

PRETTY WEDDING AT ROPER.

A marriage of unusual interest to the many friends of the family in Beaufort and Washington Counties, and conspicuous alike for its simplicity and beauty was celebrated at Cedar Grove Farm, the splendid home of Mr. John E. Singleton near Roper, at eight o'clock on Wednesday evening, Jan. 24th., 1917, when his daughter, Mrs. Della Spruill, became the bride of Mr. Ezekiah Chesson, Jr. Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, the many friends and guests from both village and country side began to arrive early and were welcomed in the good old-fashioned way to the home ablaze with light, warmth and good cheer. The avenue of cedars, grounds and spacious verandas were well lighted and the hall and living rooms were tastefully and cleverly decorated with moss and evergreens. Mrs. Leon L. Lewis played the wedding march and the first to enter were little Misses Mary Peel and Esther Chesson, who were followed by Mr. Norman Chesson, oldest son of the groom and Miss Edna Spruill, only daughter of the bride. Then came the bride in a becoming costume of dark blue mesaline, with groom clad in conventional black and standing under the marriage bell in the center of the room were male one, Rev. N. L. Seabolt of the Methodist Church performing the ceremony. After many hearty congratulations and sincere good wishes, the bridal party was whisked away in waiting automobiles to the home of the groom on the outskirts of the village. The bride was the happy recipient of a number of useful gifts and remembrances from her many friends and relatives. Misses Parthia Singleton of Washington and Kan Boyd of Pinetown were the out-of-town guests of the family.

By virtue of authority vested in me by mortgage executed by Frank L. Howcot and wife, Eliza Howcot, on the 25th day of April, 1911, to the said Howcot and registered in book 22 in the Register of Deeds of Washington County, I have sold to the highest bidder at the court house door in the town of Roper, on the 5th day of January, 1917, the following described property:

Lying and being more particularly described as follows: adjoining the land of Wm. Swift, beginning at Wm. Swift's line on the public road leading to Roper, running easterly 60 feet to Robert's line, thence southerly 200 feet, thence easterly 60 feet to Wm. Swift's line, thence northerly 200 feet to the beginning containing one-third of an acre, it being the land on which the said Frank Howcot and wife now resides, also a second plot of land adjoining the lands of Arthur Thorp's southeast corner and running southerly 170 yards to W. H. Howcot line, thence westerly 700 yards, thence northerly 175 yards to Thorp's line, thence easterly 70 yards to the beginning, containing twenty-five acres more or less.

This the 5th day of January, 1917.
