

While Others Are Talking

scarcity of merchandise, we were thoughtful enough to buy the bulk of our stock months ahead. A visit to our store will convince you that we have the largest and best and cleanest selection that can be found anywhere in this part of the country. Every article that you buy from us we personally guarantee to satisfy. We also advise those who are in need of merchandise to buy their goods early, owing to the present scarcity of materials.

Dry Goods & Millinery Galore.

Our Dry Goods consists of Woolens, Silk Poppins, Satins, Taffetas, Wash Silks and all kinds of staples, such as Bleachings, Yellow Cottons, Flannels, Outings, Etc.

We consider it a treat for any lady to visit our Millinery Department, as our display in this department is simply delightful, and the prices are especially attractive.

Now is the time to supply your children with good, warm comfortable clothes. We have about five hundred boy's suits of good dependable cloth. Prices $2.00 to $10.00.

SHOES are the most important thing to keep children healthy; to keep their feet good and dry. You will find that we have the largest line of Children's Shoes in Plymouth. 25c to $3.50

Several real estate on foot which will soon further changes in the sky of the city. J. O. Highsmith has sold the small store on Main Street, now occupied by J. T. Hughes, to C. C., and Z. B. Bergeron, the latter of Farmville, N. C., who will at once open up a new business here.

Messrs J. J., and T. R. Hassell and their families while out motoring in a Ford car belonging to Mrs. W. H. Matthews Sunday afternoon came near being in a serious accident when a heavier car driven by a young man from near Creswell ran into them and but for a stout fence post would have turned them over and perhaps seriously injured the entire party. The Ford was put out of commission, another car being secured to bring them home. Mrs. T. R. Hassell was slightly injured about the shoulder.

CRESWELL NEWS.

Miss Combs of Gum Neck is visiting Mrs. C. N. Davenport.

We are glad to know that the condition of Miss Sara Bateman is rapidly improving.

Rev. O. N. Marshall returned Monday from a meeting at Oak Grove which closed Sunday. He reports a good meeting.

Every one is looking forward with great prospects to the coming of the Chautauqua Oct. 13-16th. A large number of tickets are being sold. Have you got yours?

Mrs. J. L. Hassell and A. G. Walker held their fall openings Tuesday of this week and were visited by a large number of prospective buyers. Refreshments were served at the store of Mr. Walker and have met with many comments.

Rev. C. C. Kelsey was here Sunday morning and evening, and at Columbia in the afternoon in his regular services. He announced that Bishop Darst will be here Oct. 28th; also that there would be a mission meeting beginning the first Sunday in November.

Hon. H. C. Carter, of Washington, N. C., Presidential elector of this district on the Democratic ticket, spoke to a large number of the citizens of Creswell and surrounding community Tuesday night at 7:30 on the popular issues of the present campaign. He says that this is an unparallel era in the history of the country; that prosperity is greater to-day than ever in the history of this country. Mr. W. S. Davenport of Mackeys, candidate for one of the State Senators from this district was also present and presided over the meeting.

Rev. J. H. Abernethy, pastor of the M. P. Church, returned Thursday from a trip through the Piedmont section of the state. During his trip he visited Raleigh, Greensboro, Winston-Salem, and High Point and assisted in several Revivals, one at Winston-Salem, another at High Point, on his return trip he was accompanied to the Old Soldiers' Home, in Raleigh, by the new Superintendent, Colon Milton, at which institution Rev. Mr. Abernethy preached to the veterans. He says that he is great-
