Early Closing.

Beginning next Friday, March 1st, our merchants will close their stores at 7:00 o'clock in the evening on all days except Saturday, and will continue to do so until December 1st.

Heretofore this has been a custom with our merchants for the summer only, lasting from June until October. This is commendable; it will not only be appreciated by the clerks and their families, but will be a saving to the merchants as well, in saving of light bills.

Arm Broken.

Mr. Philip Ambrose met with the misfortune a few days ago of having his arm broken while cranking an automobile.

Aside from the pain suffered, this is indeed a sad misfortune to Mr. Ambrose, coming as it does at this season of the year, he being a farmer, and also having recently lost his dwelling house, with its contents, including the clothing of his family.

A Good Woman Dead.

While her death was not unexpected, our community was made sad to learn of the death of Mrs. Enoch Ludford who fell asleep at 10:30 o'clock on last Sunday morning in the eighty-ninth year of her age.

The deceased leaves a grief-stricken husband, four sons, one daughter, several grand and great grand children, and a host of loving friends with whom we join in their sorrow at her departure.

A complete obituary will be given next week.

Card of Thanks.

We take this method of thanking his many friends for their great kindness and attention shown to our brother, Joseph S. Woodard at his death and funeral and we wish to say that if ever the opportunity occurs we will gladly do anything we can to show our appreciation of their many attentions.

Club Notes.

On last Thursday The Home Economics Club of Roper met with Mrs. B. F. Halsay and organized a War Savings Society. After the organization we had an exceedingly interesting exhibition of war cookery. Quite a number of palatable, attractive and nutritious breads and cakes were shown, using flour substitutes. At our next meeting we are to have meat and sugar substitutes.

We hope every lady in the community will attend, whether she is a Club member or not.
