Mr. and Mrs. C. V. W Ausbon went to Washington last Friday to bid the soldiers, among whom was their eldest son, C. S. Ausbon, farewell. They were joined there by their second son, L. R. Ausbon who had been working in Greenville, and who accompanied them home on Saturday night and left Monday morning for Raleigh where he joined Ambulance Unit No. 43 enroute to Petersburg, Va., where they go into training.

Flooding Rains.

The most powerful rain-fall within the recollection of our oldest citizens fell last Friday night in this section, causing great damage to crops and roads; many of the roads being impassable for several hours, and several trains over the Norfolk Southern Railroad failing to run on account of a bad wash-out just out of town in Peacock Swamp.

The most damage to crops is to cotton and peanuts; the cotton shedding bolls, and the peanuts shedding the older and best nuts. This is hard on our farmers, for crops in this section were already short owing to the excessive wet season we have had all summer.

Now in Camp.

The last of our volunteer soldier boys are now in camp, making the final preparation for the next move, which will be to France. Those belonging to the Field Artillery leaving Washinnton, N. C., with Battery "B" last Saturday for Camp Sevier, Greenville, S. C., and those belonging to Unit 43, Ambulance Division leaving Raleigh, N. C., on Wednesday for Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va.

May a kind Providence ever attend all our soldier boys; give them success, keep them in health, and grant them a safe deliverance and a speedy return home,

Conditions at Camp Jackson.

The following letter received from the boys who first went to Columbia, S. C., should be encouraging to those who are yet to go, and to their friends at home:

"MR. JNO. W. DARDEN:—All here enjoying ourselves just fine. The only tough luck we had was having to sit up all the way, for the meal tickets would not pass for berths. Outside of that we got out fine.

"We are in with lots of good christian people, and I am glad to find them so kind. Of course there are some of all classes, but the crowd we are with are nice. We have lots of good talks and prayer every night.

"You can tell all of our friends not to dread coming down here with us, and also tell those Red Cross ladies that their gifts were most highly appreciated by all of us.

"The boys say be sure to give their best regards to all their friends."

"From All the Boys.

BRUCE CRAVEN SAYS

Since our own boys have gone to this war, facing the possibility of death, I don't want to hear any one intimating any doubt about the righteousness of the cause for which they are to go into the valley of the shadow.

I believe our part in it is the part of Honor supreme, but if I didn't believe it, I would at least keep my mouth shut when my neighbor's sons are bearing the brunt of it. One certain thing about it is that if they were not there, some of the rest of us would be. I feel like taking off my hat to every uniformed man I see.

What are they fighting for? In order that YOU might stay at home in peace! If that isn't enough for you you ought to go yourself and be shot as soon as you get there.—Greensboro News.
