An Announcement.

A Quiet Marriage.

A quiet home wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Jackson on Wednesday evening, April 17th when their daughter, Miss Zula, was married to Mr. W. B. Cox, Rev. B. O. Myers, pastor of the Baptist Church, officiating.

The bride is one of Plymouth's most charming young ladies, and the groom the popular young assistant at the N. S. depot.

Our best wishes are with the happy young couple.

What Will You Do About It?

Washington County's apportionment of the Third Liberty Loan assessment is $75,000.00, of which only $3,850.00 has so far been sold. This money must come from those who have it; it cannot come from those who have none. Is it not better to loan it to your government than to have Germany take it from you? If the first is not done, be sure the second will be. Don't fool yourself in trying to believe it will not reach you.

School Closes.

Chapel Hill School closed a very successful nine months session on Friday last. The event was celebrated by a big basket picnic, those present reporting a most delightful time.

This school, under the care of Misses Moore and Hunt, has made good this year and there seems to be a spirit of enthusiasm in the school and throughout the district. We are informed that the services of these two excellent teachers have been secured for next session.

Clean-up Week.

This week having been set apart by the State Department of Insurance as North Carolina Clean-up Week, Commissioner W. A. Graham of the Agricultural Department calls to the attention of far flung farmers that it is essential for them to have clean premises as it is for the city man. It is well known that a great number of the flies, which North Carolina is scourged could be prevented were there less trash and combustible material lying around the yards and outbuildings of the farm.

Red Cross Announcement.

Creswell, N. C.

To stamp out treason Uncle Sam must come down heavy on all the traitors and sympathizers of the enemy.

"Claim Allowed."

Under the direction of, and with the efficient co-operation and assistance of her corps of teachers and pupils of Mackey Graded School, the above named play, which is written up-to-the-minute, and added anticipation one of the best stories of patriotism and patriotism now before the public, was presented to our people in the Majestic Theatre here on Tuesday evening by Miss Mary Rankin and a troupe from her school, to an appreciative and enthusiastic audience.

With scarcely any advertising, and the weather coming on bad in the late afternoon, we were fearful that our friends from Mackeys would be disappointed with their reception here, but before the performance began a fairly good number of people had arrived, and we felt better, yet we are truly sorry more of our people did not see this play, for it is one written with a purpose, and reaches the innermost soul of every patriotic man, and every other one who has not reached the lowest depths of avarice and inhumanity to man.

The play is brim-full of drama, comedy and pathos beautifully interspersed, and its rendition, using the mildest terms, gave Plymouth the greatest yet most agreeable surprise it has received in quite a while. The acting was not amateurish in the least; the articulation clear and distinct, every member knowing just where they were every minute, and had the price been twice what it was, it was worth it, and more.

While giving full credit to all concerned, we must say that Miss Rankin is a genius of no mean ability and is an asset not to be valued in dollars and cents to any school so fortunate as to secure her services.

We are informed that this play will visit Roper to-night, and will also visit other points in the county, and possibly elsewhere. If it comes within your reach be sure and see it. You will not regret it, and then you will be helping a cause that is of vital interest to all America—the purchase of Liberty Bonds.

We understand that the receipts amounted to something near $50.00, and that Mr. Everett, manager of the Majestic, not only "cut out" his show for the night, but refused to receive indemnity for loss, or rent for the theatre. We personally most heartily commend our young friend for his liberality.
