class dry goods store here near the hotel. He has been for the past several weeks in the Northern market, where he purchased a large and complete stock for his store here, which will be known as the "Plymouth Bargain Store." The public is invited to visit his opening sale on Sept., 16th. See ad.

Pic-nic at Rehoboth.

There will be a pic-nic at Rehoboth Church in Skinnersville Township Wednesday, Sept. 20. All the old friends of this section who have moved away, all who live in the Community, and the people of the county and elsewhere are invited. Those who can will bring dinner. The Ladies' Aid Society will have ice cream for sale.

Take a day off and come enjoy the time. Your presence will be appreciated.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, God in his infinite wisdom hath seen fit to call to Himself our beloved sister, Mrs. Claudia Elizabeth Phelps, affectionately known as "Aunt Kittie"; therefore be it.

Resolved, by the Ladies' Betterment Association of Creswell, N. C.

That in her death our association laments the loss of a faithful and consistent member; one who was ever ready to lend a helping hand and a voice of sympathy wherever needed, and whose place in our community will be filled only by recollections of her kind, neighborly spirit;

That we extend to her beloved ones our most heartfelt sympathy, and commend them to her sweet christian character and our dear heavenly Father, who, in his goodness knoweth and doeth that which is best for all;

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to her brother, a copy sent to the Roanoke Beacon and Raleigh Christian Advocate for publication and a copy spread upon the minutes of our association.

SPRUILL-SEWELL.

Popular Washington County Young Man Weds Estimable Bertie Maid.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Baptist Church Windsor, N. C., at high noon, Wednesday, September 16th, when Miss Bertie Sue Sewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Sewell, became the bride of Mr. Edward Clinton Spruill, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Spruill of Creswell, this county.

Under the skilled direction of Mesdames W. T. Tadlock, J. H. Tadlock, Sam Freeman and W. Hersey Davis, the church was beautifully and harmoniously decorated with palms and ferns.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. R. Haight of Belhaven, and the music was rendered by Mrs. I. T. Smith of Rocky Mount. Just prior to the ceremony Mr. A. C. Mitchell sang "At Dawning."

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. W. T. Tadlock. She was bewitching in a going-away suit of dark blue, with necessities to match, and carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley and bride's roses.

Little Misses Lois and Mary Spruill, sisters of the groom, the flower girls, wore pretty lingerie frocks of white with blue ribbons, and each carried a basket of roses. Little Miss Margaret Spruill, the ring bearer, carried the ring to the altar in a lily, and wore a pretty lingerie frock of white with white ribbons.

The Matron of Honor, Mrs. W. Hersey Davis of Louisville, Ky., wore her wedding dress and carried a bouquet of white Killarney roses tied with white tulle. Miss Edna Sewell, sister of the bride, acted as Maid of Honor, wore a gown of pink georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of pink Killarney roses tied with pink tulle.

The bride's maids, Misses Grace Tadlock, Louise Baggett, Inez Matthews and Annie Lizzie Barnacassel of Murfreesboro, wore gowns of white organdy, with large, black picture hats and carried bouquets of pink asters tied with pink tulle. Mr. Joseph K. Reid of Plymouth, acted as best man. The ushers were Messrs Fenton Reid and Linwood Hassell of Plymouth, Arthur Black Phelps and Jonathan Stokes of Windsor.

The bride was one of Bertie's most beautiful, talented and accomplished young ladies. At one time she served as a teacher, and in this endeavor she acquitted herself most creditably.

The groom is one of the most prominent young farmers of Washington County; is steady in his habits and is respected and admired by all who know him.

Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon of a salad course and ices was served to the bridal party at the home of the bride's parents, after which the bride and groom motored to Kelford and boarded the North-bound train for an extended wedding trip. They will make their future home near Creswell.

The out-of-town guests were, Mrs. E. R. Spruill and daughter, Miss Mary, and son, Leon, of Creswell, Mrs. J. W. Tadlock and children of Norfolk, Miss Kathleen Spruill, Messrs Fenton and Joseph Reid, Linwood Hassell, Edgar Latham and Emmett Blount of Plymouth, Mrs. Will Jessup and Henry Spruill of Quitsna, Mrs. W. Hersey Davis of Louisville, Ky., and Rev. W. R. Haight of Belhaven. Our sincerest congratulations are extended to this estimable young couple.
