GIVE THE SOLDIER HIS DUE.

[The following appeal was written by one of our volunteer boys now in Camp Lee, Petersburg, Va.:]

We give service, you shut off our beer, But the slacker can drink 'til it runs out his ear.

We quit a good job to keep you from harm, And the slacker goes by with a girl on his arm.

And laughs at the soldier, poor, unlucky cuss. Girls go with the slacker; why criticize us?

The slacker rides by in a Ford car all his own, And charges a quar'er to haul us around.

We are doing our duty; his liver is white, Yet we leave the streets at eleven at night.

While he sticks around as long as he likes. Discipline we know is a thing that makes life

But, honest to goodness, we fail to see If the soldier drinks nothing but water and pop.

Why the drinks of the slacker can't also be stopped. If the slacker can dance it seems rather hard

That at all decent dances the uniform is barred.

We've shouldered our rifles and taken our place, And will go to our death with a smile on our face.

But this is our honest appeal to you— Until we cross over, please give us our due.

The Bank of Roper will close at noon on Wednesday, October 24th, for a half holiday, in accordance with the President's Proclamation designating that date as "Liberty Loan Day."

The Roper Community Fair was a success in every sense of the word. Larger crowds attended this year on both days than on last year, and the exhibits were larger and more varied, a great improvement in the farm and live stock exhibits being especially noticeable. Notwithstanding there was no special train schedules arranged, there were a good number of people here from Wenona, Panteo, Belhaven, Creswell and Plymouth, while large numbers came in automobiles from other points. Those interested in the Fair feel well repaid for their efforts and the large amount of work necessary to make it a success. Lack of space forbids a more lengthy or detailed write-up.

tainment has more and better things to show than even before. Starting with a magnificent pageant entitled, "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp," the circus will occupy three hours or more with events in air, on platform, and rings, and in the huge hippodrome surrounding. Not one moment will be lost in all of the spaces of the vast enclosure.

The opening feature is the first attempt at Chinese pageantry in the history of American circuses, and it has been described as the most gorgeous presentation ever attempted. The story of the genie slave of the magic lamp is too well known to need description here. However, it may be well to call attention to the magnificent settings in the Chinese locale, and to the fact Barnum & Bailey have spent $1,000,000 to produce all of its glorious possibilities.

The circus program, which follows the pageant, is made up almost entirely of names and acts new to the American public, the cream of all continental circuses having rushed to the big show's European agents for booking on account of the closing of most of the big foreign circuses. There is a complete Chinese circus, replete with thrilling aerial and acrobatic feats; the famous Hannaford family, champion riders of Europe, will display their wonderful skill; Signor, the dwarf bareback rider, described as the equestrian comic of the century, will thrill and convulse with laughter; Pallenberg's wonderful bears will ride on high bicycles, skate and perform on the trapeze; there will be more clowns than ever before, and in the menagerie will be seen many new specimens of wild and untamed animals. There are a dozen of new baby animals in the great zoo.

There will be more than one hundred acts, and to name and describe them would occupy too much space.

The parade, which is entirely new, will start from the show grounds in Washington Oct. 30th, as nearly 10 o'clock in the morning as possible. It will be three miles in length and there will be six bands, three calliopes and a steam piano to create music for the marching throng.

FOR SALE—Eleven head of well-bred Jerseys. We guarantee each cow to give five gallons of milk. Come early and get your pick. W. F. LUCAS.
