

Ugh! Calomel Sickens; Salivates! Please Try Dodson's Liver Tone

I am sincere! My medicine does not upset liver and bowels so you lose a day's work.

You're bilious! Your liver is sluggish! You feel lazy, dizzy and all knocked out. Your head is dull, your tongue is coated; breath bad; stomach sour and bowels constipated. But don't take salivating calomel. It makes you sick; you may lose a day's work. Calomel is mercury or quicksilver, which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel crashes into sour bile like dynamite, breaking it up. That's when you feel that awful nausea and cramping.

If you want to enjoy the nicest, gentlest liver and bowel cleansing you ever experienced just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone tonight. Your druggist or dealer sells you a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents under my personal money-back guarantee that each spoonful will clean your sluggish liver better than a dose of nasty calomel and that it won't make you sick.

Dodson's Liver Tone is real liver medicine. You'll know it next morning because you will wake up feeling fine, your liver will be working, your headache and dizziness gone, your stomach will be sweet and your bowels regular. You will feel like working; you'll be cheerful; full of vigor and ambition.

Dodson's Liver Tone is entirely vegetable, therefore harmless and can not salivate. Give it to your children. Millions of people are using Dodson's Liver Tone instead of dangerous calomel now. Your druggist will tell you that the sale of calomel is almost stopped entirely here.—Adv.

OUR BOYS IN FRANCE AND HOME PROTECTION

The men on the firing line represent the pick of our American youth. One in four of our boys at home was sick, rejected because of physical deficiency. Many times the kidneys were to blame.

If we wish to prevent old age coming on too soon, or if we want to increase our chances for a long life, Dr. Pierce's of the Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., says that you should drink plenty of water daily between meals. Then procure at your nearest drug store Anuric (double strength). This An-u-ric drives the uric acid out and cures backache and rheumatism.

If we wish to keep our kidneys in the best condition a diet of milk and vegetables, with only little meat one day, is the most suitable. Drink plenty of pure water, take Anuric three times a day for a month.

Step into the drug store and ask for Anuric (50 cents a package) or send Dr. Pierce 10c for trial pkg. Anuric, many times more potent than lithia, often eliminates uric acid as hot water with sugar. A short trial will convince you.

Hon. Turkey Flew Afterwards Striking Me So Earnestly on Hair He Left Me Quite Brainless.

To Editor, Who Keep Cheerful in Spite of Holidays:

Dear Sir: While annual yearly date of Thanksgiving approach up, I enjoy pain in connection with my memory. I tell you what collapsed to me last Thanksgiving Thursday:

I was employed for Gen. Cookery at domestic kitchen of Mr. & Mrs. Romeo Goobar, East O'Rora, Ill.

"Togo," say Hon. Mrs., approaching up to me, "tomorrow shall be Thanksgiving Day. We expect to celebrate as usual," she report for sweetly smiling. "There will be 8 to dinner, to include my fattish Uncle Seth who equal 3 more. All my relatives is most sneerful particular about foods. So now will you please elope immediately to market for buy one turkey-chicken of 28 lbs. complete tenderness, 4 qrts. cranberries of delicious sourness, 6 bunches celery-weed, and sufficient punkens to construct 2½ pies?"

I go. At Gouge Bros. Market where was I observe sign, "FAT TURKEY 35c." To see this, I feel very humorous about that High Cost of Life.

"Such delicious cheapness of bird!" I negotiate to Hon. Butcher who was there. "At such rates, how much would 2 tarkies cost?"

"$22.80," he report for immediate arithmatic.

"Do you not promise fat turkey for 35c?" I rake off.

"35c per lb., he snagger financially.

"I should like (1) lb., please!" This from me.

"We do not sell broken sections. You must purchase complete bird, price $9.80." This from him.

"At such rates, folks can get rich by starving," I snagger.

No response from him. He go to ice-box and fetch forth one enlarged fowl without any clothing on.

"This are nice fresh turkey," he satisfy.

"How you know he fresh?" I snagger.

"Have he not been constantly on ice for 2 yrs.? Nothing could be more fresher than that," depose Hon. Butch. I buy.

He sell me expensive celery-bouquet, price 75c per cluster. It seem disrespectful to eat such valuation. Also precious cranberries, price $1 for seldom quantities, added to $2.50 worth punkens for pie. I promenade home-wards, carrying this valuable butchery.

While I was thusly straggling along with burdened back, one assorted dog, name of Hon. Fido, snux up behind of turkey and made sliming sniff-nose.

"Shoo!" I report. Hon. Fido stood waggishly saying nothing, but looking at Hon. Turkey with flirting eye.

Date of Thankful Thursday arrive up. By early a. m. of dawntime I arose up and commenced. All a. m. that assorted dog, Hon. Fido, set outside screen door. I permit him.

About time of afternoon p. m., I could hear several thanksgivings scraping their footprints on rug. Hon. Turkey now send forth smiling smell of bakery, and I was glad to assist his importance.

Pretty soonly all take set-down to table.

"We got much to be thanksgiving for," report Hon. Goobar with sharp knife. "Dinner is late as usual."

"It were not thusly when I was a boy," report Uncle Seth with grone.

"Please pass the celery."

He made smack-taste of this foods, then flop it back with snubbed expression.

"I have tasted no respectable celery since 1841!" he holla baffably.

All enjoy depression by this report.

I go to kitchen for bring in delicious mulligan-tawny soup what I bought. While I was pouring this hot beverage in plates, I notice slight smell of burn. It was Hon. Turkey in oven, becoming too feverish. So I took him out and put him by window where he be more comfortable.

I fetch soup in plates to all those thanksgivings.

"Canned!" they yellup together with voice of sad chorus girls, while thrusting away plates.

"Nothing is real any more!" narrate Uncle Seth with dyspepsia. "Even turtles is deceptive. When boyhood days elapsed, I can remember how we was accustomed, on Thankgive morning, to salute Hon. Turkey by chopping him in kneeh with ax. We knew he was good to eat, because we seen how fresh he acted. But no more. Today, turkies lives like Eskimos—spending their old age on ice before meeting civilized persons. No respectable bird dog would eat them."

I enjoy considerable alarm for this thanksgiving speech. Then, courageous like a Samurai, I retreat to kitchen for fetch forth Hon. Turkey. Hope-thrilled my wrists and elbows as I entered kitchen for escort that sublime turkey—but O!!!! I stand gaff. I look to window where I left that sacred bird. Such things could not! And it was. Empty pan stood there, seeming entirely vacuum. Hon. Turkey had flewed away!

I rosh by window and look earnestly to back yard. Yes!! With thankful expression of tail, there stood Hon. Fido abducting Hon. Turkey across alley by wing.

"Come backwards!" I yellup. Hon. Fido show no impression from my talk. I lep through window 7½ feet to outside. Quickly reassuring my legs, I retreat after that slyly dogish annihle, but he scramble up fence with hooked claws resembling cats. Too late for me! Turkey had escaped from my rear attack.

Mr. Editor, heroes is most brave when reporting failures. So I drag together my soul and enroach toward dining room, where I could hear those 8 thanksgivings complaining about everything. I walk in there carrying empty pan.

"Banzai!" I holla, poking forth vacant dish. "Your digestion shall avoid this agony."

"What is?" all exclaim while leaping to their feetware.

"You should all be very thanksgiving," I snagger. "You have been rescued from considerable preserved poison by one patriotic dog what sacrifice himself by eloping with Hon. Turkey before he could be ate."

"You mean we shall have no turkey?" snagger all.

"How can we fill his vacant platter?" sobb Hon. Mrs. "I should be thankful for Hon. Turkey, however tough!"

Just white she say this—crashly!! Loud sound of approaching dog heard from kitchen window, and Hon. Fido with waggish tail trot into dining room, carrying that enormous bird in his careful teeth. He lay that absent fowl reverently at my feet.

"Hon. Fido do not care for this enlarged chicken, so he bring him back," I report.

"Dinner are now spoilt!" decry Hon. Mrs.

"How could you speak it?" I research. "When turkey go, you say, 'Dinner ruined!' When he come back, you, 'Dinner spoilt!' I am impossible to understand about American customs.

"You have Thanksgiving dinner so you can set around making bewails. So foolish to do! Why you no choose this date to kick out Misfortune?"

"I shall do so!" abrupt Hon. Goobar, arising upwards. "First Misfortune to kick will be in your direction."

Next he rejected me through window by force of Swedish ju-jitsu. Hon. Fido arrive by next kick, and Hon. Turkey flew afterward, striking me on hair so earnestly he left me quite brainless.

Hoping you the same. Yours truly,

Cantonment Road Building.

A record-breaking piece of road-building recently was completed in connection with the army cantonment at Louisville, says an exchange, which continues:

"This is one of the few military establishments that have built permanent roads. In 63 working days the contractor completed 63,300 square yards of Trinidad asphaltic concrete highway laid on a concrete base, or about six miles of road 18 feet wide. A mile of the road was over a four-foot fill, and immediately upon its completion a traffic count showed that 4,000 vehicles passed over it within the first hour. Most of these vehicles were motor trucks and wagons carrying loads of from one to five tons. The record... is all the more remarkable in view of the fact that it was necessary to haul and crush all the stone used in the work."

Some Excuse.

Johnny was a typical boy, and full of excuses for any wrongdoing. One day he whistled aloud in school and his teacher asked how he happened to do it.

Johnny said: "I—I—didn't mean to. I had a little hair in my mouth and I wanted to push it out; I didn't know it was going to make any noise."

Defeat.

Two little girls were playing together. Said one little girl:

"My father owns all the houses in the world, and my mother has a million diamonds."

The other little girl eyed her thoughtfully.

"Well, I've got on a red dress," she said.

Complete silence on the part of the first little girl. There was nothing more to be said.

Easy to Rid Home of Rats and Mice

There is no need of suffering from the depredations of rats and mice now that Stearns' Paste is readily obtainable at nearly every store. A small box of this effective exterminator costs only 25 cents and is usually sufficient to completely rid the house, store or barn of rats and mice. The U. S. Government has bought thousands of pounds of Stearns' Paste for use in cities where rats and mice are plentiful. The Paste is also efficient in destroying cockroaches and waterbugs. Adv.
