PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

Plymouth, N. C., Friday, June 15th, 1917.

Marine Corps Week, June 10th to June 16th, when thousands of recruits are needserves to call attention strikingly to the splendid history it has seen service ashore and State. afloat in every quarter of the globe, and always with credit to the country and honor to itself. Its efficiency is a tradition, readiness has elicited the highest commendations at home, and its bearing, discipline and fighting qualities have earned the warmest encomiums of the foreign contingents with which it has served.

"The American marine is known round the world. A better set up, more fit, more spirited, more energetic and stancher soldier is to be found nowhere. He is the first ashore, where he always knows how to take care of himself, and the last to stay at the fight as well as the first in, always brave, always cheerful, always dextrous and ever steady."

The recruiting movement is worthy the aid of every one.
