

Attention Corn Club Boys.

Don't forget the meeting for the boys in the corn club that will be held in Plymouth, next Saturday, Nov. 25th, and it is very important that each of you are here that day and bring with you your report on your acres of corn and have it complete ready to send in to the State office. But remember that I must have your reports before they go to Mr. Brown, at West Raleigh, so have them ready by Saturday.

Mr. Atabertson the Assistant county agent will be here next Saturday to talk to you boys and he has something good for you so be sure and come to hear him. Also would be glad to have you bring other boys who are interested in the corn club work.

In writing out history for the reports you will be expected to answer the questions that are in the back of your reports books, and answer them as intelligently as you can, and not just simply answer them yes, or no, but make them as full as you can.

Be sure and come to Plymouth to attend this meeting next Saturday, but if you find that you will not be able to attend this meeting, don't forget to mail me your reports so that they will reach me not later than Saturday morning, as I must make out my annual reports next week and I must have your reports in before I can make out mine. Hoping that each and every one of you will try to be here and have your reports ready to hand in. I am, very truly yours,

N. B. STEVENS,
County Agent
