ORGANIZING OF HOME GUARD

Will Utilize County Councils of Defence in Formation of Selected Military Organizations.

Raleigh.—Governor Bickett and Adjutant General Young are to utilize the county councils of defense in the formation of the selected military organizations that are to be made up from the 5000 men who are to be called into service for home guard purposes. These county councils are to make up the list of men to be asked to serve in the county organizations and report them back to the governor through the adjutant general.

The chairman of the county council is to be the officer to muster into the service the men who accept for service and when the companies are mustered in they are to hold an election of officers and those elected are to be commissioned by the governor.
The federal government is to provide the arms under a recent special act of congress providing for the arming of home guards during the duration of the war while the federal government has the national guard of the various states in foreign service.

The policy will be to form the companies in the larger centers of the state first, that are apportioned one hundred men each for their companies of militia. These are Buncombe, Cumberland, Durham, Forsyth, Guilford, Wake, Wayne, Mecklenburg and New Hanover.

The next in order of formation will be the counties or combinations of counties that have companies of fifty men each. These are Alleghany, Ashe, Beaufort, Bertie, Bladen, Brunswick, Burke, Cabarrus, Caldwell, Carteret, Caswell, Cleveland, Granville, Halifax Harriet Johnston, Chatham, Columbus, Davidson Duplin, Edgecombe, Franklin, Gaston, Person, Pitt, Randolph, Robeson, Jones, Lee, Madison, Martin, Mc-Dowell, Nash, Northampton, Pender, Rockingham, Sampson, Union, Vance, Warren, Watauga, Wilkes and Wilson.

Then there will be for the remainder of the counties consolidated companies made up of units of 75 men each, selected from two or three counties, and the headquarters chosen for the convenience of the men composing the organizations. Rowan will have seventy-five men for that county alone. For the remainder the combinations are: Alamance and Orange; Avery, Mitchell and Yancey; Catawba, and Lincoln; Chowan and Perquimans; Green and Lenoir; Haywood and Jackson; Henderson and Transylvania; Moore and Montgomery; Polk and Rutherfordton.

Oct. 9 Fire Prevention Day.
Raleigh.—The proclamation by Governor Bickett, appealing for complete observance of Fire Prevention Day, October 9, throughout the state under the auspices of the state department of insurance, says "Taxes are a great burden and a source of constant irritation. The ingenuity of statesmen is being taxed to reduce and equalize the tax burden, and yet the fire tax annually levied on the state of North Carolina is practically equal to the entire taxes levied for the support of the state government. We may equalize the government taxes but they must be paid by someone. Two-thirds of the fire taxes are wholly unnecessary and due to lack of reasonable care."

He adds that it was a realization of this that constrained the general assembly to designate a Fire Prevention Day and require a proclamation by the governor for its observance. He asks that the school and municipal authorities take special pains to have adequate observance and that citizens generally give special attention to the day and its important bearing and give special attention to condition of their premises to eliminate possibilities of fire.

NORTH CAROLINA BRIEFS.
The state forester, Mr. J. S. Holmes, who is also acting director of the North Carolina Geological and Economic Survey during the absence of Major Joseph Hyde Pratt with the 165th Regiment of Engineers, has just been appointed a listing officer for the Second Forestry Regiment, known as the 20th Engineers (Forest) Regiment, by Mr. William L. Hall, assistant forester, Washington, D. C., who has been requested by the War Department to organize this regiment.

John Long, who for the past week eluded armed and angry posses of citizens and officers in Mangrove township, Durham county, came to the county court house at Durham and surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Joe Pleasants. Long was wanted on the charge of shooting and seriously wounding Miss Nellie Ball, pretty daughter of Dave S. Ball, as she knelt at a spring near her home at Bahama.
Morganton's cement streets are attracting quite a lot of interest now and many requests are received for photographs and information from other towns in different states.

PSALMS OF DELIVERANCE.

LESSON TEXT—Psalms 85 and 126.
GOLDEN TEXT—They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.—Psalms 126:5.

These Psalms breathe the spirit of the true patriot. The Psalmist sees his afflicted country suffering for the sins of the people, prays for their restoration to the Divine favor, and with the eagle eye of faith anticipates the joyful day of spiritual and temporal blessings because of restoration to the Divine favor. Doubtless such patriotism would be pleasing to the Lord on the part of us all.

Psalm 85.
I. Praises for Mercies Received
(vv. 1-3).
Praise is given for
(1) Deliverance from Captivity (v.
1).

He had in mind the specific mercies of a given time; perhaps it was one of the oppressions of the Philistines from which they had been delivered.
(2) Forgiveness of Sin (vv. 2, 3).
"Thou hast forgiven the iniquity—covered all their sin." God's restoration was the proof that he had pardoned.
Great indeed was the sin of Jacob, but God's forgiveness was greater.
He is peculiarly a God of mercy.
Having forgiven the sins his anger is taken away. He stayed his hand from the judgment which would have justly fallen, to show his mercy.

II. Prayer for Restoration From Backsliding (vv. 4-7).
He knew how worthless the outward blessings of the Lord would be unless the people inwardly turned to the Lord. He, therefore, besought the Lord to give them the greater blessing, that of a change of heart. Without the change of heart forgiveness would be fruitless. A change of heart can only be by God's help.

(1) That God would turn the hearts of his people toward himself (v. 4).
Knowing the people's utter helplessness to turn to God, he cried out to God to save them by turning them to himself. He knew that God's anger could not turn from the people as long as they were impenitent.

(2) That God would take away the very remembrance of their sins (vv.
5-7).
(a) The ending of his anger (v. 5).
The desire seems to be that he would wipe out the very marks of his displeasure by no longer allowing punishment to be meted out to them.
(b) The return to the people's joy
(v. 6).
Their joy could only be realized through a revival from God. The Psalmist now becomes more bold in his requests.

(c) Shall show them mercy (v. 7).
"Make it visible," is his cry. God's judgment was most real. His desire is that his mercy would be just as real.

III. Exultant Anticipation (vv. 8-13).
Having spoken the sentiment of the repentant people, the poet expresses confidence of the Lord's response. So faithful is God that those who sincerely pray to him can go forward with the assurance of petitions granted.
(1) "He will speak peace" (v. 8).
He knew that a gentle answer would come, but its continuance would depend upon the fidelity of the people.
Turning to folly would provoke again his wrath.

(2) Will bring his salvation near
(v. 9).
Only as his salvation was near could glory be in the land.

(3) Devise a way by which "Mercy and truth." "Righteousness and peace," may be united (vv. 10, 11).
He did not suggest a way. He may not have known it. Faith now sees the way in Christ. In him such a union has been blessedly effected.

(4) The land shall become fruitful
(v. 11).
When sin is removed, temporal prosperity shall follow. Earth's barrenness is due to sin. When the curse is removed fruitfulness shall follow.

(5) Righteousness shall be the guide of his people (v. 12).
In that golden, glad age God's righteous ways will leave a track in which his own may walk with security.

Psalm 126.
I. The Fact of Zion's Deliverance
(vv. 1, 2).
(1) By whom (v. 1). The Lord.
(2) Effect of (vv. 1, 2).
(a) The people were scarcely able to believe it. So sudden and unexpected was their deliverance that it seemed to them as a dream. They expressed their feeling in joyful laughter.

(b) The heathen noted their deliverance as marvelous, and ascribed it to God (v. 2).
Song and Prayer.

II. The Song of the People (v. 3).
They ascribed their deliverance to the Lord and expressed their gratitude in singing God's praise.

III. The Prayer (v. 4).
The people cried to God to visit their restoration with fruitfulness, even as the streams from the South spread out and make a country fruitful.

IV. The Promise (vv. 5, 6).
Though the people were still obliged to suffer the consequences of their sins, they were encouraged to go on in sowing though in tears, as the reaping would bring joy.

LEMONS BRING OUT THE HIDDEN BEAUTY

What girl or woman hasn't heard of lemon juice to remove complexion blemishes; to bleach the skin and to bring out the roses, the freshness and the hidden beauty? But lemon juice alone is acid, therefore irritating, and should be mixed with orchard white this way. Strain through a fine cloth the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing about three ounces of orchard white, then shake well and you have a whole quarter pint of skin and complexion lotion at about the cost one usually pays for a small jar of ordinary cold cream. Be sure to strain the lemon juice so no pulp gets into the bottle, then this lotion will remain pure and fresh for months.
When applied daily to the face, neck, arms and hands it should help to bleach, clear, smoothen and beautify the skin.

Any druggist will supply three ounces of orchard white at very little cost and the grocer has the lemons.

Timorous Lover.
A woman went into a store for a pair of slippers. She asked the shop assistant to get her a pair about size 10, and she wanted them squeaky.
"They are for my father," she added.
"Squeaky, miss? I'm afraid we have not got any of that kind."
"Couldn't you make him a pair of squeaky ones?" asked the young woman.
"There is a young man who visits me frequently, and it would be very convenient for him to know just when pa is coming downstairs."

CHIGIS BACK TO OLD HOME

Roman Family to Occupy Historic Villa Farnesina—Descendants of Original Owners.

After 337 years the historic Villa Farnesina, on the banks of the Tiber, a half-mile distant from St. Peter's church, will again be occupied by descendants of its original owners and builders, the Princes of Chigi, says a Rome correspondent.

The head of the house, Prince Lu-dovic Chigi, who last year was appointed marshal of the Holy church and the guard of the Conclave and, therefore, rules the Vatican during the interim between the death of a pope and the election of a new one, recently disposed of the Chigi palace to the Italian government. It is stated that by this sale he was put in a position to buy back the Villa Farnesina, erected in 1509-11 by the Papal banker, Ago-stino Chigi, and notable because of its frescoes by Raphael.

The palace will be restored and refurnished as it was when first occupied by the Chigi family, an auction sale having been held recently to rid the palace of the furniture left there by the king of Naples.

The return of the Chigis is considered remarkable since it is proverbial in Rome that when once a family leaves its home it leaves forever.
